RICHMOND HILL, October 12, 1899

An increase of nearly $4,000,000 in two months in the value of the volume of exports is a decidedly gratifying state of affairs but that is the showing made by the trade returns of the Dominion for July and August. While the improvement is not confined to any one branch of trade it is mainly noticeable in the item of "animals and their products," which total $11,334,418 as against $7,949,664 for the same months of last year.

The picking season is upon us; consequently the young people are happily engaged during their spare hours in the pursuit of beechnuts which are of excellent quality this autumn.

Mr. Frank Boyle of Yonge St. called upon friends at Mr. D. S. Reaman's home on the first day of the week.

Miss Snider, Toronto, who has been rusticated with relatives and friends returned on Monday evening.

The many friends of Mr. Ben Wilson will regret to hear of the painful accident which befel him last Sunday eve.

Mr. Mervin Graham of Aurora has been spending a part of his vacation at Woodbine Cottage.

Mr. A. Coombs, wife and son spent Sunday at Moorwood Farm.

Considerable sympathy and pity is felt for the uncouth and disrespectful crowd of hoodlums who insist on making the night hideous with their star-reaching screams and extremely insulting remarks to a respectable people. Surely something should be done and that quickly, as the state of affairs is assuming a serious appearance and for some time has been regarded as being in a most deplorable condition.

The author of "In His Steps," the famous religious book, of which over three million copies have now been sold, has been induced to answer, in an article which he has sent to The Ladies' Home Journal, the question which unconsciously comes to the mind after reading his book: "Is this plan practicable in our present daily life?" Mr. Shelton does not evade the question, but answers it in a direct and vigorous manner, and tells exactly what he believes would be the effect of his plan upon modern business methods and present-day social life.

A MANXMAN'S CALL TO DUTY.

The Hon. J. K. Ward of Montreal, a Manx-Canadian, sends to the Witness his copy of the leading Isle of Man paper containing the following: "I see from this week's Christian World that there is a paper carried on in the very same lines as the imaginary one described in 'In His Steps.' It is the Montreal Daily Witness, and is said to be the only one of the kind in the world. That can hardly be said to be a very creditable thing for the Christian Church. Can any one doubt that such a paper must be an enormous force on the side of purity, righteousness and every good and noble cause? I can imagine few greater blessings that could come to any community than the presence of such a paper in its midst. Just imagine what it would be to have in this island (the Isle of Man) a newspaper absolutely free from personalities, stories of petty scandal, betting news, and advertisements that could be to the moral detriment of the people. I am aware that for such a task a man of enormous courage and faith would be needed. But if such a man did arise in our midst it would be such a call to duty to all Christian people as has hardly ever come to us yet. He would have great difficulties to fight with, but I wonder what right any of us would have to cail ourselves followers of Jesus if we did not stand by him and see him through. Surely, this is no mere utopian dream. It ought to be perfectly feasible. If our Christian profession is a reality and not a sham; if all, or even a large portion of the Church members, were to be governed by the rule 'What would Jesus do?' they would make it quite possible for such a paper as the one described as existing in Montreal to live and flourish among us. Christ began his work with the individual, making a new man, and out of that new creation, all other good things are to come for others and for society at large. Reformation must begin with ourselves."—Rev. D. Inglis, B. A., in Mona's Herald, Isle of Man.

Few Men Original.

Did you ever notice how few people are original in things they say and do? For instance, one man makes a fortune out of a simple thing; immediately hundreds of others try it. This is human nature. While it is gratifying to be the "first man" to bring out an idea, the great mass must be content to follow their leaders. There is one line that is always original, however, and that is the business of Bradley-Garretson Co., Limited, of Brantford, Ont., because they continually bring out publications to suit the times and seasons, thus their agents are kept steadily at it and make big money. In fact, no other occupation is more honorable, healthful, lucrative, or offers half as many opportunities for promotion. It is a life school. Many men and women in Canada to-day testify to the truthfulness of this claim, in fact, it is conceded on all hands, that one year's experience with this firm is worth more to any young man or woman than two or three years at college, from an educational point of view, and financially it is all that can be desired.

AGENTS:—Did you ever think of handling our latest work "The Light of Life"? If not, now is a good time to start. $3.00 a day sure; some make twice that. Experience or capital unnecessary.
