Sherwood
A Harvest Home sermon was preached in Zion E. L. Church last Sunday by the pastor, Rev. J. K. Hilty.
There was a large congregation, and the earnest and practical sermon was enjoyed by all present.

On Tuesday evening the Harvest Home Festival was held, and the result must be very encouraging to the pastor and the church membership.
There was a large attendance, and the entertainment which followed the tea was unusually interesting. Visitors were present from Maple, Teston, Purpleville, Vellore, Richmond Hill, Thornhill, Headford and other surrounding villages, and the Lutheran church at Sherwood seemed a most fitting place for a social reunion. The weather was perfect and the roads excellent, which no doubt added to the success of the festival. The tea served in the lower part of the church was one of the best, and, as one of the speakers afterwards remarked, the only difficulty he experienced was in finding a place for the sweet meats and other delicacies which were almost forced upon him by the attentive and accommodating waiters.
The auditorium of the church where the entertainment was held was magnificently decorated with various kinds of fruit and grain and roots and vegetables and choicest flowers and the effect was very pleasing. At about 8.30 the congregation rose and sang "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Rev. Wesley Dean, of Maple, read a portion of scripture, and Rev. J. A.
Grant of Richmond Hill offered prayer.

The pastor, Rev. J. K. Hilty, then introduced Mr. T. F. McMahon as chairman, who after a few introductory remarks, called upon the various performers for their selections. Several of the artists were forced to respond to encores, but as all did so well and gave evident satisfaction it is unnecessary to individualize. The addresses by Revs. Messrs. Dean and Grant were bright and cheerful, and contained just enough humor to be thoroughly enjoyed. The following are the numbers of the programme presented:—

Anthem, His Praise is Delightful, The Choir.
Vocal Solo, A Dream of Paradise, Miss Robinson.
Reading, The Piper of Hamelin, Miss Jolley.
Vocal Solo, The Holy City, Miss Keffler.
Reading, The Bishop and the Caterpillar, Miss Craig.
Vocal Duet, Glory to Thee, my God, this night, Mr. and Mrs. Fry.
Address, Rev. Mr. Dean.
Vocal Solo, Sing On, Miss Robinson.
Reading, Miss Jolley.
Vocal Solo, Her Majesty, Miss Keffer.
Address, Rev. Mr. Grant.
Reading, Miss Craig.
Vocal solo, Miss Robinson.

Before the doxology was sung, and the benediction pronounced, the chairman, on behalf of the pastor and congregation, thanked the audience for their presence and good order, and announced that a social would be held in the basement after the entertainment.

Unionville.
The first anniversary of the Lutheran Joint Ladies' Aid Society, which took place on August 22, on the lawn of Mrs. P. Harper, proved to be a very successful event. The evening was most delightful, and the attendance, though not as large as expected, was very good. Tea was served from 6 to 8, after which a short program was given. Short and practical addresses were given by the following Lutheran ministers: Rev. E. F. Ritter, Rev. O.
J. Schlenker and Rev. Mr. Ronche, all of Pennsylvania; Rev. J. K. Hilty of Sherwood; and Rev. Mr. Miller of Toronto. Rev. Mr. Bruch, pastor of the church, filled the role of chairman in his usual happy style. The Unionville band rendered several selections during the evening, which assisted in making the evening pass pleasantly.
The proceeds amounted to $30.
The members of the society will hold their next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. L. Summerfeldt on September 20.

Maple
At a meeting of the members of the Vaughan Plowmen's Association it was agreed to hold a plowing match this fall, but the place has not yet been decided upon.

The ladies of St. Stephen's Church purpose giving a lawn social on the grounds of Mr. Scrivener, Edgely, on Thursday, Sept. 6. An interesting program will be given and a pleasant time is expected. Admission to tea and entertainment, 20 cents.
Ice cream parties are all the rage at present, and they are quite appropriate this hot weather.
Bicyclists should be more careful in riding on our streets, as one of our young ladies was almost knocked down by one of them one night last week.

Mr. Charlie Brown of McKeesport, Pa., who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. H. C. Bailey, left for home on Monday morning.
Mrs. John Coombs, of "Fairview Place," is visiting friends at Kew Beach this week.
A couple of wandering musicians were in the village on Monday and played a few tunes on the bag pipes.
They succeeded in gathering in a few coppers.

MAGISTRATES' COURT

A number of prosecutions have recently taken place for infringements of the license act in East York, the trials generally being held at the Court House, Toronto. A detective sent out by License Inspector Eckardt swore that he saw the proprietor of the Palmer House give beer to W. Cooper, but as this was denied by both Mr. Palmer and Mr. Cooper, the case was dropped, after several sittings and adjournments. Mr. Palmer was fined $10 and costs for selling liquor during prohibited hours, and on Tuesday John Blanchard was tried for giving liquor to Cooper, contrary to regulations.
The case was heard before justices Ormerod and J. C. Clark, Mr. Raney acting as county attorney. The magistrates said they brought the case here thinking that witnesses could be procured who knew the circumstances of the parties interested. It was found, however, that several who were summoned to appear refused to give evidence. It was proven in court that Blanchard had given Cooper beer while the former was under the influence of liquor, but as evidence was not produced to show that defendant knew that he was acting contrary to law he was discharged.
