

LOCALS.

Thursday, Oct. 13 will be Thanksgiving Day.

Empty syrup barrels for sale at Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

Millinery opening at Mrs. M. Brown's, Thornhill, on Oct. 2 and 3, and following days. See adv. on another page.

16 ounce B Cotton Grain Bags, $2.50 a dozen; lighter weight, full size bag, $1.75 a doz. Atkinson & Switzer.

Mr. W. R. Proctor has purchased a lively business in the town of Barrie. Mr. Proctor will take possession in about a week, but his family will probably remain in their home here until spring.

10-4 cotton blankets $1 pair; 11-4 cotton blankets $1.25 pair; 11-4 cotton blankets, heavier weight, $1.95 pair, grey or white. Atkinson & Switzer.

The entertainment given in the Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening by a Toronto concert company was poorly attended. Had the artists who took part in the programme been properly advertised they should have drawn a full house.

Mrs. J. Shuter of Thornhill will have a millinery opening on Wednesday of next week and following days. See announcement elsewhere in this paper.

Special—Men and boys' fleeced lined shirts and drawers, boys' tweed suits, men's tweed suits. Odd coats and pants. Naughton Bros. Elgin Mills.

Mrs. Garvin, widow of the late John Garvin of Toronto, and mother of F. W. Garvin, formerly of this place, died suddenly in Brooklyn, New York, on Monday. Deceased was in her 61st year.

Something entirely new in ladies' ready to wear hats, all the new shades at $1.25 each. Atkinson & Switzer.

Mr. Jas. McKenzie, who spent several weeks in Dr. Langstaff's hospital after his leg was amputated, was able to return to his home in Toronto the latter part of the week.

Do not fail to see the display of millinery at the Concrete on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. Atkinson & Switzer.

Mr. Lynn, traveller for the Book Supply Company, brought up his samples Monday evening, and met the Purchasing Committee of the Public Library Board. Books to the value of over $50 were selected, making about $100 worth purchased this year.

Our dress goods section is complete with a beautiful line of homespuns, zibelins, crepons, cashmeres, tweeds, chevots, etc. Atkinson & Switzer.

Mr. Joseph Hall has received a fresh supply of Herbageum and reports from farmers and livery men proving that its small feeds costing only one cent a day for young animals and its most profitable efficiency make it the most profitable spice preparation they ever used for colts, horses, cows, and sick poultry, and for quickly raising and fattening calves, heaves, lambs, pigs and poultry, and increase of eggs and milk. With chopped grain it is cheaper than oil cake without Herbageum. It increases the flow of milk one-fifth.

Vanilla and lemon drops, cottage mixed, Cuba and Java biscuits at 10c per lb.; jelly wafers, 2 lbs. for 25c. Atkinson & Switzer.

THE STAR'S NEW OFFICE.

The Toronto Star announces the removal of its business office to one of the most prominent business locations in the city, the corner of Yonge and Adelaide streets. The Star thus gets upon the main thoroughfare of the city. The move is another step in the progress the paper is making in all directions.

Big range of English and Canadian oilcloths, 1 yard, 1 1/2 yard and 2 yard wide at 25, 35, 50 and 75c., running widths. Atkinson & Switzer.

IN HER 24TH YEAR.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garbutt have the sincere sympathy of our citizens in the loss of their daughter Edith at the age of 23 years. Deceased came home from the city about six weeks ago and waited on her brother who had contracted typhoid fever. About three weeks afterwards she was also attacked with the same disease and succumbed Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Garbutt have buried four daughters in Richmond Hill, and two in England before coming here.

Remember our millinery opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week will be of special interest to the ladies of this community. Atkinson & Switzer.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

At the annual convention of the York County V. C. T. U. held at Keswick, the election of officers resulted as follows: Hon. Pres., Mrs. Cody, Newmarket; Pres., Mrs. C. E. Cane, Newmarket; Vice-Pres., Mrs. H. E. Irwin, Weston; Cor. Sec'y, Miss H. H. Wiley, Richmond Hill; Rec. Sec'y, Mrs. McCulloch, East Toronto; Treas., Mrs. Abbott, Toronto Junction. Mrs. Switzer was appointed Supt. of Social Purity and Mrs. Derry of Narcotics.

