Mr Geo. Buskin, missionary, was in the village Wednesday afternoon and Thursday; while here he collected $4.80 in aid of the Algoma and North-West Colportage mission which he wishes to gratefully acknowledge through THE LIBERAL.

Did you read in the paper the other day about a farmer near Kleinburg obtaining a yield of 60 bush. of fall wheat to the acre? Well, do you know the secret? Let me whisper it in your ear. He used Bradley's Fertilizer, which you can obtain from H. A. Nicholls.

Using Bradley's Fertilizer is no speculation. The good results obtained are a certainty. The firm have manufactured them for the past 33 years, which should be a guarantee of their success. Try a few acres of your fall wheat with it and you will order more next season from H. A. Nicholls.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

The Epworth League on Friday evening passed a motion expressing their sympathy with Mr. Warren Hewison in the loss of his wife. Mrs. Hewison was an honored member of the League.

Sheppard of Toronto, the popular elocutionist; and musical selection by the Whyte Guitars of Toronto, accompanied by organ and harp. Admission for dinner and Entertainment 25 cents children 15 cents

Wedding Bells.

One of those pleasant events which always cause an interest in social circles took place in the Methodist Church last evening, the occasion being the marriage of Rev. A. J. Paul, B. A., B. D., to Annie Scarborough, the only daughter of Mr. Charles Mason (Scarborough). The church was beautifully decorated by the ladies of the congregation with the choicest flowers and plants, the pulpit and platform being banked with ferns, golden rod, sweet peas, fuchsias, and many other varieties. Although the auditorium and the gallery of the church were crowded, the ushers, Messrs. Geo. Oram and Geo. Scarborough of Toronto, succeeded admirably in making both guests and spectators comfortable, and did their parts to perfection. The interesting ceremony was performed by Rev. G. McCulloch, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Mr. Stewart of Maple. Shortly after 7 o'clock, as the wedding march was being exquisitely played by Mrs. A. J. Hume, the groom, accompanied by his groomsmen, Mr. H. Graham of Bradford, entered at the side door and took his place before the altar.

Little Miss Hazel Switzer, as maid of Honor, was sweetly pretty in a dainty dress of cream Japan silk and Valenciennes lace, carrying in her hand a wand of lovely flowers, which made her look like a fairy in a mid-summer night's dream.

All eyes were fastened admirably upon the bridesmaid, Miss Ethel Switzer, as with graceful, measured step she walked slowly up the aisle, looking superbly lovely in pink silk gauze interwoven with silver cords which fell like sunset clouds over a dress of pink silk. She carried a shower bouquet of exquisite pink roses tied with immense streamers of pink moire ribbon.

The bride with stately step moved slowly down the aisle supported by the arm of her father. She was elegantly attired in ivory silk, which swept the ground in graceful folds, the bodice of which was a bewildering maze of puffs and shirrs in silk and mousselin, de soire with pearl trimmings and soft white lace falling from her neck and arms. She made an enchanting picture with her sweet face half concealed behind the filmy folds of her bridal veil which was fastened to her fair hair by a charming cluster of white roses. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and ferns.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where the newly-married couple were the recipients of hearty congratulations. The dining room where a sumptuous repast was served was artistically arranged, a floral bell being suspended directly over the bride's seat at the table. After the repast, the following toasts were happily proposed and responded to, Mr. T. F. McMahon, acting as chairman:—"The Bride", Mr. J. E. Switzer, responded to by the groom; "The Bridesmaid", Dr. Hutchison, responded to by the groomsmen; "Host and Hostess" Rev. G. McCulloch, responded to by Mr. C. Mason; "The Clergy", by Mr. A. E. Coombs, responded to by Rev. J. W. Stewart and Rev. Herbert Lee.

The high esteem in which the bride is held by her numerous friends was evidenced by the large number of beautiful and costly presents of which she was the recipient.

The happy couple, amidst warmest congratulations of relatives and friends, left by cab for Toronto shortly after 10 o'clock. They purpose taking a week's trip previous to settling in their new and comfortably furnished parsonage in Warminster.

The following is a list of the presents: Opal brooch from the groom; gold watch and chain from her father; dessert spoons, Mr. and Mrs. I. Crosby; jardnere and stand, Dr. and Mrs. Hutchison and Mrs. Miss Rogers; salad bowl, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sanderson; jardiniere, Mrs. Sivers, sr.; silver ladel, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
