At a recent meeting of the West York Liberal Association the legal aspect of the protest entered against the return of Mr. W. J. Hill was fully explained. By the Conservatives claiming the seat for Mr. St. John, the Liberals will have an opportunity of having the conduct of Mr. St. John and his agents reviewed without the formality of filing a cross-petition or posting money for security of costs. If the protest goes to trial the Liberals will take an interesting part in the proceedings.

ADDRESS TO SABBATH SCHOOL.

Last Sabbath Rev. A. R. Sanderson gave an interesting address to the scholars of the Methodist School in this village. The Rev. gentleman based his remarks on the Text, "Ye are the light of the world," illustrating them by placing before his youthful audience Candles of various colors and sizes. "To many of the little ones born in this age of gas and electricity those candles, "The light of other Days," were quite a new idea and the old timed snuffers a real curiosity. Lighting and extinguishing the lights as he proceeded in his remarks, he showed the source, the work and the result of the influence of the Holy Spirit on the human heart, with many lively hits at youthful peculiarities and many useful hints toward developing these natural tendencies of younger days into the mature and useful life of later years.

CLEVELAND BICYCLES.

The Wheeling Gazette contains the following relative to cheap wheels:—Fully realizing at last the necessity of supplying the public with machines that list at a reasonable figure, nearly every maker in the country is at work on one or more low-priced models. The best makers consider $55.00 the stopping point for a really good machine, as from experience it has been found impossible to manufacture a wheel lower than that which could be depended on. There is a line of models H. A. Lozier & Co. are placing on the market this season, which retail at $55, $70 and $80. They are a firm who have looked ahead, and while manufacturing a cheap bicycle, they have made it up-to-date in every detail. A wheel like this, backed by a firm with the name and reputation that H. A. Lozier & Co. bear, will undoubtedly have a ready sale. Agency for the above firm at THE LIBERAL office. Call or write for catalogue.
