Singing at Entertainments.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL:

SIR,—How is it that at some of our public gatherings there are those who cater to the evening's entertainment who so far forget to take that which would be but a prudent forethought, by singing what, to many, is an objectionable song, known as "The Holy Friar." I do not think for a moment that it is sung with the least intention of causing offence, but do not those who do so know that in all cases our social and literary gatherings are composed of mixed audiences? That in order to make these entertainments pecuniarily successful tickets are sold to all who will purchase, irrespective of denomination or membership, and the managers are thankful for the patronage? Allow me to ask, would it be appreciated by a Protestant community to have one of its ministers whose rotundity of figure, and joviality of face, the result of good living, has made him somewhat conspicuous among his fellows, held up to ridicule before a public audience by an adherent of the Catholic Church? How much would such an audience endure a selection that showed such a lack of consideration of the respect due to every minister of the Gospel of Christ. In these days of Christian forbearance and religious toleration of each other's theological views, and of high respect for those whose duty it is to see to the spiritual welfare of our churches, common courtesy dictates that those who appear on the public platform either to instruct or to amuse should look before they leap into any blunder that would mar the entertainment in the mind of anyone who may have come to spend a pleasant, social, or profitable evening.

A METHODIST.

WANTED—An experienced canvasser to travel and appoint agents. No canvassing. Salary and expenses paid. THE BRADLEY-GARRETSON CO., Limited, Toronto.

Gormley

Elder Jesse Engle, a well known minister of the Brethren or Tunkard Church, and wife, of Abilene, Kansas, are making a farewell visit among the churches of their denomination previous to their departure as missionaries to Africa. He preached in the church near Gormley on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week to large and attentive congregations. His theme was: "The mission work; the vast field white unto harvest; the scarcity of faithful laborers; and the solemn responsibility resting on the Christians of America to send the Gospel light to the dark corners of the earth." Elder Engle, his wife and two other workers expect to leave New York November 23rd on the White Star Liner Majestic, then via London to Cape Town. In the meantime they will visit the churches in their native State of Pennsylvania.

The Brethren Church (Tunkard) is being repainted and renovated generally, and will not be open for worship till Sunday, Dec. 5th. In the meantime services will be held in the Union Church, on the town line, on Sunday mornings, except next Sunday.

WANTED—Industrious men of character.
THE LINSKOTT COMPANY, Toronto.

Rigans Tabules cure bad breath.

Lanestaff

"The cold November days have come, the saddest of the year. Of mauling winds, and naked woods, and meadows brown and ere." So our citizens are beginning to think since the recent downfall of rain commenced.

The farmers of this locality have been very busy ploughing of late in order to get as much done as possible before Jack Frost puts in his appearance for good. There is a great deal to do around here.

Mr. E. A. James who is attending Toronto Normal School spent Saturday last at Prospect Park Farm.

The Misses Ingleheart of Palermo were the guests of the Misses Chubine last week.

We are pleased to welcome Mr. Kasley and his family of Thornhill into our midst. They have moved into the dwelling south of Trinity Church.

Miss N. Drury of Toronto spent Sunday last at home.

Miss Watson, who was rather severely hurt while getting off a Metropolitan Car about two weeks ago, is recovering nicely. She was visiting Mrs. N. Chapman at the time of the accident.

Miss Stewart of Toronto is visiting at the Observatory Farm this week.

We see by the Toronto papers that Mr. E. A. James has been elected vice-president of the Literary Society at the Normal School.

Miss Grace Darling who has been visiting at Victoria Square for the past few weeks returned Tuesday.
