Co-Operative Experiments No. 15.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL.

The result of the testing of four varieties of Mangolds and one of Sugar Beets, on lot 12, 3rd con., Vaughan, is given below. The tests were conducted on a black, sandy loam, manured with about 18 loads per acre last spring. The varieties were planted in plots one rod square. The drills were 28 inches apart, and the plants 8 inches apart. The results were as follows:—

| Variety | No. of Plants | Actual weight in plot, lbs. | Estimated yield per acre, Tons |
|--------------------------------------|---------------|-----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Simmers' Improved Man., Long Red | 158 | 282 | 22 1/2 |
| Evans Mammoth Sawlogs | 158 | 300 | 24 |
| Carters Champion Yellow Intermediate | 158 | 249 | 19 1/2 |
| Carters Warden Yellow Globe | 158 | 130 | 18 1/2 |
| Danish Improved Sugar Beet | 158 | 275 | 22 |

I would like, Mr. editor, to see a report of anybody else who has taken up co-operative experiment in connection with the Agricultural Experimental Farm at Guelph, in the columns of your paper, as it seems to arouse a local interest in the community that the Agricultural report would not. Hoping that others will report any experiments they have tried, as there were some 13 different experiments last year,

I am

Yours &c.

Mr. Brown's Death.

Mr. John Brown, for many years one of Richmond Hill's most prominent and highly respected citizens, passed away on Thursday afternoon last, in his 65th year, after an illness of five weeks. Mr. Brown's health had been failing for several years past, but he was always able to move around and conduct his business until five weeks before his death, when he was taken with a severe attack of dysentery, which left him very weak and from which he never rallied. Although it was generally known that he was very ill his friends and relatives hoped for his recovery, which made the shock more severe when the end came suddenly. Deceased was born in England, County of Kent, but came to this country at an early age, and spent most of his life in this village and its vicinity. Mr. Brown followed farming for a time, for many years he carried on a successful flour and feed and grocery store where Mr. Hall now is, afterwards he bought the Richmond Hill bakery which he conducted until six or seven years ago, when he sold out and retired to his farm, "Dufferin Grove," where he resided until within the past year. Mr. Brown always took a deep interest in affairs tending to the prosperity of our village. He first acted as councillor and afterwards became reeve of the municipality. For several years he was chairman of the Board of Education. In politics he was a Conservative. At public meetings of the Association held here he generally presided, and no political opponent could ever say he did not receive fair play when Mr. Brown was in the chair. He was a member of the Church of England, and was a charter member of Ivy Lodge, A. O. U. W.

The very large funeral to St. John's cemetery, Oak Ridges, on Sunday, was another proof of the esteem in which deceased was held in the community. Among the mourners were his three brothers, Rev. Alfred Brown of Owen Sound; William Brown of Newmarket; and Joseph Brown of Bradford; his three sisters, Mrs. McGee of Newmarket; Mrs. Horsley of White Rose; and Mrs. Patten of Missing; his three sons, J. T. Brown of Toronto; B. R. Brown, postmaster, Lansing; and O. J. Brown of this village; his two daughters of this village; also Mr. H. B. Newbery of Toronto; Robert Newbery of Aurora; and others. The only absent member of the immediate relatives was a sister, Mrs. R. Dewsbury of Virginia. The pall-bearers were Hon. N. C. Wallace, R. Elliott, John Coulter, Wm. Furey, M. McNair and J. H. Sanderson. Before leaving the residence a short and impressive service was held by Rev. R. H. Steacy, after which the funeral took place to St. John's Church. A large number of the members of the local A. O. U. W. lodge were present to pay the last tribute of respect to their departed brother, as well as many of the brethren from Thornhill lodge. In the church an able and touching sermon was preached by Rev. E. H. Mussen, M. A., from Job xvi., 22:—"When a few years are come then I shall go the way whence I shall not return." The sermon contained many feeling references to the quiet, unassuming manner and the sterling qualities of the deceased as a man of honor and a Christian, and was a solemn warning to the living to prepare for the day of death which awaits us all. After the usual church ceremony at the grave, Bro. Isaac Crosby, assisted by Bro. J. E. Francis, read the funeral ceremony prescribed by the A. O. U. W. The family have the sincerest sympathy of a large circle of friends, especially the two daughters who were faithful guardians day and night by their father's bedside. The bereavement will now be more keenly felt in their lonely home as six years ago they mourned the loss of their mother.
