RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

At a recent meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary a resolution of condolence was passed, expressive of profound and heart-felt sympathy for Sister Harris in the two-fold bereavement she has lately experienced in the death of her two daughters, Beatrice and Geraldine. They also pray that God in His infinite love will sustain her while passing through a period of unavailing loneliness, enabling her to say "Thy will be done," till the sorrow which "endureth for a night" will be dissipated by the "joy which cometh with the morning" when she will meet her dear ones to part no more.

THE LATE MR. ARKSEY.

The late Geo. Arksey, whose remains were interred in the village cemetery last Sunday, was born in Yorkshire, England, on the 5th of April, 1809. He came to this country in 1832, stopping for a time at Montreal where he worked as a miller, which trade he had learned before leaving the Old Country. In the following year he came to York, in which county he worked at his trade, and afterwards operated mills of his own for many years. Deceased was very successful in business, not only in flour-mills but in saw-mills. He retired from active life in 1867, after having run the Richmond Hill flour-mills for about fifteen years. Mr. Arksey and family lived for a number of years in Newmarket from which place they went to Toronto where they resided for a time. ## Langstaff

Many people of this vicinity have for weeks past been patiently waiting for our correspondent to resume his interesting news notes to THE LIBERAL. Some say he has been sick, others that he is away spending his holidays, others that he is too busy with more important matters, while a few declare there is nothing worth his writing. Which is right we know not. However, still wishing for his speedy return, we venture to send a few local items.

Mr. W. Daniels, who is engaged with Mr. B. Weldrick, met with an accident the other day which might have proved fatal. While coming down the large hill on the side road with a load of grain the rack gave way and he fell in front of the wagon. One wheel passed over the lower portion of his back, the other barely grazed his hip. Remarkable to say no bones were broken, and with medical attendance we trust he will soon recover.

Miss E. Chapman and Mr. Inglehart of Toronto, were visiting at Newmarket on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Brillinger and family were the guests of Mr. Graham last week.

The Rev. J. O. Clubine is spending his vacation at home. We believe he intends resuming his studies at Toronto University in September.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Weldrick were visiting Mr. J. Weldrick of East York, last Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Bates and her two children are spending this week with her mother, Mrs. R. Drury.

Miss B. Bell of Scarboro', was the guest of Miss A. Boyle last week.

Miss W. Bolton and Mr. Garnet of Toronto, made a few calls in this vicinity on the evening of civic holiday.

Mr. E. A. James leaves this week to attend the Normal School, Toronto. Mr. James has most successfully taught in the section for the past two years, and all unite in wishing him every success.

The school here will re-open on Monday, August 16th. It is hoped that as many of the pupils as possible will be in attendance. Mr. J. Drury has been engaged as teacher.
