SERMON TO ORANGEMEN.

The Ottawa Evening Journal of the 6th of November contains a sermon preached to Orangemen the day before—Guy Fawkes' Day—by Rev. R. H. Steacy of St. John's Church, in that city. The rev. gentleman, who is one of the most popular and highly-esteemed young clergymen who ever labored in this place, welcomed his brethren to the Church of England, and in eloquent language urged his hearers to give their hearts to God, and warned them against procrastination.

We regret, however, that we cannot fully understand his remarks relative to the Canadian contingent sent to South Africa. Rev. Mr. Steacy's words are as follows: "I might give you reasons why, according to reports, six hundred of the Canadian boys who have gone to support the throne were taken from the Church of England, three hundred from the Presbyterian, while only some fifty from the Church of Rome, and fifty from other religious bodies. I might with justice on my side charge the Canadian Cabinet with blind bigotry in granting a Roman chaplain to fifty volunteers, and refusing until forced, to grant a Church of England chaplain to six hundred of Canada's best sons," &c.

It is unfortunate for the reader that Rev. Mr. Steacy did not state the reasons referred to. We cannot think he believes there is more loyalty in the Church of England than in all the other churches combined. We firmly believe that Canadians are imbued with loyalty to the Queen from one end of the Dominion to the other, and it would be a mistake to suppose that any particular church or any particular political party has a monopoly of that commodity.

As to the "blind bigotry of the Canadian Cabinet," it is not well to be too credulous in flying reports. It is difficult to believe that one religious denomination would be more highly favored in the appointment of a chaplain than another denomination.

Mr. Brower, the Conservative representative of East Elgin in the Legislature, was on Tuesday unseated by the Court of Appeal. Certain persons were convicted of bribery and were held by three of the four judges who sat on the case to be agents of the candidate. Corrupt practices had been proven at a former trial, but the matter of agency on the part of those guilty had not been established.

Oak Ridges

Dame Rumor has it that a wedding will be reported from this place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ash of Lake Wilcox, have a son now about two weeks old, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Legge have twin daughters, born on the 27th ult. Mother and babes doing well.

Messrs. Thompson, Beynon and Ash have returned from the North West. Mr. Beynon left Winnipeg at 4 p. m. on the 11th inst., and arrived home on the afternoon of the 13th.

Mrs. Spencely who has been ill for a week or so, is quite better again. Her son from Toronto visited her on Saturday. Mr. Wm. Fleury, wife and child, moved in with her last Tuesday for the winter.

Mrs. T. Legge had several friends to see her last week, some from a distance.

Master W. J. Street of Toronto, and two of his young friends, T. Benson and Mr. Baker, wheeled out to Bond's Lake, and spent a day at Lake Wilcox and Oak Ridges.

Miss Keltie of Newmarket, has been visiting friends in this vicinity.

Several from Oak Ridges attended the wedding in St. John's Church on Tuesday of last week, when Miss Jessie Legge and Mr. Wm. Ellison were united in the bonds of matrimony.

Few Men Original.

Did you ever notice how few people are original in things they say and do? For instance, one man makes a fortune out of a simple thing; immediately hundreds of others try it. This is human nature. While it is gratifying to be the "first man" to bring out an idea, the great mass must be content to follow their leaders. There is one line that is always original, however, and that is the business of Bradley-Garretson Co., Limited, of Brantford, Ont., because they continually bring out publications to suit the times and seasons, thus their agents are kept steadily at it and make big money. In fact, no other occupation is more honorable, healthful, lucrative, or offers half as many opportunities for promotion. It is a life school. Many men and women in Canada to-day testify to the truthfulness of this claim, in fact, it is conceded on all hands, that one year's experience with this firm is worth more to any young man or woman than two or three years at college, from an educational point of view, and financially it is all that can be desired.

AGENTS:—Did you ever think of handling our latest work "The Light of Life"? If not, now is a good time to start. $3.00 a day sure; some make twice that. Experience or capital unnecessary.
