A RETROGRADE SUGGESTION.

The Leader and Recorder of Toronto Junction, last week contained the following editorial note:—

"If the power to grant and control liquor licenses were vested in local municipalities, the better class of hotel-keepers would soon come to the front. Under the present system it is 'the man with the political pull' whose word is law and whose little 'failings' are quietly winked at."

It is surprising to see a newspaper of such pretensions as The Leader and Recorder advocating such a retrograde movement. Few temperance men or newspaper men would risk their reputation by making such statements. It was a lucky day for the cause of temperance when the granting of hotel licenses was removed from municipal bodies. When the granting of licenses was in the hands of local municipalities over 6000 licenses were issued, now there are only half the number. It cannot be denied there are men in the hotel business who are far from what they ought to be, but they certainly compare favorably with those who kept public houses under the former system. If The Leader and Recorder would like to go back to a system which practically allowed "free whisky," that paper should endeavor to get its party to put such a plank in its platform.

WEST YORK TRIAL.

The West York election trial remains unfinished. Evidence of alleged corrupt acts was heard before Judges Falconbridge and Street for eleven days, when it was found necessary to adjourn court until the 13th of December. Of the forty charges taken up their lordships held that one charge had been proven—that in which Mr. Pearen was accused of endeavoring to procure employment of Mr. Rennie for one Denison. The final result of the trial is a matter of uncertainty, but any person who has sat in the court room, or followed the evidence from day to day, must come to the conclusion that many of the charges are of a very trivial nature.

A local in The Globe states that a deputation representing the National Council of Women in Ontario waited upon the Ontario Government and asked that "the age limit for the sale of tobacco and cigarettes in cigar stores and bars be raised from 18 to 21 years." Are we to understand by this that grocers may sell tobacco to boys between 18 and 21 years, but that keepers of tobacco stores would be punished for doing the same thing? Would this not be class legislation?

TENNIS PARTY.

The lady members of the Crosby Hall Tennis Club entertained the gentlemen of the same club in a very neat and unique way at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Switzer last evening. They announced it as a cob-web party and it developed thus. The first number on the programme was the unravelling of destiny. In this number the gentlemen discovered their partners for supper by winding up several hundred yards of thread. When the end of the thread was reached a small bow indicated who were to go to supper together. Then Miss Ethyl Switzer sang a solo, which all very much enjoyed. A quartette by four ladies followed. This turned out to be a quartet, for the eating of a quart of pop-corn was the only music in it. This number was rudely interrupted by the gentlemen, but when it was over it was loudly encored. When the supper came, everybody had evidently made up his mind to enjoy himself to the full. The menu was most exquisite. All the delicacies of the season were most temptingly served. Before the guests left the table the following toasts were drunk, Mrs. McCulloch in the chair: "Our Honorary Presidents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Crosby. This was proposed by Miss Edith Switzer, and in the absence of Mr. Crosby, Mr. Coombs responded. "Our Host and Hostess" was proposed by Mrs. Hutchison, and responded to by Mr. Switzer. "Our Guests" was proposed by Miss Wiley, and responded to by Dr. Hutchison and Mr. Nicholls. "The Ladies" was proposed by Rev. Mr. McCulloch, and responded to by Mrs. Coombs and Miss Rogers. The speeches on both sides were witty and clever and everybody found much pleasure during this part of the programme. The ladies then presented prizes to the fastest and to the slowest in unravelling the web in the first number of the programme. Mr. F. J. Johnston got the first prize which was a spider in which he can now warm up his potatoes for tea. The other prize was a broom and fell to Rev. Mr. McCulloch. He will henceforth sweep his cobwebs as it takes to long to unravel them thread by thread. The dance of the brownies and a chorus were both well performed but were not exactly what their name would at first indicate. They, however, were each what their name said they were. Miss Wiley sang a solo entitled "Four Beets." She sang it in one flat with characteristic sweetness. The grand finale was pumpkin pie but was not intended to be eaten. This closed an excellent evening's social programme. Everybody went home about midnight glad that the tennis club had closed its first season in a manner so remarkably pleasant.
