

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, November 10, 1893

The citizens of Toronto in giving a farewell banquet to Lord and Lady Aberdeen on Saturday evening introduced a new feature by allowing ladies to sit down with gentlemen as they would at a private dinner party. The novel departure proved successful, and hereafter it may not be uncommon to see people of both sexes sitting together when public questions are being discussed.

The latest Russian project is a canal to connect the Black and Baltic seas. It is estimated that the canal can be completed and open for shipping in five years. The distance is nearly a thousand miles, and can be built at a cost of about $154,000,000. The new waterway would be a wonderful advantage to the Russian navy in time of war, and it is generally surmised that the Czar's proposed disarmament of nations was a deep-laid move to allow of the canal being constructed.

The Mail and Empire seems to take a delight in telling its readers of the wicked acts practised by some Liberals, which led to the unseating of certain M. P.'s. A person reading only the Mail would never dream that corruption was being shown on the Conservative side of the house. The election courts are showing however, that neither side is altogether free from taint. Honest men are free to admit the absurdity of the Mails's course. Let the truth be told whether it be a Grit or Tory head that falls into the basket.

A recent number of The Evening News has the following:—"Quebec papers side with France against Great Britain. In doing so they revile the nation which gave them civil and religious liberty in Canada and sympathize with the country which has banished God from the schools and driven the religious orders out of the land." We believe The News does Quebec an injustice. In a war between England and France our sister province would be loyal to the country that has given her civil and religious liberty. But while giving the French credit for loyalty in case of a crisis, it must be admitted that it would be a painful duty for them to be compelled to take up arms against the land of their forefathers. The News is too ready to point out the supposed prejudices and inferiority of the citizens of Quebec. If Canada is to be a united nation it is a mistake for one province to be forever harping upon the weaknesses of another.

Wanted.

Honest, energetic young men; farmers' sons, teachers, students, clerks and others, who are admirers of Mr. Gladstone and would like to spend the next three months in telling the matchless story of his life. We teach you how to do the work and guarantee success. From $2 to $5 a day, absolutely sure. There is no fear of failure and it will be enjoyable work. Particulars furnished free. BRADLEY-GARRETSON COMPANY, LIMITED, TORONTO.

Killing of Juan Aparicio

Was one of the most tragic and far-reaching political assassinations in the history of the Latin-American republics. The marvellous story of intrigue, revolution, and the murder of people individually and collectively in Guatemala, grouped under this title, is told by E. E. Sheppard, and furnishes one of the principal stories of Saturday Night's Christmas. It is profusely illustrated by photographs of the various people concerned, their homes and families, and sketches of life in water-color add to the interest. None of the events are more than a year-and-a-half old. Only one of the men is now alive who had any leading part in the movement; some of the recent "removals" took place not more than a couple of months ago. Saturday Night's Christmas will contain about 70 pages of most interesting reading matter written by distinguished authors of England, Canada and the United States. One of the most humorous and attractive features is "Two Weeks Before the Mast," by Charles Lewis Shaw, author of "Random Reminiscences of a Nile Voyageur," which also appear in Saturday Night. Its pictorial Supplement, "The Mystery of the Morn," is without doubt the most beautiful and artistic picture ever given with any newspaper or magazine in the Old World or the New. Another colored plate gives the famous flag signal of Lord Nelson at Trafalgar, expressing the sentiment, "England expects every man to do his duty."

The edition will be ready about the middle of November, and news agents and those desiring to have the Number carefully wrapped in a tube for mailing, should send in their orders to the Toronto News Company or the publishers at once, as the supply is limited owing to the costly nature of the work, and will doubtless be exhausted almost immediately on it being offered to the public.

WANTED—SEVERAL TRUSTWORTHY persons in this state to manage our business in their own and nearby counties. It is mainly office work conducted at home. Salary straight $300 a year and expenses—definite bonus, no more, no less salary—monthly $75. References, Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope, Herbert E. Hess, Pres., Dept. M. Chicago.

Temperanceville

The ladies of the Methodist Church of this place have reason to be well satisfied with the programme which they successfully carried out on Thursday last. By providing hot meals for the plowmen, officers and visitors at the plowing match they not only earned the thanks of all for their kindness and attention, but before the night was over they found that about $90 had been added to the church finances.

The lecture given in the evening by Rev. J. E. Lanceley of Toronto, a former pastor here, was a treat seldom listened to in this place. The subject "One Another" was handled in an able manner, and the lecturer gave expression to many excellent thoughts. The lecturer made it clear that people should serve "One Another" by love, and that selfish people who only thought of themselves could never be happy. It was shown that people who are only in moderate circumstances often complain without reason, as the greatest blessings come to the many and not to the few. Mr. Lanceley also proved to the satisfaction of his hearers that a poor man living in a rich community should be happier than a rich man living in a poor community. The folly of being envious of others was taken up. We often make mistakes in being envious of good singers, good players or good speakers. Why should we be envious of a grand musician when that musician can give pleasure to thousands of listeners at the same time.

