THE PATRIOTIC FUND.

Our postmaster has received the following circular from the Deputy Minister of Finance, Ottawa, J. M. Courtney, C. M. G., who is Treasurer of the Canadian Patriotic Fund Association. By this circular, our readers will understand that Mr. Teefy is authorized to receive subscriptions to the fund by persons desirous of contributing. We hope that he will be enabled to make a return to the Treasurer worthy of our loyal village:—

CANADIAN PATRIOTIC FUND ASSOCIATION.

Ottawa, 16th Jan'y, 1900.

SIR,—I have the honor to send you herewith, by direction of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Patriotic Fund Association, of which Her Majesty the Queen is Patron and His Excellency the Governor-General is President, subscription lists, which you will be good enough to place in your office.

I have to ask you to be good enough to receive any subscriptions that may be offered you for the Association, and transmit the same, through the agency of the bank with which you transact your Government business, to the undersigned as Treasurer at Ottawa.

I should be obliged if you would send me from time to time such subscriptions as you may receive, together with the names of the subscribers, as it is the intention of the Executive Committee to have the whole printed in book form as soon as the lists are closed.

I trust that you will do your utmost to aid the Association in the interests of the objects for which it was established.

I have the honour to be, Sir, Your obedient servant, J. M. COURTNEY, Treasurer, Canadian Patriotic Fund Association.

To the Postmaster, Richmond Hill.

EXTEND THE JURISDICTION.

The Government ought to seriously consider the petition of the city of Kingston, asking to have the powers of the Division Court extended so as to include signed documents up to $500, open accounts of $300 instead of $200, as at present, and claims for damages up to $100 instead of $60. The desire for an expansion of the powers of the Division Court is not confined to Kingston, but extends to all sections of the province. The great feature of the Division Court is its cheapness, its finality and its freedom from technicalities. It is par excellence the people's court, and its extension on the lines indicated would meet with general approval.—World.

The cable from the Toronto Globe's war correspondent in South Africa on Wednesday of last week announcing a battle at Modder River in which nearly ten per cent. of our First Contingent were either killed or wounded, sent a thrill of intense feeling throughout the Dominion, and brought home to our people to a degree that has not been experienced since the memorable years of the rebellion fifteen days ago, and even then not in the same degree, the grim realities of war. Our boys went to the front, and are still going, filled with loyal enthusiasm and prepared for the worst that the fortunes of war might bring them, and the nation cheered them off with the fullest confidence that they would prove themselves worthy representatives of the Dominion in the armies of the Empire. That trust and confidence has been more than justified, and with the sadness which to-day overshadows our country at the loss of so many brave sons, is the glorious realization of the fact that we stand closer to the heart of the Empire at this moment than ever before, still more confirmed in our resolve to do our full duty in the present emergencies.

CRONJE SURRENDERS.

On Tuesday last Cronje, the famous Boer commander, capitulated unconditionally to Lord Roberts with his entire force of probably 4,000 men. The good news was received with great joy all over the British Empire, and it is gratifying to know that our brave Canadians took a prominent part in bringing about the victory. The end of the war may not yet be in sight, but the capture of Tuesday will go a long way in convincing the enemy that they must sooner or later bow to the inevitable.

The Shoe Factory.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL:

SIR,—In last week's record in the LIBERAL of the doings of our Village Council there was a minute of an offer by Mr. W. S. Patterson, of Toronto, on certain conditions to establish in this place a shoe factory. According to the report there was nothing done in the matter.

Irrespective of whether we as a village are in a position to entertain a proposition involving so great a responsibility or not, is it wise to ignore the proposition altogether by taking no notice of it? I understand that there is a standing citizens' committee for the initial consideration of propositions that may at any time come to the front that might be of interest and benefit to the village. The reeve and council help to compose this committee. If they, the municipal reigning authority in our town, were to call its members together to talk over the matter it would look as if we were alive to our future interests and open to offers of a similar character, until a proposition is made by some enterprising company that the committee could endorse and recommend for submission to the serious consideration of the ratepayers of the village. In multitude of counsel there is sometimes discovered a grain of wisdom.

CITIZEN.

Richmond Hill, Feb. 28, 1900.

Temperanceville

To The Editor of THE LIBERAL:

DEAR SIR,—Kindly insert the following in your valuable paper:

We have in our midst a branch of the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, organized nearly two years ago, and at that time Mr. Geo. L. Stewart and his wife, Janet Stewart, joined the Society, each placing one thousand dollars on their life in favor of the other. A short time ago Mrs. Stewart was summoned home by that grim monster, Death, and while she was able to say that she had a title clear to mansions in the skies, it afforded her consolation in her dying hour to be able to say that she had made some substantial provision for her family who were left to mourn her loss.

To-day Mr. Stewart informed me that he had received a cheque for one thousand dollars, being claim in full, just eleven days from the time the notice was sent to the Grand Council of C. O. of C. F.

CHAS. NORMAN, Recorder. Temperanceville, Feb'y 21, 1900.

News Notes.

Robert Wilkins, a tanner who had worked in Davis' tannery, Kinghorn, was found in a dying condition in the stable at Lennox's Hotel, Aurora, on Thursday morning last and died shortly afterwards.
