Messrs. D. Hill & Co. are making extensive improvements around their bakery. They are not brick-cladding the old bakery, but that would not increase the size, but they are practically putting up a new brick structure around the old building, which will have to be removed afterwards. Hill Bros. are up to date every time, and as their business has expanded on all sides so must the buildings where their output is manufactured.

The Imperial Oxford Range has all the latest improvements and sells for less than any other make the same size. C. Mason.

The Toronto Globe has the following relative to the Victoria Minstrels which are to appear in the Masonic Hall, on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, under the auspices of the Public Library:—The entertainment given Wednesday in Boston's Hall by the Victoria Minstrels in aid of St. John's Church, Norway, was a successful event, and was highly appreciated by the large assemblage. From the opening to the closing number, the entire programme was highly amusing. The Minstrels' troupe which is composed of well-known citizens received the hearty thanks of the audience and church officials for their service.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. B. R. Brown has sent the following note of acknowledgement relative to the receipt of claim held by his father, the late Mr. John Brown, against the Confederation Life Company:—Allow me to thank the Confederation Life Association through their agent, P. G. Savage, at Richmond Hill for the prompt payment of the claim, $1,000 on the death of my father, and $434.00 profits, amounting in all to $1434. Check received by return mail."

B. R. BROWN.

A QUICK SUCCESS.

Everybody who has seen the picture "The Thin Red Line," the great battle picture of the century, given with new and renewal subscriptions to the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, predicted an extraordinary success for it, but we do not believe anybody could have dreamed of such an enormous demand springing up for it within a few days. No doubt "The Thin Red Line" will have the distinction of bringing a quicker success, and creating a greater demand than any premium picture of modern times.

We have received from the Queen's Printer Statutes of Canada, 61 Victoria, 1868, in two volumes.

THE LIBERAL and Weekly Mail & Empire to new subscriber one year for $1.40, or three months for 35 cents.

RE-ORGANIZED.

The Mendelssohn Chorists met at the home of Mr. A. E. Coombs on Thursday evening and re-organized for the season with the following officers:

Hon. Pres., Mr. A. J. Hume;
Pres., Mr. A. G. Savage;
Secy-Treas., Mr. J. W. Forhan;
Conductor, Mr. R. W. Glass;
Music Committee, Messrs. F. J. Johnston and F. R. Redditt.
Accompanist, Miss Edith Switzer.

The Chorists, who were rapturously received and vociferously encored a few evenings ago at Headford, are now open for engagements.

The best specimen of effective oratory we have lately heard is the way Atkinson & Switzer's prices are talking.

The November Canadian Magazine contains some good things. "M. C. Cameron, as I Knew Him," by Dan McGillivuddy, is something unexpected and delightful. J. Gordon Mowat, the founder of the magazine, compares the Canadian and European summers, and brings out some facts which will startle even the proudest Canadian. J. Joanes Bell, an officer of Lord Wolseley's force, gives the first of three illustrated articles on the Red River expedition. John A. Ewan's "Current Events Abroad" is a permanent feature of the magazine, which adds much to its value. Besides several short stories, there is a department containing some stories of exceptional interest. A new serial "A Daughter of Witches," by Joanna E. Wood, is rather striking.

THE LIBERAL and The Weekly Globe will be given to new subscribers from the present date to the end of 1899 for $1.50. As a trial trip both of these papers will be given to the end of the present year for 35 cts.

FROM TO-DAY'S WORLD.

Two large houses greeted the Victoria Amateur Minstrels in St. George's Hall last Monday and Tuesday evening. The first part opened with the River Song, followed by the Handicap, and both reflect great credit on Mr. Darby, the conductor. Mr. Frank Lancaster and John Robinson had the honors of the evening and their style and negro dialect compare most favorably with professionals. The Victoria Quartette scored another success while Master Sidney Randall, the boy singer, was a favorite with all. The end men were exceptionally funny. Mr. John Kidner was perfectly at home, while "Honey, does you love your man," by John Robinson, brought down the house. Frank Taylor appeared to good advantage, while Frank Lancaster made the hit of the evening in "Dars a water millon on the vine." The solos were all exceptionally well rendered. "Black Trilby" was one of the best numbers on the programme, while the Piccinny Band was as original as it was funny. The Victoria Minstrels can be congratulated and seldom do travelling minstrels carry much better attractions than the gentlemen gave before the footlights. Charles Musgrave's Orchestra added materially to the enjoyment of the performance. The Victoria Minstrels appear at Richmond Hill on Thanksgiving night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lawrence have gone to Toronto to spend the winter with their son, Mr. A. G. F. Lawrence, and family. She also received many handsome presents which showed the esteem in which she was held. Some beautiful songs were sung, speeches made, and a happy time was spent. After supper the party retired to go through the green houses which were looking beautiful with carnations and chrysanthemums.