At the close the lecturer received a hearty vote of thanks through Rev. Herbert Lee who occupied the chair. The choir gave several selections which added much to the programme of the evening.

Wanted.

Intelligent men with good education who want to better their positions and would be content for a year with $600 and expenses; write with description and occupation, and I will make a proposition. Write to-day as I am in a hurry. THE MANAGER, Cor. Bay and Richmond Sts., Toronto.

Carville

As no items concerning our villa have appeared for some time, perhaps a few from the pen of an old scribe may prove of interest to pursuers of these columns.

Mrs. Wm. Cook, "The Elms," has sufficiently recovered from a recent attack of sickness to be once more in our midst.

Mr. Geo. Wood has purchased a horse and buggy which comes in very useful.

Mr. H. Rupert of Sherwood took five o'clock tea with friends at Hillcrest Cottage, Greenfield, on Thursday of last week.

Miss A. Baker was the guest of Mrs. Mellish on Sunday last.

Mr. D. James of Langstaff conducted service in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening. As a prelude to a special clause, the choir sang by special request of Mr. James, that sweet familiar strain, "Home, Sweet Home," with excellent effect and the well-chosen remarks of the minister constituted an excellent sermon.

Mrs. Wright, who for some time past has been visiting relatives and friends in London and Western Ontario, has returned home. Sorry to record very slight, if any, improvements in her health, as it was hoped the change would effect good results.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deadman and family of "Shallow Pond Farm" and Mr. and Mrs. John Prentice and family of "Cosy Nook," visited at the home of Mr. M. McDonald of Downsview last Sunday. "Cosy Nook" was guarded by the Bachelor's Brigade during their absence, with the exception of one member stationed at "Shallow Pond Farm."

Pleased to hear that Mrs. H. Appleton is recuperating from a very serious and critical illness. Miss Ethel came home from Thornhill to nurse her sick mother and assist generally.

Mrs. Edward Prentice and Misses Edna and Alberta Prentice visited with Mrs. John Baker of Greenfield on Tuesday of last week.

Changes the citizens would like to observe—The wheel-barrow with its load of hardware, removed from the chimney of "Castle Beauty." The return of a plough-beam which was missing since Halloween.

The centre aisle in the Methodist mission room more fully and frequently occupied in the future. We would inform the public that the rent of these pews has been reduced 100% and at such to remain.

Headford

The young men of the Epworth League gave a Social Evening in the church on Wednesday of last week when a pleasant and profitable time was spent by the 200 people assembled. The viands of various kinds were choice, and could not fail to allure the taste. The chair was filled by Rev. G. McCulloch, and Rev. R. S. E. Large conducted devotional exercises. The programme which followed was interesting throughout. The Mendelssohn Chorus of Richmond Hill gave three lively selections, and made several good hits, especially in the solos of F. Redditt and E. J. Johnston. Mr. A. J. Hume gave two solos and as President of the Richmond Hill Epworth League delivered a neat address bearing on the work of the Order. Mr. L. Hoover contributed a harmonica solo, Rev. R. S. E. Large two vocal selections, Mr. Hendrick an accordion solo, and Mr. Linnat's gramophone rendered several pieces. The Warblers gave a whistling chorus, and also sang the closing piece "Good Night Ladies." Miss Edith Switzer and Miss Millie Trench presided at the organ. Mr. J. Horner was called upon during the evening for "The Song of the Milkmaid" but unfortunately he did not have his music with him.

The funeral of the late John Kelly took place from his late residence on Sunday afternoon, and knowing that the deceased had always occupied a warm place in the hearts of his many friends it is not surprising that the funeral was one of the largest ever seen in this section of country. It was a sad sight to witness the tears of his two little boys, probably 7 and 9 years of age, as they followed the remains of their father from the house, and doubly sad when it is remembered that only a little more than a year ago their young mother was taken from them. The burial took place in the R. C. cemetery, Thornhill, but previous to interment a touching and appropriate sermon was preached in the church by Rev. Father McMahon. The pastor preached from a verse taken from the book of Job referring to the shortness of the days of man. The rev. gentleman spoke in feeling terms of the kindness of heart, the honesty, and the genial disposition of the departed, and pleaded with his hearers to prepare for the day of death which awaits us all. The pall-bearers were J. Comisky, D. Hislop, T. Cosgrove, J. Cosgrove, G. Leek and E. Fahey.
