King City

On Tuesday evening a supper and concert took place under the auspices of St. John's Church at King. After the crowd had done ample justice to the excellent spread provided by the ladies, the banquet room was transformed into a concert hall. A varied and excellent, though somewhat lengthy programme was placed in the hands of the chairman, Hon. E. J. Davis. The talent lacked neither in quality or quantity. The Choristers of Richmond Hill, and the Harmonica Club of Hope, rendered several selections, which were well received. The list of soloists included Miss, Thomas, Switzer, Keffer, McNeil, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Cook, Messrs. H. Sanderson of Richmond Hill; Knowles of Newmarket; and Ernest Knott, all of whose selections were evidently highly appreciated. The elocutionist, Miss Petch of Aurora, sustained her part of the programme with marked ability. She is a young elocutionist of great promise.

Rev. Mr. Dymond expressed himself as greatly pleased at the success of the concert, both socially and financially. The people of this parish were favored with most beautiful weather, a circumstance which added greatly no doubt to the success of their endeavor.

Victoria Square

For nearly two years Neil, youngest son of Mr. R. Dixon, has been ill of consumption, from which he suffered greatly, especially the last two weeks of his life, but on Friday, Oct. 20th, he passed quietly away. His death was a heavy blow to his parents, sister and brothers, and to all his friends of whom he had not a few. Sensible to the last he had arranged everything in regard to his burial, and said a last farewell to the members of the family. Such partings bring the most intense grief, but there is comfort in the thought that "There is no death: What seems so is transition.

This life of mortal heath is but a suburb of the Life Elysian, Whose portal we call Death."

And that although he can no more come to us, we may go to him.

On Monday, 23rd, a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends followed his remains to the Victoria Square cemetery, where all that was mortal was laid to rest to "Sleep the sleep that knows no waking." The occasion was one of great solemnity. Rev. Mr. Large had charge of the service and preached a short but impressive sermon from II Timothy iv. 6-7-8, this text being chosen by Neil himself as a passage which he loved. Mr. Large spoke feelingly of the departed; of the hope he expressed in his last moments. He also enjoined upon those present to prepare against that day when the call shall come to leave this earth.

Of the deceased it can be said that he was of a genial and kindly disposition. He was fond of manly sports, and the spirit often exhibited on the field manifested itself during the long illness. He was also a successful teacher during the two and one half years he was engaged in the profession and was a favorite among his pupils. In short Neil was highly respected by his schoolmates and friends and was a general favorite. Indeed this Providence seems all the more sad when we remember he was taken away so young, with bright prospects before him of a successful life, but there is consolation in the fact that he was prepared for the time of his departure when it was at hand. Let us remember

"We see but dimly through these mists and vapors
Amid these earthly damps,
What seems to us but sad funeral tapers
May be heaven's distant lamps."

In the hour of their bereavement the family and relatives have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Willowdale

Miss Ida Cooper spent Thanksgiving with her parents.

Wilfrid C. D. Stong is going round with a smiling happy face. We wonder if it is all on account of the red tickets taken at the Woodbridge Fair.

Mr. Jas. Breakey, of Breakey Bros., returned on Saturday from the North West. He gives a glowing account of the country, reports crops good, having placed 25,000 bushel in the elevator at Pierson.

War Notes.

The first pitched battle between the Boers and the British in South Africa resulted in a decisive victory for British arms. The struggle was fierce and prolonged and the British loss was heavy. The battle was fought at Glencoe Camp on Friday. The British loss of killed and wounded is placed at 250, and that of the Boers at 500. General Symons received a severe wound.

On Saturday, Oct. 21, the Boers were again defeated in a second great battle. The battle lasted several hours. It was fought at Elandsplaag 15 miles from Ladysmith. The loss of the British forces was about 150 killed and wounded, including several officers. Boer general Kock was captured and afterwards died from wounds. The Boer loss was again heavy. The British forces were commanded by Generals White and French. Boer general Viljoen was also killed in this battle.

The Boers on Saturday renewed their attack on Glencoe and were again defeated under Gen. Lucas Meyers. Their loss was 300 killed and wounded. The British also captured 200 horses and made many prisoners. The English loss was also heavy in men and officers.

Yesterday's dispatches state that General Yule falls back toward Ladysmith to effect a junction with Sir George Stewart White. The concentration of the two forces is commended by military experts.

Latest reports show that the British losses were heavier than at first reported.

Few Men Original.

Did you ever notice how few people are original in things they say and do? For instance, one man makes a fortune out of a simple thing; immediately hundreds of others try it. This is human nature. While it is gratifying to be the "first man" to bring out an idea, the great mass must be content to follow their leaders. There is one line that is always original, however, and that is the business of Bradley-Garretson Co., Limited, of Brantford, Ont., because they continually bring out publications to suit the times and seasons, thus their agents are kept steadily at it and make big money. In fact, no other occupation is more honorable, healthful, lucrative, or offers half as many opportunities for promotion. It is a life school. Many men and women in Canada to-day testify to the truthfulness of this claim, in fact, it is conceded on all hands, that one year's experience with this firm is worth more to any young man or woman than two or three years at college, from an educational point of view, and financially it is all that can be desired.

AGENTS:—Did you ever think of handling our latest work "The Light of Life"? If not, now is a good time to start. $3.00 a day sure; some make twice that. Experience or capital unnecessary.

BRADLEY-GARRETSON Co., Limited, BRANTFORD, ONT.
