A GOOD FINISH.

Messrs. J. T. Saigeon and J. B. McLean who finished auditing Vaughan accounts in good time last evening were treated to an oyster supper by the acting clerk, Mr. Will Trench. A few intimate friends, including ye editor, were called in, and all thoroughly enjoyed the tempting repast. Short speeches followed, the auditors expressed themselves as pleased with the way the books had been kept and all voted that no more popular young man than Will Trench has held a responsible position in Richmond Hill for many years past.

DR. HUTCHISON'S SUCCESSOR.

Dr. Shaw has purchased the medical practice of Dr. Hutchison and will in course of a few days move his family to the village to reside. Dr. Shaw lately practiced his profession in Markham where he was very successful and popular with all classes. Since then he has been pursuing courses of study in the great hospitals of New York and Chicago and has just finished a holiday in California. Dr. Hutchison will introduce his successor to all of his many friends in the village and surrounding country where he has practised with so much success during his residence here.

TEA-MEETING.

The friends of the Zion Methodist Church will hold their annual entertainment on Sunday and Monday, Feb. 5 and 6. On Sunday Rev. Mr. Sing of Toronto, will preach at 7 p. m. On Monday a Public Tea will be served in the church from 5 to 7 p. m., after which an excellent programme will be rendered. Addresses by Revs. Duncan of Unionville; Bellsmith of Toronto and Rev. R. S. E. Large of Richmond Hill. Music by the popular Victoria University Glee Club and others. Admission, 25, and 15 cents. The public are cordially invited.

PROCTOR—GRAHAM.

Mr. Jas. Henry Proctor, youngest brother of Mr. W. R. Proctor, formerly of this village, but who has been in the North West for the past 14 years, was on Saturday last married to Miss Elta Graham, third daughter of Mr. Alfred Graham, Aurora. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Mussen, M. A., at the residence of the bride's father, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The following were among the guests: Mr. and Mrs. Brace, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Deer Park; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Proctor, Richmond Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Al. Proctor, Aurora. On Tuesday, January 31st, the bride and groom started for their new home in Calgary.

THORNHILL.

The talent is first-class, the following being among the performers:—Miss Ethyle L. Powell, soloist, Toronto; Mr. G. Wallace Weese, humorist, Toronto; Mr. A. R. Cuthbert, comic singer, Toronto. Several tableaux will be presented under the supervision of Miss F. Langstaff. The Laskay Dramatic Club will give a laughable farce entitled, "The Yankee Fiddler." Mr. A. E. Coombs, M. A., of Richmond Hill, will act as pianist and Mr. C. M. Passmore will occupy the chair. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

DR. SHAW SUCCEEDS DR. HUTCHISON.

Having decided to spend some time in New York taking up special work, with a view of settling in a larger place, and having sold my practice to Dr. Shaw, formerly of Markham Village, I desire to return my sincere thanks to the residents of Richmond Hill and vicinity who have so kindly favored me with their patronage for the last three years. In leaving Dr. Shaw in my place, I cordially recommend him to the favorable consideration of the community. He is a man of large experience, and a gentleman in every way, and in asking your patronage on his behalf, I do so cheerfully and with confidence, as he has come to live among you permanently and to be one of you. Again thanking you, I remain, yours sincerely,
J. N. HUTCHISON.
February 1st, 1899.
