

LOCALS.

Regular meeting of Court Richmond to-morrow evening.

The Dominion Elections will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 7.

Mr. W. A. Glass has gone to Hamilton to take a course in the Provincial Normal College.

Ladies' electric seal fur ruff, with six tails, $5. Atkinson & Switzer.

Upwards of $100 were contributed in the Methodist Church last Sunday as a Free Will Offering.

The trouble with St. Matthew's Ward has been settled, and Mr. W. F. Maclean has withdrawn his resignation.

Wm. Trench & Son got first prize for spring wagon, and second prize for heavy wagon, at Markham Fair last week.

A large number of our citizens attended the reception given to Pte. Tom. Wallace, at Woodbridge, on Thursday last.

Children's toques at 35c. and 50c. in nice fine wool and good patterns. Atkinson & Switzer.

Miss A. Dill, accompanied by Nora and Irene McMahon, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Aurora and Whitechurch.

To-morrow afternoon at Junior League a talk will be given on "Mission Work in India." Members are urged to be present.

See the display of fall millinery in our south window. Atkinson & Switzer.

Correspondents will please send copy one day earlier than usual next week as owing to Thanksgiving Day THE LIBERAL will be published on Wednesday.

The W. C. T. U. purpose holding a Parlor Social in the Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 23. A good programme will be provided, of which full particulars will be given next week.

Shirts and drawers—Men's and boys' fleeced lined and woollen shirts and drawers. See them. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sheppard of Victoria, B. C., and Mr. A. Sheppard of Delano, Kern Co., California, and Mr. C. Sheppard of Holland Landing, were the guests of Mr. Wm. Sheppard last week.

Mr. Fred Harrison has received word from Queen's University that he has passed Senior Matriculation in French, Latin, Greek and Physics. This gives Mr. Harrison first year standing at the University in the above subjects.

Young men are specially invited to come and inspect our stock of hats in Fedoras, Alpines, stiff hats, etc. Atkinson & Switzer.

We saw a large basket of pears, picked from the orchard of Mr. Jno. Blanchard, a few days ago, which would take a good place at any of the fall fairs. There were just 20 pears in the full basket, and each weighed a lb.

Mr. Arthur John Fleury of King, and Miss Hulda Christina Thompson of Whitechurch, were united in marriage on Wednesday of last week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Kirkby at the home of Mrs. Robt. Thompson, the bride's mother.

Just in, a line of men's hook-down caps in soft finish Scotch tweeds, Christie's make, at 50c. each. Atkinson & Switzer.

In the October Review of Reviews, the editorial department entitled "The Progress of the World" contains an impartial review of the Presidential campaign down to its present stage, special attention being given to the letters of acceptance of the several candidates. Other topics editorially treated in this number are the Galveston calamity, the coal miners' strike, the elections in England and the problem of reconstruction in China.

We are showing a special line of men's black stiff hats in the newest American block, good leather sweat band, at $1.25. Atkinson & Switzer.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

At the W. C. T. U. meeting held at Mrs. Sanderson's on Tuesday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. Switzer;
Vice President, Mrs. C. Mason;
Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. Hume;
Rec. Sec'y, Miss Wiley;
Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Sanderson.

DIED AT ST. MICHAEL'S.

Mrs. Dalziel, widow of the late Jas. Dalziel, near Edgely, 5th con. Vaughan, died at St. Michael's Hospital on Friday. She had undergone an operation for an internal trouble, but died the same day. Deceased leaves two sons and two daughters. The sons, William and James, and one daughter Annie, are at home; the other daughter is the wife of Rev. C. A. Campbell, of Lakefield, formerly of Maple.

Blankets—Cotton blankets, prime quality; woollen blankets, large stock, all less than regular prices. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

A sample copy of the supplementary plates, "Rosary," has been forwarded to agents supplying The Christmas Globe. The picture, which is true to life, has been pronounced by the best artists of this country as one of the most exquisite productions ever offered to the Canadian public in this way. The price of The Christmas Globe will be 50 cents, and those wishing a copy must have their orders in before the 10th inst. Orders taken at this office.

MARRIED.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elliott, Glen Cottage, Kingston Road, was the scene of a happy gathering on the 1st inst., when their eldest daughter, Miss Maud Rodie, was married to Mr. P. H. Watson, both of Toronto. The happy couple left amid a shower of rice and slippers on the evening train for New York where they will spend their honeymoon.

