Society and Fashion Gossip from the Queen City.

The appearance of Mlle. Toronto at the Massey Hall on May 17th, will undoubtedly attract a large and fashionable audience, and music lovers from the country should avail themselves of the grand opportunity of hearing one of our own songstresses, who has a very fine voice, also a remarkably pleasing stage presence. Massey Hall should be filled to the doors on that occasion.
The Princess Opera Company have made a decided hit, and surely will be as popular with Toronto people as the Stock Company who completed one of the most successful seasons ever known to the Princess Theatre. "Dorothy" will be the opera for this week, and will no doubt be more in favor than "The Mandarin," as the music is more popular.

THE NEW CUISINE.

A poem taken from the South-western Medical Review:
We used to have old-fashioned things, like hominy and greens.
We used to have just common soup, made out of pork and beans.
But now its bouillon, consommé and things made from a book,
And pot au feu and julienne, since my daughter's learned to cook.
We used to have a piece of beef—just ordinary meat—
And pickled pigs' feet, spare ribs, too,
And other things to eat;
While now its jillet, with ragout, and leg-o'-mutton braised,
And macaroni au gratin, and sheep's head Hollandaised.
Escalops a la Versailles—a la this and a la that—
And sweet-bread a la Dieppoise—its enough to kill a cat;
But while I suffer deeply, I invariably look
As if I were delighted 'cause my daughter's learned to cook.

We have a lot of salad things with dressing mayonnaise;
In place of oysters, blue points fricasseed a dozen ways,
And orange roly poly flat, and peach meringue, alas!
Enough to wreck a stomach that is made of plated brass!
The good old things have passed away, in silent sad retreat;
We've lots of highfalutin things, but nothing much to eat.
And while I never say a word and always pleasant look,
I have had sore dyspepsia since my daughter's learned to cook.

Let all the daughters attend the Victor Mission House Cooking School, of which I gave a small description in my last "gossip," and I am positive that Miss Grattan will teach them to make "something to eat."
Apropos of something to eat, Mr. George McConkey is about to open "a five o'clock tea parlor," where every day in the week from half past three to half past five ladies can drop in and enjoy a social cup of tea, and at the same time hear sweet music from a mandolin orchestra.

Throat and Lung Diseases.

CANNABIS SATIVA, DR. STEVENS' EAST INDIAN CONSUMPTION CURE RESTORES HEALTH.
A great gain in medical knowledge was made with the discovery of the curative properties of Cannabis Sativa—Dr. Stevens' East Indian Consumption Cure—and its virtues in the treatment of consumption, catarrh, asthma and diseases of the throat and lungs have been thoroughly tested and proved. Catarrh and asthma of long standing which endangered the lives of the patients have been completely cured by its use. The first few doses relieve the distressing symptoms of these diseases and continued treatment cures them.
This curative property has been demonstrated in thousands of cases, a typical case being described in the following letters:

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 5.
W. A. NOYES, Rochester, N. Y.:
DEAR SIR:—Some eight years ago I wrote you with reference to a preparation for the cure of catarrh and consumption in its local stage. I want to convey herewith my testimony for it. I had a very severe case—one in which I became alarmed—of catarrh in its worst stage. My throat was equally as bad as the nasal passages in the way of corruption, and mucus filled with blood and matter. At night it would cause suffocation, and sometimes would entirely unfit me for duty. You informed me where I could get the prescription rightly repaired. I went and obtained it at G. Eisenbeis' drug store in Allegheny, Pa. After taking it for three months, I was entirely free from the trouble, and thought I would wait until I would see if the cure would be absolute. I must say here it has done more than I expected.
Yours truly, ROBERT S. CLARK.
PITTSBURG, Pa., March 9th, 1898

W. A. NOYES, Rochester, N. Y.
DEAR SIR:—My interest in your remedy has grown very much. My health has never been better. The catarrh has never returned, for which I am extremely thankful.
Yours truly, ROBERT S. CLARK.
Another letter shows the gratitude of another catarrh sufferer:

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb'y 23rd, 1898.
W. A. NOYES.
DEAR SIR:—The Sativa remedy is the best medicine I ever took for a cough or the catarrh. It cured the catarrh for me, and I can recommend it to any one troubled in that way.
Yours thankfully, MRS. L. CARTER.
To anyone suffering from any of the diseases indicated above a free sample of Dr. Stevens' East Indian Consumption Cure—Cannabis Sativa—will be sent on application to W. A. Noyes, 820 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED: Farmers' sons or other industrious persons of fair education to whom $60 a month would be an inducement. I could also engage a few ladies at their own homes.

As it was reported that Mr. Forhan was still suffering from an ailment in the throat Miss Duncan was, on motion of Mr. McConaghy, seconded by Mr. Lynett, engaged to take the Principal's place for a few days.
The meeting had been specially called to consider the advisability of allowing Mr. Johnston, H. S. Assistant, to accept a more remunerative position which had been offered him in the Listowel High School. Mr. Johnston, however, decided not to accept the position as he had been engaged here until the end of the term. The Board thanked Mr. Johnston for relieving them from taking action on a very unpleasant duty.

A very successful church social was held here on Tuesday evening last. It was arranged by the young people of the neighborhood and was one of those events which serves to strengthen the Christian social spirit. The programme consisted of music by the choir and the Misses Baker and a solo by Rev. R. S. E. Large, a paper on home amusements by Miss G. Baker and addresses by Rev. Mr. Stewart of Maple and Mr. E. Coombs of the High School Richmond Hill. The subject of Mr. Stewart's address was "A purposeful Life," and Mr. Coombs spoke on "Spare Time." Rev. Mr. Large acted as chairman. At the close of the literary programme, light refreshments were served. All seemed to have a good time and many wishes were expressed that this might not be the last of such pleasing social events.
