That the occasion was the twenty-first anniversary and that the collections wiped out a floating debt of over $200, made something of a red letter day in the history of the church.

THE HILL JUBILATES.

When the first car brought the news last Thursday morning shortly before 7 o'clock that Pretoria had surrendered to Lord Robert's forces, our citizens began to jubilate. Trustee Storey quickly ran the new flag up on the Public School, and in a short time Union Jacks and Canadian flags could be seen floating from the windows and verandahs of many of the business places and private residences. The school children spent the afternoon in the park where, under the guidance of their teachers and Mr. J. H. Sanderson, they indulged in games and races on account of the joyous news. The festivities were kept up with very slight interruptions throughout the day, but the grand climax was reached in the evening when an impromptu band was formed consisting of musicians (?) of both sexes, playing various instruments, ancient and modern, but principally the former. Another feature of the evening was a bicycle parade, also composed of members of both sexes, in a variety of costumes, with wheels elaborately and artistically decked with flags and bunting of red white and blue, and playing dinner bells, cow bells, tin pans, etc., in tones more patriotic than symphonious. Chinese lanterns of various shapes and colors were to be seen in several places, and the fireworks in front of the drug store and the Methodist Church were enjoyable parts of the celebration. The entertainment was not confined to any one part of the village, as there was stir and bustle all along the line, and wherever one went he could listen to patriotic songs, the National Anthem being much in evidence. Part of the celebration was kept up till about midnight, and although it was a little premature it was enjoyable nevertheless.

ALL THE WAY.

The very small crowd which watched the lacrosse match between Richmond Hill and the Tecumseh-Elms last Saturday in the park, were given an exhibition of skillful lacrosse, systematically played. When Referee Savage lined the men up, so much was the disparity of age, and so great a difference was there of weight, that every one felt that the Richmond Hill youngsters would be an easy prey to the Indian braves. But when once the ball was put in play, the spectators were quickly undeceived as they watched the Hill boys with lightning speed and accurate nicety pass the ball from man to man and from goal to goal, evincing superior skill in stick-handling than their opponents. But it must not be inferred that the Tecumsehs were out of the game, for they were in it from the first, though not quite so much as the Hill, as the score proves. The home team scored the first game, then the visitors evened matters. The last four games were scored by Richmond Hill, and the Tecumsehs quit with five minutes to play. The play was in every respect a worthy display of our National Game, and was played throughout with the gentlemanly spirit characteristic of true sportsmen. Every player did his duty and did it well, so that it is hard to select any who merit particular praise. For the Tecumseh-Elms, Buggess, Beamish and Lyons (who learned the game here), did good work; while for the Hill, W. Trench, the two Glasses and the two McKenzies deserve much credit. The enforcing of the new rule allowing the teams to rest only at half time, is a great improvement on the old way. Next Saturday, Toronto Junction meets Richmond Hill here on the park in the first game of the York District, which no one should miss, as the two teams are very evenly matched. The Hill team will be much strengthened by four of the old war horses. Don't miss it.

BEWARE THE CARS.

Last Saturday afternoon three or four small children in the village in playing with a passing car might have been killed. One little girl about five years of age actually ran up to strike the step when the car was in rapid motion. Needless to say the motor-man was almost terrified. Mr. Moyes, who was on the car at the time, called at THE LIBERAL office, and asked us to request the parents to warn their children of the danger they frequently put themselves in. A word to the wise is sufficient.

PICNIC.

The congregation of Trinity Church, Thornhill, will celebrate the sixty-third anniversary of the accession of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, to the British throne, by holding a monster picnic in the Mineral Spring Grove on Wednesday, June 20th. The Thornhill brass band has been engaged for the occasion. The gates will be open at 4 o'clock. Tea will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. Strawberries will be served with the tea. Admission to tea, 25 cents; children, 15 cents. Ice cream and strawberries will be on sale, and there will also be a sale of ladies' work.

DIED IN HIS 93RD YEAR.

The late Mr. John Hutchinson, whose death took place at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Isaac Crosby, this village, on Saturday, June 2, was born of English parents, in Boston, Mass., January 18, 1806. The family removed to Canada in 1824 and settled in Uxbridge, where some members of the family still reside. Deceased removed to Whitechurch when about 20 years of age, and on the 6th of April, 1830, was married to Miss Amy Lloyd, who survives him and still enjoys good health, though 86 years of age. He was a resident on and near Yonge Street for over 72 years. On the 6th of April last this aged and highly respected couple celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary, a notice of which was given at the time in these columns. They raised a family of ten children, eight of whom are still living, the names being as follows: Mrs. Thos. Lloyd, Aurora; Mr. Jas. Hutchinson, Dunkirk, N. Y.; Mr. G. W. Hutchinson, Kerney, Neb.; Mr. W. B. Hutchinson, Michigan City, Ind.; Mrs. Montgomery, Silver Creek, N. Y.; Mrs. H. M. Jewell, Toronto; Mr. J. W. Hutchinson, Aurora; Mrs. Isaac Crosby, Richmond Hill. Mr. Hutchinson, who had a wonderfully strong constitution, had been in failing health for about thirteen months. He was an interesting conversationalist and liked to talk of by-gone days. The funeral took place to the Aurora cemetery on Tuesday, and before starting, service, conducted by Revs. Messrs. Wellwood and Large, was held at the residence. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. Halliday, J. Playter, H. Wells, A. Brown, J. Stephenson, and W. Linton, all of Aurora. All the children were at the funeral with the exception of Mr. George Hutchinson, and Mrs. Lloyd, the latter being ill. Other relatives present from a distance were Mr. J. H. Allis and wife, Essex Centre; Mr. R. Allis, Toronto; Messrs. L. and T. Hutchinson, Uxbridge, nephews; and Mrs. Curtis. Many old friends met the funeral on the arrival at the cemetery and looked upon the face of deceased for the last time on this side of the grave.

What we would like to know:

Why the dog bit Will when it sees him so often; Tie it up Cephus and give the boy a chance.

Why the young man with the black horse and shiny buggy drives through Cashel so much Sunday nights. Be careful L. he don't fall, you know glass breaks easily.
