A STRIKING ISSUE.

The tendency of educated Canadians to study and write upon important subjects is clearly proven in the September Canadian Magazine. It contains four illustrated stories and a beautifully illustrated article on Jamaica; but the rest of the issue is taken up with learned, though brightly written, articles as follows: The St. Lawrence Route and the Manitoba Grain Trade by Edward Farrer; Canada's International Status by Sir Chas. Hibbert Tupper; Failure of the Australian Federation Bill by W. H. Fitchett; The Members of the First Dominion Parliament (with portraits and autographs) by Sir John G. Bourinot; A Review of R. G. Haliburton's Scientific Discoveries by Norman Patterson; The Chaplain Monument, with full page picture, by Arthur G. Doughty; Great Britain and Russia by Charles Frederick Hamilton; and Current Events Abroad by John A. Ewan. The quality of each of these articles is beyond criticism and the matter is exceedingly important. The frontispiece is a splendid reproduction of a copyright photograph of the late Archbishop Walsh. The whole number is beautifully illustrated and printed.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A distressing accident occurred on the 4th concession of Markham on Tuesday. About 11 o'clock the only child of Mr. and Mrs. B. Carter, a little girl between two and three years of age, said "Good-bye Mamma," and went out to play. The child was out only a short time when it made its way to a binder and climbed upon the implement. Unfortunately when getting down its clothes caught in some part of the binder and the little thing was strangled. The child was dead when found. The parents who are almost distracted with grief in the loss of their little darling, have the sincere sympathy of neighbors and friends in their sad bereavement.

Our clothes fit your body, our prices fit your pocket-book, our terms fit your wages. Atkinson & Switzer.

METROPOLITAN EXTENSION.

The Metropolitan management may now be said to be fairly started on the extension of their railway line from this village to Bond's Lake. They have made use of a freight car to haul a large number of ties from the south, as well as carts, shovels, and other implements necessary in the construction. Work has also commenced at the power house which will be built at the lake between the present roadway of Yonge street and the water. It is proposed to put in a 1,500 horse-power so that very heavy loads may be hauled over the line. A large force of men will commence grading in a few days. The company are anxious to extend their line to Aurora and Newmarket, but it is understood they would like those towns as well as the townships of King and Whitechurch to exempt them from municipal taxation.

All men are born free and have an equal chance to get their necessary clothing at Atkinson & Switzer's.

SUDDEN DEATH.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Thomson, formerly an esteemed citizen of this village, took place from the home of Mr. Wm. Thomas, 4th con. Vaughan, to the cemetery here on Saturday afternoon. The ceremonies were conducted by Revs. Messrs. Stewart of Maple, and McCulloch of Richmond Hill. Deceased had been ailing for some time, and went to Streetsville to consult a physician. Dr. Aikin. Her end came suddenly, so suddenly that comparatively few people here knew of her illness until they were startled by the news of her death. It was ascertained that she had been suffering from an inward abscess. Mrs. Thomson had formerly lived at Patterson, Headford, Maple and other places in the immediate vicinity, and was a great favorite with her acquaintances.

Storey, son of Mrs. Storey of this village, is on his way to Porto Rico, with others to attend the sick and wounded American soldiers who took part in the late war, and to take them home as soon as they can be removed. We copy the following:—C. R. Storey and William F. Irish of the Lowell Ambulance Corps, will sail on the Bay State for Porto Rico Monday morning. They went to Boston yesterday and were measured for their uniforms. These are to include a blue fatigue and a white canvass suit for each man. The clothing is bought by the Massachusetts Volunteer Aid Association. A third Lowell man, Edward W. Daly, has volunteered his services, but whether he will have a chance to go will depend entirely on the condition of a man who is now sick when the boat leaves Monday morning. Irish and Storey and Daly are among the best men in the Ambulance Corps.
