RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.
The following expression of sympathy has been forwarded in accordance with a resolution passed at the last meeting of the W. M. S.

MRS. MORTSON:
DEAR SISTER:—In the hour of your sore bereavement the Woman's Missionary Society would convey to you their sincere love and sympathy. God has laid His afflicting hand heavily upon you, but, as He comforted your dear husband through a long and painful illness so He will comfort you in your loneliness and sorrow. Cast your burden on Him and He will sustain you for He is a real burden bearer. He does not willingly afflict us, what we know not now we shall know hereafter when the mists shall have rolled away, and we shall see Him as He is and all the ransomed ones whose robes are made clean through the blood of the Lamb. Sorrow and darkness shall have fled away. We pray that Christ the divine Healer may apply the balm to your wounded heart and that you may recognize Him as your loving Saviour who is a husband to the widow and a Father to the fatherless.

Mrs. G. McCulloch, Pres.
Mrs. W. D. Atkinson, Cor. Sec'y.

The excursionists left here on the regular 7 o'clock car, and arrived home by special car about 11 p. m. The trip was made across the lake by the White Star steamer and was thoroughly enjoyed, although a few of the passengers had occasion to look over the side of the steamer, "just to watch the fishes," as a cruel member of the company facetiously remarked. Among the entertainers at the Park in the afternoon were a number of American gentlemen who gave short addresses. Rev. W. F. Wilson also gave an address, and Mr. Alex.
