

NO EXPRESSION IN THE EYE.

It is the Eyelid That Does the Business, Says an English Oculist.

There are no expressive eyes. The expression of the eye is really in the lid. The eye itself, independent of its surroundings, has no more expression than a glass marble. A prominent English oculist makes this daring statement, and he defends his position with emphasis "The eyes have no expression whatever," he says. "How do you explain the fact that the eyes of one person are more expressive than those of another?" I am asked. They are not. The difference consists in certain nervous contractions of the lids peculiar to the individual.

"Observe for yourself, and you will see that I am right. We will see that I am greatly interested in something, and my attention is suddenly called from it by an unexpected interruption. My upper eyelid raises itself just a little but the eye proper does not change an iota in appearance. If the interruption is but momentary, the elevation of the lid will be but momentary. If the surprise caused by an interruption is continued the lid may be raised even a little more, and in fact, the whole of the forehead, including the eyebrows, is raised and wrinkled. But the eye remains the same.

"When a person is excited, much the same emotions are gone through," continued the doctor. "His eyes are open wide, in cases of intense excitement, to their greatest extent, but the forehead is not wrinkled, and the ball of the eye is as expressive as a bit of glass. No more.

"Observe the face of one who laughs. You will see that the lower eyelid has no muscle of its own, and it is only by the contraction of the adjacent muscles in smiling or laughing that it is made to move. That is why there are many wrinkles about the eyes of merry persons.

The expression of deep thoughtfulness is produced by the drooping of the upper lid. The lids of some persons fall so low that the pupil of the eye itself is the same. If the meditation is over a subject that worries the thinker the expression is again quite different. The eyelids contract and the eyebrows are lowered and drawn together. This is true of a reflective mood.

"As to emotional moods, there is the expression of anger, for instance. The eyes, instead of closing, are open wider than they are normally, but the brows are closely knit.

"In expressing sadness the entire upper eyelid comes about half way down and the folds of the skin collect there, giving the lid a thick, heavy appearance."

THE TEN TRIBES.

They Were Not Lost, But Merely Absorbed by Other Nations.

After the death of Solomon the Jewish Kingdom was split into two, that of Israel consisting of 10 tribes, and that of Judah consisting of two tribes. In 712 B. C. the 10 tribes were attacked by Shalmaneser and carried away captive to Assyria, their places being occupied by Assyrian colonists. The Kingdom of Judah continued till 588 B. C., when it was overthrown and the main part of the population carried away captive to Babylon. In 539 B. C. Cyrus conquered Babylon and restored liberty to the Jews, of whom a large number returned to Palestine. Some writers maintain that those who returned all belonged to the two tribes who were taken captive in 588 B. C., and that the 10 tribes who were taken earlier never returned. These 10 tribes they call the Lost Tribes. They have been identified with various races—Africans, Japs, Mexicans, North American Indians, Gypsies, etc. Some even maintain that the inhabitants of Great Britain and Ireland are descended from the Lost Tribes. There is little or no reason for any of these identifications, and the last, according to Prof. Taylor is "absolutely nonsense." There are very good grounds for believing that the 10 tribes were never lost. When Cyrus freed all Jews indiscriminately, the 10 tribes as well as the two, were under his authority, and it is most probable that all the Jews of all the tribes who wished to return home did so together. Those—and they were a large number—who preferred to remain where they were, either gave up their religion and became merged with the Assyrians, or remained in scattered communities, the descendants of which still exist in many parts of Asia.

THIRTY TO THIRTY-FIVE.

"Thirty or thirty-five," says a woman who has evidently given some serious thought to the problem, "is, I think, the age when a man is at his most attractive stage. His manners are then modeled and his character formed; he has had some experience with the world and human nature, and consequently knows how to act and make allowances. He realizes, too, how utterly impossible it is to live on romance and flattery, which younger fellows fondly imagine possible; is more level-headed, practical, sensible, sincere, and just in his attachments. Not liable to be led away with every tiny face, and, mixing with the old, has found out perhaps that 'all that glitters is not gold.'"

A HUSTLER.

Now, then, my friend, said the business-like young preacher, pocketing the wedding fee and turning again to the bridegroom, let me ask if you are carrying any life insurance?

No sir, replied the newly-made benedict. Not yet.

Well, the most sacred duty resting upon you now is to take out a liberal policy for the benefit of this young woman who is to be dependent upon you hereafter. I represent one of the strongest and best companies in this country. Here are the figures showing, etc.

And he got the young husband's application. There is nothing like finishing a job thoroughly while you are about it.

