MARRIED.

Two of our citizens were united in marriage on Saturday last in the persons of Mr. Frank E. Sims and Miss Florence M. Hopper. The ceremony was performed in Toronto by Rev. G. L. Powell, and the young couple returned home on the following Monday. THE LIBERAL joins with their friends in congratulations and best wishes.

C. Mason sells the best wickless oil stove made. Call and see it.

PRIZE LISTS.

The prize lists for the fair on the Queen's Birthday were finished on the first of May, and are being distributed. Persons interested who do not receive a copy should apply to the secretary, Mr. H. A. Nicholls. The prizes in several of the classes are larger than in former years and should induce a large number of exhibitors to compete.

CHANGE OF TIME.

There has been a slight change this week in the Metropolitan time table. The car which formerly left the C. P. R. Crossing at 3.30 p. m. for Newmarket now leaves at 4 o'clock. And consequently this car will leave Newmarket on its return trip half an hour later than formerly, reaching Richmond Hill about 6.30.

HEWISON—WILLIAMS.

A very pleasant wedding took place on Tuesday, the 1st inst.—May Day—at the residence of the sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Davis, 148 Northcote Avenue, Toronto. The contracting parties were Mr. Warren Hewison and Miss Lucinda Williams, both of Richmond Hill. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Brown, Methodist minister. The bride and groom have the cordial good wishes of THE LIBERAL.

Seeds, Seeds—Timothy, Clover, Mangel, Turnip, Carrot, Garden seeds, Onion Sets, good quality. Close prices for cash. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

WHY RIDE A CLEVELAND?

Because it is the highest type in the art of bicycle construction to-day. Its popularity is world-wide. Some of its newest and most important features and improvements for 1900 are: Hardened block and pin, which prevents chain from wearing; combined ball and roller bearings; automatic oiling hubs; dust-proof skeleton gear case; improved ball head spokes; dust-proof pedals; improved sprockets; improved handle-bar and seat post adjustment; chainless models; combined coaster and brake.

Always fresh and sweet are the chocolates and Bon Bons we are selling. Atkinson & Switzer.

Much of your enjoyment in listening to a good programme depends on your location in the auditorium. Secure a reserved seat for Wednesday evening May 9th, before all the choice locations are sold.

MAY NUMBER.

In the Review of Reviews for May there is editorial comment on Admiral Dewey's candidacy; on the government of Puerto Rico under the law recently passed by Congress; on the proposed government of Alaska, and on the developments of the month in financial and industrial circles. Other topics treated in "The Progress of the World" are the rush to Cape Nome, fox-breeding in Alaska, the April elections, the epidemic of strikes the opening of the Paris fair, the military operations in South Africa, and the Delagoa Bay award.

Royal purple ties with Khaki combination in Imperial shape, 50c. Atkinson & Switzer.

W. M. S.

This evening the general prayer-meeting will be in charge of the W. M. S. Two papers on "China and the Chinese" and "Our Missionary Work in China," will be read by Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. Ed. Sisley respectively. Mrs. Willmott's Responsive Scripture Readings will be used. Miss Ethel Switzer will sing a solo, after which a short prayer service will be held. The Rev. R. S. E. Large, B. A., B. D., will conduct the meeting. The subject for prayer and study for May is "China and the Chinese." The W. M. S. will be pleased to see the congregation well represented to-night.

After an entertainment is over it is tantalizing to hear others speak in the highest terms of what they enjoyed, while you entirely neglected it. Avoid such regrets by spending an evening with the artists who will appear in the Methodist church, May 9th.

Gone to Rest.

Lines composed by his grandson in memory of Jacob Lahmer, who died April 28th, 1900.

Friend after friend is drooping away,
Like leaves in the fall of the year;
And sorrow stands at our weary hearts,
When we think of those so dear.

The Spring of the year will come and go;
The trees will bud and bloom;
Our souls may take their winged flight—
We cannot tell how soon.

We see in the home a vacant chair,
Such grief wherever we roam;
And the hand of God has bereft us here
To adorn his Heavenly home.

Then, why have we to mourn for him,
He, who has gone before
To show us that a life for Christ
Has great rewards in store?

Then, let us wake and gain the prize,
He giveth at our call,
And struggle manly to the end
Like He, who died for all.

'Twill not be long our parting here;
When a few brief years have past
Together around that celestial throne
Loved friends will meet at last.

The mists of life have rolled away
Life's troubles all are o'er
By duty and his faith in God
He rests on the golden shore.
