LARGE ONION.

Mr. Geo. Woods of Carville, head miller in Cook's flour mill, seems to understand not only how to make good flour, but to grow large onions. A few days ago a friend brought in a fine specimen from Mr. Woods' garden, grown from seed, which measures 1 1/2 inches in circumference, and weighs just 1 1/2 lbs.

THANK OFFERING.

On Sunday next, as previously announced, the friends of the Methodist Church purpose holding their Anniversary and annual Thank Offering. Rev. S. D. Chown, D. D., President of the Toronto Conference, will preach morning and evening, and doubtless large congregations will be present to hear this eminent gentleman.

Just received a special line of oil blinds, some in plain colors without trimming, some with lace, some with fringe, some with lace and insertion at 40, 55 and 75c. Atkinson & Switzer.

PATTERSON.

A Pumpkin Pie Social will be held over the former office at Patterson's works on Friday evening of this week. Tea will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock, after which a choice programme will be given. A charge of 15 cents will be made for adults, and 10 cents for children. All are cordially invited.

The topic for Roll Call Service at Epworth League next Friday evening is "Rich toward God."—St. Luke xii, 13-21. All who attend will be made welcome.

THREE FIRST PRIZES.

Dr. F. J. Gallanough, V. S., is likely to be a successful competitor in the show ring this fall. At Newmarket Fair he secured three first prizes as follows:—Best gentleman's roadster, prize $25; best gentleman's turnout, prize, $25; best single roadster in harness, prizes $3.

For fall house cleaning you will be discarding some of your old lace curtains. We have a nice line of Nottingham lace, 3 yards long, at 50c. per pair; better quality at 75c., $1, $1.25 & $1.50. Atkinson & Switzer.

DEATH OF ROBERT SMITH.

A recent number of the Peel Banner refers to the death of Mr. Robert Smith, one of the most prominent men of the county, and father of Mr. J. C. Smith of this village, Inspector of Weights and Measures. The article included an interesting account of the life of deceased, showing that he had been councillor, reeve, warden, and member of Parliament, and was a good public speaker and debater. Deceased, who died at his home in Brampton, had reached the venerable age of 81 years.

EAST TORONTO.

A very pleasant party gathered at The Woodbine Conservatories, the home of Mr. Thos. Watson, on Tuesday evening of last week, to bid good bye to Miss May Kirby, and to thank her for the part she had taken in church work. Her playing and singing at Harvest Homes and other gatherings in connection with different churches has been much appreciated, and her departure from this place will be keenly felt. The young lady left Wednesday evening for Maple, the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kirby. Her friends here will be pleased to welcome her return.

SCHOOL MEETING.

At a meeting of the Board of Education on Monday, Principal Farquharson addressed the Board on the advisability of purchasing a type writing machine for the High School, or which would be better to engage a third teacher so that a commercial course could be given those pupils who wish to take it. After a discussion, trustee Sanderson gave notice that at the next meeting he would move that a third teacher be engaged at a salary not to exceed $500 per annum. Another discussion took place as to the advisability of allowing pupils to attend High School who have not passed the Entrance Examination. The general opinion seemed to be that to do so was unjust to those who had paid their fee and passed the regular examination, and should not be allowed except where excellent reasons could be given for so doing.

The members are requested to be present as business of importance will be transacted. A cordial invitation is extended to the pastors and friends interested in the work. A prosperous year has just closed, and the Society hope for greater things in the year they are just entering. Subjects for prayer and study for October "The Forward Movement for Missions" "Giving to God."

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

A very pretty Harvest Thanksgiving Service was held in St. Mary's Church (of England) Tuesday evening. Every part of the church—the windows, pulpits, the chandeliers, nearly every piece of furniture—was tastefully decorated with various kinds of grain, vines, roots, autumn leaves, fruits and flowers, so that the interior of the structure looked like a veritable flower and vegetable garden. The choir, with a little outside assistance, gave some very fine selections of music, and the audience was highly delighted with the vocal solos of Mrs. E. Langstaff of Thornhill, and Miss Violet Sterey. The rector, Rev. John Gibson, read the scripture lessons, and a prominent feature of the programme was an address, appropriate for the occasion, by Rev. J. P. Lewis, of Grace Church, Toronto, founded on Ps. 65, verse 9. The rev. gentleman gave some useful information as to how vegetation is produced, and gave reasons showing that the hand of God is in all things. At the close of the address a liberal collection was taken up which will be devoted to repairing the church.