DAIRY TOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Baker, 2nd con. Markham, who returned from their honeymoon a few days before, were serenaded by their friends on Monday evening. The company was commanded by Capt. Cosgrove, assisted by Corporal Jones, the explosives being managed by Gunner Clift. The serenaders were agreeably entertained and were treated to cider and other refreshments, Mr. Fred Lynett acting as tap manipulator.

Saturday is the young men's day in the furnishing department of our store; come and see the pretty designs in neckwear on display Saturday. Atkinson & Switzer.

AT ZION CHURCH.

The anniversary held at Zion Church, Markham township, on Sunday and Monday, was very successful. Large congregations attended the services on Sunday, when good sermons were preached by Rev. Geo. Brown of Toronto. The church was again packed on Monday evening when an excellent programme was served. An interesting programme followed the tea, the pastor, Rev. F. C. Keam, presiding. The musical and literary parts were well sustained, and the proceeds amounted to $85.

We bought our underwear early this season and secured all the advantages of the market, therefore we are selling a good tight fleeced shirt and drawers, all sizes, at $1 a suit. Atkinson & Switzer.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

To-morrow afternoon at the Junior Epworth League, the members will sign their names in the Secretary's book as a renewal of their pledge. A short talk will also be given on The Pledge. Last week the following officers were elected:—President, Frank McDonald; 1st Vice-Pres., Myrtle Saigeon; 2nd Vice-Pres., Harold Johnson; 3rd Vice-Pres., Emma Sisley; Rec. Sec., Starr McMahon; Cor. Sec., Karl Storey; Treas., Hazel Switzer; Guard, Percy Hill; Organist, Genevieve Harris.

CRICKET PRACTICE.

A cricket match between the married and the single men of the village had been arranged for Saturday afternoon, but when time was called only seven of the former could be got together. The benedicts went to bat first, and four of the players had the privilege of repeating their innings to make up for the absent players. The bachelors won by a score of 80 to 29. Double figures were reached by J. P. Glass for the married men, and by H. Glover and F. J. Johnston for the single men, the first making 18 runs, the last two 24 each.

If you are anticipating buying a new fall Derby, you should see the range we are showing in English and American shapes at $2 and $2.25. Atkinson & Switzer.

YOUNG—MARSH.

A very pleasing event took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. Scott McNair, when Mr. George W. Young of Cambridge, and Miss Annie E. Marsh, sister of Mrs. McNair, were married. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Grant, in the presence of seventy invited guests. At four o'clock to the strains of the wedding march the bridal party entered the drawing room. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. A. Kelly of Beaverton. The bride, leaning on the arm of Mr. McNair, looked charming in white organdie over white satin, with veil daintily caught up with smilax, and carrying a shower bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Maud Marsh, who was tastefully dressed in pale green organdie, who also carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Little Alice McNair, niece of the bride, acting as flower girl, looked very fairy-like in white muslin and lace. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a most sumptuous repast. Ample justice having been done by all to the abundance of good things provided by the genial host and hostess, the health of the newly-married couple was proposed by Mr. Grant and enthusiastically responded to. The many beautiful and useful presents testified to the esteem in which the bride was held.

HARVEST HOME.

