WOODBRIIDGE FAIR.

Fully 10,000 people must have attended Woodbridge Fair on Thanksgiving Day. The exhibits were good, and the entries large. The day's proceedings closed with a banquet when about 500 partook of the hospitality of the officers and directors. Among the speakers were Hon. N. C. Wallace, Mr. Arch. Campbell, Mr. J. W. St. John, Mr. W. J. Hill, Capt. Thos. Wallace, Rev. P. Campbell, Capt. McMaster, and others.

The resignation was accepted, to take effect in a month, or sooner if a substitute satisfactory to the Board can be secured. A resolution was also passed to advertise for a male principal at a salary of $500.

HERBAGEUM.

It will increase the flow of milk. It will make skim milk, buttermilk or whey as good as new milk for calves or pigs. In fattening cattle it makes six months' feeding equal to eight. It has no equal for working horses or for horses that are run down or out of condition. As a pork-maker it is sure, and for pigs with weak legs it never fails. It is unsurpassed for all kinds of poultry. It pays; test it. For sale by J. Hall.

New trimmed millinery in toques, turbans and picture hats. Atkinson & Switzer.

MOVING WESTWARD.

Mr. E. G. Redditt, formerly of THE LIBERAL staff, who has been in Owen Sound for the past two years, seems to have made many friends during his residence there. The following paragraph relative to his departure is taken from a recent number of an Owen Sound paper:—"General regret will be felt in C. O. B. and other musical circles that Mr. Edgar Redditt, for a number of years on McCallum & Pratt's job room staff, will leave for Brautford on Monday, where he takes a position in the Exhibitor office."

Children's toques in all colors, in fine wool, with large tassel, 25c. and 40c. Atkinson & Switzer.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society to the number of about 300 from Toronto, Toronto Junction, Markham, King, Aurora, Newmarket, and other places in the Toronto Presbytery, arrived in the village on Friday afternoon, principally by special cars, and held an interesting session in the Presbyterian Church. Reports of the past year were read, and addresses were delivered by Mrs. Grant of Toronto, and Mrs. McKenzie, a returned missionary from China. Musical selections interspersed the proceedings, including a duet by Mrs. J. A. Grant and Mrs. E. H. Sisley. Refreshments were afterwards served in the basement.

ONE POLLING PLACE.

Mr. Peter Ellis, Returning Officer for West York, was in the village a few days ago posting up the Proclamation sheet for the Dominion Election. Polling in Richmond Hill will take place in Skeel's shop, which is centrally situated. This will be the only polling booth, whereas under Conservative rule there were two and sometimes three places. This, of course, meant three deputy returning officers, three poll clerks, three constables, etc., etc. The Grits are evidently a little more economical than their predecessors in the management of elections.

Something entirely new—Men's heavy tweed smock coats, just the thing for wearing now, $1.75 each. Atkinson & Switzer.

FAMILY GATHERING.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Coombs of Maple, presented a lively appearance on Thanksgiving Day. The occasion was the reunion of the family. All but two of the members of the family were present. These included Mrs. Reaman of Severn Bridge; Mrs. Ough of Holland Landing; Mrs. Kirby and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Coombs of Newmarket; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Baker of Carville; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coombs of Richmond Hill. There were also present several grandchildren, one of them, Miss Alice Coombs, represented the eldest branch of the family, Mr. Ashton B. Coombs of Bracebridge. The gathering was an altogether pleasant one, especially as some of those present had not visited the old home for several years. The day's programme consisted of a splendid fowl dinner, and conversation and jokes. It might be remarked that during the conversation it was not always easy to determine who had the floor. However, the meeting was never uproarious, and when it broke-up in the evening all declared they had had a very pleasant time.

In our millinery department we have made a special effort to please the public, and as a result we are doing a larger business than in the past. We find it no trouble to show goods, whether a sale is made or not, and can always assure you of courteous treatment. Atkinson & Switzer.