DID NOT KNOW

Plight of a London, Ont., Man.

Had Bright's Disease and Didn't Know It—Had Existed for Three Years Before He Found What It Was—Then He Found What It Was and Cured It by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

London, Oct. 9.—Mr. G. E. Brady, 229 Talbot St., this city, feels that he is a lucky man. For three years he has been slowly sinking into a quicksand, deeper and deeper all the time and he not aware of his danger. Mr. Brady had Bright's Disease. Bright's Disease is generally considered incurable—in fact there is only one known cure. It is a Kidney Disease, those organs decaying and neglecting to filter the blood. Well, Mr. Brady never found out what was the matter with him until the disease had run three years and eaten right into his kidneys. (He was sunk hopelessly in the quicksand. There was only one thing to save him.

Mr. Brady found out what was the matter with him by chance. He read a list of the symptoms of Bright's Disease in a paper and at once recognized his own case. Then came the cure. Again he was lucky. After trying several medicines in vain he struck the right one, the only one that is a particle of use in Bright's Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills which have never failed yet.

Says Mr. Brady himself:—"I have been troubled for three years with Bright's Disease and I did not know it until I read the symptoms in one of your papers. I tried several remedies, but none could touch the spot. I purchased three boxes of your Dodd's Kidney Pills and after I had used one box I felt the disease leaving me. I am now completely cured. I am a contractor here in London, and my friends will vouch for what I say. Dodd's Kidney Pills saved my life."

NO EXCUSE FOR THEM.

Mother—I don't see why you and your husband should have so much trouble. You don't belong to different churches, do you?

Daughter—No, mother. Mother—Then there is no excuse for fighting like cats and dogs.

TWO FAMOUS RINGS.

Two silver rings, of which one is in Paris and the other in Germany, have associations of rare interest. They were worn by Martin Luther and his bride, Catherine de Bora, on their wedding day in 1525. The rings bear on the inside the names of Martin Luther and his wife, and on the outside are engraved the spear, nails, and ropes, the symbols of Christ's suffering and death.

Nature's Voices.

To the discerning ear Nature has many voices. She has a message in the sweet tones of the brook as it rushes down the hillside in ocean's moody voices, now rippling with gentle cadence upon the golden sands, anon in deep boisterous voice as she lashes the beach with foam. Then the voice of trees which the laughing winds bear to our ears, of sunshine and shade, of hill and valley, of bird and flowers. But she comes in pain, too, the voice of the aching, stinging corn speaks impressively, but Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes the worst corn in twenty-four hours, painlessly and without leaving sore spots.

BURGLARY WITH SPONGE AND WATER.

When a burglar wants to break into a Peruvian house he takes a sponge and a bucket of water and moistens the walls, which are covered with only a thin coating of mud, and easily dissolve upon the application of moisture. Then when the mud is removed he takes a sharp knife and cuts the strips of split bamboo which serve as a substitute for laths. That easy little operation produces a hole in the wall large enough for a man to crawl through, and can be performed so silently that people sleeping in the house will not be awakened. Not long ago the residence of the cable manager at Barranca was entered in this way. The thieves frightened the family, but were discovered before they had seized much booty.

REAL GREATNESS.

An exchange gives this story of a pompous member of Parliament who attended an agricultural show in Dublin. He arrived late, and found himself on the outskirts of a huge crowd.

Being anxious to obtain a good view for himself and a lady friend who accompanied him, and presuming that he was well-known to the spectators, he tapped a burly coal-porter on the shoulder and peremptorily demanded, Make way there.

Garn, who are ye pushin'?' was the unexpected response.

Do you know who I am sir? cried the indignant M.P. I am a representative of the people.

Yah, growled the porter, as he stood unmoved, but we're the bloomin' people themselves.

CURIOUS FUNERAL CUSTOM.

In Switzerland a death is attended by a custom which calls upon all charitable and Christian people to show their sympathy. A notice edged with a wide black line appears in the daily papers setting forth the day and hour when sympathizers must assemble before the house of the deceased. At the time named a little cloth-covered table supporting a good-sized jar is stood before the house—table, cloth and jar all being of a somber, ebony hue—and into the latter small mourning cards, bearing the name and address of their owners, are deposited. The day the funeral takes place is the day selected for the exhibition of the jar. No ladies are allowed to follow at a Swiss funeral.

FASHION IN CHINA.

A missionary paper reports that the opposition to the National Foot Society in China comes chiefly from the women, who are afraid to go against fashion.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by so standing failed to cure with local treatment, pronounced it a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollar guarantee for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