A very successful Harvest Home Festival in connection with the Carville Methodist Church was held on Wednesday evening, 19th inst. After all expenses were paid the sum of $96.80 was cleared. A splendid dinner of cold fowl and other delicacies was served in the shed, after which a musical and literary program was given in the church, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The chair was occupied by the pastor, Rev. S. W. Dean. The first number on the program, after the opening exercises, was a chorus, "The Old Brigade," by the Male Chorus Club of Hope. The choir of that place also sang several choruses. Mrs. F. H. Gooch sang "We'll Fight for the Old British Flag," and "The Holy City," with good effect. "Little Black Me," and "Within the Minster," were sung by Miss Gertie Stewart of Eglinton, who was well received and encouraged. Mr. Geo. Stevenson of Newton Brook, gave the solo, "The Old House at Home," in a pleasing manner. Mr. and Miss Stevenson sang the duet, "The Shadow Time," and Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Moore "Till We Meet Again." The elocutionists of the evening were Miss Irene Lane of Thornhill, Miss Nellie Campbell of Maple, and Miss Lucy Reaman of Concord. Short addresses were given by Rev. J. A. Grant and Rev. R. S. E. Large of Richmond Hill. The proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

MAJOR'S NEW BEAR STORIES.

The latest work of the author of "When Knighthood was in Flower" has been secured by The Ladies' Home Journal. As would be expected it has to do with adventure—the experiences of some frontier children. There is a childish romance woven into the stories, and they will have a keen interest for boys as well as for their elders. Under the heading of "Blue River Bear Stories" Mr. Major's serial will begin in the October Journal.

We are showing some beautiful patterns in English Cretonnes, in rich colorings, at 10 and 13c. Atkinson & Switzer.

Maple

At a meeting of the Presbyterian congregations held in the church at Maple on Monday last, it was decided to extend a call to Rev. Mr. Back of Ottawa Presbytery, to be their pastor.

The Male Chorus Club of Hope passed through here on Monday evening on their way to Dollar, to take part in the Harvest Home Festival in connection with the Methodist Church of that place.

Miss Ella Anderson of Bracebridge, was the guest of Mrs. T. Cousins last week.

Mr. R. Rose, Mrs. J. Rose, and Mrs. Gibb of Hamilton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rose last week.

Mrs. (Dr.) Teasdale of London, was the guest of Mrs. L. Richardson on Wednesday last.

Death has entered two of our homes this week. On Sunday morning Mr. Jos. McCormack, father of Mr. Thos. McCormack and Mrs. T. Cousins, was, after a long and lingering illness, called away at the ripe old age of 82 years. He was a native of Tyrone Co., Ireland, and had lived in the village for over 40 years, and was respected by all who knew him.

The other death was at the home of Mr. Thos. Oliver on Tuesday morning, when his youngest child Maurice, a bright and lovely child, was, after a very painful illness, called away. The parents have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

Spavins, Ringbones, Splints Curbs, and All Forms of Lameness Yield to

Works thousands of cures annually. Endorsed by the best breeders and horsemen everywhere. Price, $1.50 per bottle. As a liniment for family use it has no equal. West Lorne, Ontario, Can., Dec. 14, 1898. DR. B. J. KENDALL CO. Dear Sirs:—A year ago I had a valuable horse which got lame. I took him to the Veterinary Surgeon who pronounced it Osguit Spavin and gave me little hope, although he applied a sharp blister. This matter only worsened and the horse became so lame that it could not stand up. After trying everything in my power I went to a neighbor and told him about the case. He gave me one of your bottles and I studied it carefully and being resolved to do the utmost in favor of my best, we set to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of your Spavin Cure and applied it strictly according to directions. Before the first bottle was used I noticed an improvement, and when the seventh bottle was about half used, my horse was completely cured and without leaving a blemish on him. After ceasing treatment I gave the horse good care and did some light work with him, wishing to see if it had effected a cure. I then started to work the horse hard and to my entire satisfaction he never showed any more lameness through the whole summer. I can recommend Kendall's Spavin Cure not only as an excellent, but as a sure remedy, to any one that it may concern. Yours truly, S. JUEL TRITTEN. Ask your druggist for Kendall's Spavin Cure, also "A Treatise on the Horse," the book free, or address DR. B. J. KENDALL COMPANY, EMOSSBURG FALLS, VT.
