Various camps of the Sons of Scotland met at Birrell's hotel last Friday evening and spent a pleasant time together. As Camp Lord Elgin of Richmond Hill had some time before entertained the city brethren, the former were invited to partake of a supper with the latter at the above mentioned place. About 20 of the Richmond Hill brethren were present and between 50 and 60 from Toronto and vicinity. After a fraternal greeting all round the members repaired to one of the large rooms of the hotel and there spent an hour in social intercourse, interspersed with song. Next a very tempting supper was served on the lawn to the rear of the hotel, which had been tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns, plants and flowers. As the night air was a little cold, all again repaired to an inner room where a programme of toasts, responses and songs was well carried out. Bro. Maclean of Waverley Camp acted as chairman, and many good speeches were made. After "The Queen" was duly honored "The Visiting Brethren" was proposed, and Bro. P. G. Savage was called upon to respond, which he did in an able manner, and in his remarks referred to various incidents which came under his notice in his recent trip to the old country. Bro. W. Innes proposed the City Camps, Bro. Maclean replying on behalf of Camp Waverley, and Bro. Dr. Wilson for Strathelyde. Bro. D. B. Birrell, a prominent member of the order responded on behalf of "The Host and Hostess," expressing his pleasure in having his brother members with him, and hoping that their attachment to each other would never grow less. It is needless to say a Highland Piper was present and played a number of airs. Mr. Powell, of Dundee, Scotland, and Mr. Thomas Newton were among those who gave vocal selections. The brethren closed an enjoyable entertainment by singing Auld Lang Syne.
