FAMILIAR FACES.

The March number of The Manitoba Good Templar, published at Winnipeg, contains a column article from the pen of Mrs. Elizabeth Law, mother of Mr. R. E. Law and Mrs. J. Grant of this village. In this article the writer who is staying with her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Blakely, gives reminiscences of the temperance movement in the vicinity of Richmond Hill from the year 1828, dealing principally with the work of the I. O. G. T. The subject of the sketch and Mrs. Blakely also appear in the same number in a group representing Fort Garry Lodge of Good Templars. Mrs. Blakely is Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba and North West Territories.

EASTER OFFERING.

We again ask the readers of THE LIBERAL to kindly remember the Easter offering for the Hospital for Sick children. As the merits of this Institution are so well known to the people of Richmond Hill and vicinity it is not necessary to furnish any information regarding it. We know that there are many calls made in behalf of worthy charities, which meet a hearty response from our people, many of whom have verified the saying of the Master, "It is more blessed to give than to receive," and we also know that there is no more worthy charity than this Hospital, which cares so tenderly for sick children; not of Toronto alone, but from any part of the country where such care is needed. Donations of fruit, eggs, books, toys, &c., may be left at THE LIBERAL office on Good Friday morning. These will be carefully packed and sent to the Hospital on Saturday. Let us all help in providing for these poor little suffering ones a "Happy Easter time" in His name, who has said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ye have done it unto me."

WEDDING BELLS.

We copy the following from the Stouffville Sentinel of last week:—On Wednesday of this week a number of relatives and friends gathered at the residence of Mr. Chas. Radmore on O'Brien Ave., to witness the marriage of Miss Ida Louisa, eldest daughter of the late Wm. J. Smith, to Mr. George Drury, of Markham Township. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. C. Wilson, of the Stouffville Presbyterian Church. The bride, who was presented by her brother, Mr. W. J. Smith, was attired in a beautiful, rich brown costume. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Bella Smith, who was adorned in a splendid green habit, while Mr. W. Shell, of Toronto, acted the part of groomsmen. After the ceremony, which took place at 5.30 o'clock, and the usual congratulations, all sat down to a sumptuous and delicately prepared wedding supper. The presents were numerous, useful and costly. The newly married couple left on the eight o'clock train for Toronto, followed by the well wishes of a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Drury will take up their abode on a farm in Vaughan Township, near Richmond Hill. The Sentinel unites with their many friends in wishing them longevity, prosperity and happiness.

WANTED: Farmers' sons or other industrious persons of fair education to whom $60 a month would be an inducement. I could also engage a few ladies at their own homes. T. H. LINSOTT, TORONTO.

FELL INTO A TANK.

Gertrude, the five year old daughter of Mr. Geo. Derry, had a narrow escape from drowning on Tuesday afternoon. On her way to see her grandmother, Mrs. G. Wiley, the little girl jumped on the top of a water tank, sunk in the ground opposite Mr. Elliott's on Richmond street, when the worn out plank gave way. The tank was nearly full of water and Gertrude was wet above her waist, but fortunately she held on with her arms until her little friend, Ethel Metcalf, drew her from her perilous position. Naturally the parents were much alarmed when they learned of the dangerous accident. A number of the village tanks are dangerous traps, and the problem is how to overcome the difficulty. It is almost impossible to keep them locked so close to the ground, and yet it is dangerous to have the lids in such a way that children can open them. The covers could be easily nailed down, but in case of a fire there might be difficulty in opening them quickly. The Council will no doubt look into the matter and see that the covers are not allowed to decay.

DEATH OF CAPT. MCCONNELL.

The following obituary notice appeared in the Globe of Monday, as a special from Woodstock:—On March the 24th Capt. McConnell passed away at his home on Francis street. On Tuesday, March 22nd, he was at his post as engineer at the New Barnes bicycle factory, where he has been employed since the works started. During the afternoon he was taken suddenly ill. He was found almost in a dying condition. The sick man was removed to his home and in two days died, a victim to heart failure. The late Capt. McConnell was born in Scarborough Township shortly after the rebellion, and afterwards with his family removed to Markham. While there he attended the Cavalry school, and was connected with the Canadian cavalry for some twenty-five years, being captain of No. 2 troop, Oak Ridges cavalry. In the year 1877 he retired to Richmond Hill. In the meantime he received the appointment of License Inspector for West York at the time the Scott Act was in force, which position he held for seven years. Then he became an employe of the Patterson Bros., remaining with them until they gave up business. Capt. McConnell's genial disposition won him a host of friends. A wife and three children—Fred, Myrtle and Olive—mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father. On March 26th, at the captain's late home, a large number gathered to follow his remains to their last resting place. An impressive funeral service was conducted by Rev. Dr. McKay, when he eulogized in warm terms the captain's worth as a church member and elder of Chalmers Church. The floral offerings were beautiful, including a star from his brother-elders and a wreath from the New Barnes Bicycle Company and several others from friends. The pall-bearers were six of his brother-elders. Among the friends from a distance were Messrs. Alex. Turnbull, Major Williamson, Robt. Harper, John Turnbull and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Howell.
