BUSINESS AND PLEASURE.

Prof. H. R. Playtner, Director of the Canadian Horological Institute, Toronto, and about 15 of his students, came up by electric car Saturday afternoon, and spent a few hours pleasantly with Mr. Jerry Smith, watch-maker and jeweller. The object of the visit was to show the students the model of a watch and some other fine work Mr. Smith had done when attending the school. The visitors found everything satisfactory, and the Professor congratulated Mr. Smith on the neatness of his shop and the work he is doing.

DEATH OF MRS. F. McBRIDE.

The funeral of Mrs. Luella Bullard McBride, wife of Frank E. McBride, held vesterday at 1.30 at her home on Kenngstown avenue, was conducted by her paston, Rev. H. S. Jackson, of the First M. E. Church. A quartette composed of Mrs. Butler and Miss Alice Craig, Messrs. Brainard and Lathan furnished the singing. The floral tributes were beautiful. The pall bearers were Messrs. Walter Quantrell, Fred Moon, Chas. Musser and Rollin James. Relatives from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. McBride of Bichmond Hill, Ontario, Canada, father and mother of Frank and Charlie McBride; Mrs. Farmmer of Lahogue, Ill., and Mrs. Hoard of Troy. The remains of Mrs. McBride were taken to Troy, where further services were held this afternoon, and the burial will be at Troy.—Warren Daily Chronicle, May 1.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Miss Olive Kinnee of this place, who has been living at Mr. Fred Legge's, Larchmere West, Oak Ridges, had a narrow escape from drowning on Friday last. She had gone out for a pail of water at the cistern when one of the boards gave way and she fell through. The cistern, which was 7 feet deep, being nearly full of water, she was wet to the waist, but she pluckily managed to keep hold of the boards until assistance came. The female members of the house tried in vain to extricate her from her uncomfortæble and perilous position, and it was not until ten minutes afterwards that one of the farm hands arrived from the field and released her. Miss Kinnee came home for a few days after the accident, but does not anticipate any serious results after her cold
