The admission is placed at 10 and 20 cents.

UNIONVILLE.

A most favorable and appropriate alteration indeed was the change from Nov. to Oct. 19 as the date for Thanksgiving Day. The day was truly a typical one. Though the evening was not quite so beautiful, yet the superior splendor of the morning amply repaid the gloom of the night. The date was appropriate from another point of view. The Joint Ladies' Aid Society of Buttonville and Unionville Lutheran churches, had decided a month previously to hold their first open social on the 19th Oct., which though undecided then, proved to be the date for Thanksgiving-day. The regular time of the social thus proved a special temporal blessing to the society, notwithstanding the unlooked for collision, for the social was a grand success, in all respects. The oysters were splendid proving the special abilities of the cooks. There was no set programme and those present seemed to enjoy it all the better. While all the different denominations were represented, there was a spirit of harmony prevailing each and all. The proceeds amounted to $31.55. The expenses were $5.00 leaving a profit of $26.55. The members feel greatly encouraged because of the grand success of their first endeavor to swell the treasury with much needed funds. With one accord the members of the Aid unite in thanking all present for their attendance. The business meeting to be held on Thursday afternoon was postponed to Friday at 2 p. m. on account of the open social. The meeting was well attended, and the various subjects discussed with an ardent and enthusiasm so characteristic of the ladies. After prayer offered by the pastor the meeting was adjourned to Nov. 16, at the home of Mrs. E. Summerfeldt, Unionville.

ELLA D. ECKARDT, Sec'y.