SUNRISE PRAYER MEETING.

In harmony with the recommendation of the general society of the Epworth League regarding the Evangelistic Forward Movement, a sunrise prayer meeting will be held in the Vestry of the Methodist Church next Sunday at 7 a. m. Let all Christian believers signify their readiness to share in the "greater works" which our Saviour left us to do by attending this early service. All are welcome.

SPECIAL CAR.

A special car for the Laurier Demonstration next Tuesday evening will leave Richmond Hill at 6 o'clock sharp. Return tickets 40 cents; Thornhill 30 cents. Return car will leave Toronto at 11.30. Tickets of admission may be had at THE LIBERAL Office. The car will stop at Newton Brook and other points south. Ladies are invited.

Nice range of children's tams in cloth covered tams, assorted shades, at 25c.; blue serge tams, 50c.; and something entirely new in leather tams for boys' and girls' at 75c. Atkinson & Switzer.

WOODBIDGE FAIR.

As usual, the officers and directors of West York and Vaughan Agricultural Society are making extensive preparations for their annual Fair to be held at Woodbridge on the 17th and 18th inst. As the last day of the Fair is Thanksgiving Day and a holiday, an unusually large crowd is expected. Woodbridge Fair is the most popular of the Fall Fair to people in this section of country.

Just received this week, a large assortment of men's shirts in heavy shaker, at 50c.; black drill shirts with white pin dot at 75c.; and black sateen at 50c., 75c., and $1. Atkinson and Switzer.

PEACHES AND PUMPKIN PIE.

On Friday evening the Epworth League will hold a Peach and Pumpkin Pie Social in the School Room of the Methodist Church. Tea will be served from 6 to 8 p. m. The following programme has been arranged: Quartette; Solo, Miss Violet Storey; Reading, Mr. F. J. Johnston; Solo, Miss Ethel Switzer; Quartette, Messrs. Redditt, Sanderson, Johnston and Trench; Solo, Miss L. Mortson; Solo, Rev. R. S. E. Large. Admission, 15 cents; children, 10 cents.

This cold snap is a warning to us that we need some heavier underwear; we have a nice line of fleeced shirts and drawers at $1 a suit. Atkinson & Switzer.

Ladies' electric seal caperine with sable trimming and tails, beautifully lined with black serge silk, at $14.50. Atkinson & Switzer.

L. WALDRON, Teacher.

Something very new and neat are the ties we are showing in Derbys, flowing ends, Imperials, puffs, Tecks, batwing bows, strings and four-in-hands, all strictly new silk and neatly made up. Atkinson & Switzer.

PUMPKIN PIE SOCIAL.

A very pleasant time was spent at a social in the Patterson church last Friday evening. The evening was delightful, and those who attended from the neighboring sections must have thoroughly enjoyed the outing. Twenty-two from this village went out in Mr. Gaby's pleasure van, and about as many more on wheels and other ways. The tea, which was served in the west wing of the church, was most tempting, and the waiters were courteous and accommodating. After tea a short but interesting programme was given, the chair being occupied by Rev. N. Wellwood. Each of those who took part gave double selections, and all were heartily received. Mr. Mortson of Patterson, gave violin solos, Miss Campbell and Miss Byam of Maple, gave readings, and Rev. R. S. E. Large and Miss Glass of Richmond Hill, contributed vocal solos. The accompanists were Miss Switzer, Miss Mortson and Mrs. C. Rumble. The receipts amounted to about $18.

JUDICIAL

Notice to Creditors

Of Elisha Routledge, Deceased.

Pursuant to Judgment of the High Court of Justice made in a certain action of Smith v. Routledge, the creditors (including those having any specific general lien or charge on the estate or any undivided share) of Elisha Routledge, late of the Township of Vaughan, in the County of York, who died on or about the month of June, 1885, are, on or before the 20th day of October, 1900, to send, by post, prepaid, to Messrs. Macpherson, Clark, Campbell & Jarvis, Barristers, etc., 16 King Street West, Toronto, their christian and surnames, addresses and description, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them; or in default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said judgment. Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before me, the Master in Ordinary at his Chambers in Osgoode Hall, in the city of Toronto, on the 27th day of October, 1900, at 11 o'clock forenoon, being the time appointed for adjudication on the claims.

Dated the 27th day of Sept., 1900.
