Good music will be furnished. All are welcome.

GREATER THAN THE KLONDIKE RUSH.

The official reports from Montreal are to the effect that the Post Office authorities have been obliged to put on extra clerks to handle the letters arriving with subscription for the Family Herald and Weekly Star and in the Family Herald office itself, it is said that their enormous staff of clerks has had to be heavily reinforced to meet the unprecedented rush of new names. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is a great paper and it is getting a rousing reception.

FRIDAY EVENING AT LEAGUE.

The entertainment given by the Epworth League on Friday evening was quite a success. The crowd was not large on account of counter attractions but all seem to have a good time. In the contest which was spoken of in last week's issue, the prize an E. L. pin was won by Miss Hattie Sisley. She obtained 180 marks out of a possible 210. Several others made very high marks. Miss Bessie Redditt read a paper on Halloween, and Mr. Harrison also gave a reading. The musical part of the programme was well sustained by Misses S. Trench, J. Wiley, E. Switzer and Mrs. Mason. The chair was taken by Mr. W. E. Brown.

AN ANNIVERSARY NUMBER.

On account of the November issue being the opening of the Tenth Volume, The Canadian Magazine issues an Anniversary Number. It has a special cover, and is more bulky than the usual numbers of our national publication, while the contents are perhaps above the average. Mr. J. S. Willison, editor of the Toronto Globe, has a magnificent article dealing with John Sandfield Macdonald, Edward Blake, Sir Oliver Mowat, and Hon. Arthur S. Hardy—the premiers past and present of Ontario. This is undoubtedly one of the best studies in political life ever penned by a Canadian. John A. Cooper gives an account of the Fenian raid of 1866, which is accompanied by many valuable photographs and maps. Dr. J. G. Bourinot gives the first of his series of twelve papers on "The Makers of the Dominion of Canada," and it indicates that the other articles will be, decidedly interesting as well as educative. This first article is enlivened by some valuable historical illustrations relating to Ericsson, Cabot and Cartier. The poetry and the departments are as interesting as usual. Contributions from Gilbert Parker, Goldwin Smith, Principal Parkin, and other leading writers, are announced for the Christmas number.

HALLOWEEN CONCERT.

Seldom has an organization here met with more gratifying success than did the Ladies Aid Society on Monday evening when they gave their Halloween supper and entertainment in the Methodist church. The only drawback was the dark night and the threatening appearance of rain which, no doubt, had the effect of keeping many away. The viands, which were first-class, were served in the school-room which, in accordance with time-honored customs, was appropriately decorated for a hallowe'en occasion. Later in the evening all repaired to the auditorium of the church where a pleasing and extensive programme was well carried out by a large number of talented artists. The programme was even and well balanced, and without a single exception the performers earned for themselves the highest praise. The audience was enthusiastic, and although there were nearly twenty numbers on the programme, every performer was forced to respond to encores. Mrs. (Dr.) Sisley, who sang here for the first time, made a favorable impression; Mrs. Hales' recitations were well received; Miss Beattie, of Toronto, showed considerable skill as an elocutionist; Rev. Mr. Large's strong basso voice was much admired; Master Josie Gray, the boy reciter, created quite a sensation with his catchy selections, and the almost perfect rendering of some of Mr. Blight's baritone solos were very much appreciated by the critical audience. The local performers in both vocal and instrumental selections did well and were heartily encored. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. Hume, Mrs. Blight, and Miss Edith Switzer. Rev. Mr. McCulloch, who acted as chairman, referred in terms of pride to the success of the entertainment, and expressed his pleasure in presiding over such a pleasant gathering. The programme contained the following selections:—1, organ solo, Mrs. Hume; 2, anthem, by Choir; 3, recitation, "The Piper of Hamelin," Mrs. Hales; 4, solo, "The Land of the Maple," Mr. Blight; 5, solo, "On the Bonnie, Bonnie Banks o' Loch Lomond," Mrs. Sisley; 6, recitation, "A Boy's Revenge," Master Josie Gray; 7, solo, "Death of Nelson," Rev. Mr. Large; 8, recitation, Miss Beattie; 9, cornet duet, "I Live and Love," Messrs. Mason and Glass; 10, recitation, Mrs. Hales; 11, solo, "Bonnie Sweet Bessie of Dundee," Miss Mary Trench; 12, horn (alto) solo, "Old Scotch Songs," Mr. A. J. Hume; 13, recitation, "Jokes on Watermelon Pickles," Master Josie Gray; 14, solo, "On Wings of Steel," Mr. Blight; 15, solo, "Children's Home," Mrs. Sisley; 16, recitation, Miss Beattie. God Save the Queen.

FOOTBALL AT WOODBRIDGE.

The High School football team journeyed to Woodbridge on Saturday last to play a friendly game with the team of that place. The game was exciting throughout and was very close. The score was one to nothing in favor of Woodbridge. The names of the players, were J. McNeil, C. Malloy, P. Keffer, M. Powers, C. Ellston, J. G. McDonald, W. Trench, P. Lyons, F. Rumble, L. Keffer, W. Lindsay. The boys speak well of their treatment by the Woodbridge team. The return match will be played in a short time. The referee was Mr. Coombs.
