

LOCALS.

Regular meeting of Court Richmond on Friday evening.

Get a Canadian Almanac at THE LIBERAL office. Price 25 cents.

A number of public meetings will be held next week in Markham township to discuss the proposed by-law to curtail the statute labor.

The Richmond Hill Fire Brigade will not hold their annual entertainment on New Year's Night as anticipated.

Arrangements are being made for the annual banquet of King Plowmen's Association to be held at Trent's Hotel, Nobleton, on the evening of Thursday, the 17th of January.

Mr. J. H. Sanderson received word a few days ago of the death of Mrs. John Southcott, widow of the late Henry Sanderson. She died at her home in Goderich on Friday last.

An auction sale of horses, cattle, &c., will be held at The Palmer House on Wednesday next, the 2nd of January to commence at 1.30. Terms 4 months. Saigeon & McEwen, auctioneers.

The East York Conservative Association will hold its annual meeting on Friday afternoon, the 11th of January. The meeting will be held in East Toronto, and a candidate will be nominated for the next election to the Legislative Assembly.

We would respectfully remind our village subscribers, to whom THE LIBERAL is delivered weekly by our Carrier Boy, that he will make his annual call on New Year's morning, when he will be pleased to present his house calendar and his good wishes, hoping to be kindly remembered in return as in former years.

The general reading public have unanimously decided in favor of The Montreal Family Herald and Weekly Star with the two famous premium pictures, "Christ in the Temple," and "Home from the War." It is simply head and shoulders above anything in the newspaper line. No other newspaper pretends to issue such beautiful pictures or such a paper.

We still have something very nice in fancy china glassware, delf goods, etc., suitable for holiday goods. Atkinson & Switzer.

BY ACCLAMATION.

The following were elected County Councillors by acclamation on Monday:

North Toronto, No. 2.—R. J. Gibson, Frank Turner.

Etobicoke, No. 3.—J. D. Evans, J. Gaudhouse.

Richmond Centre, No. 4.—W. H. Pugsley, G. W. High.

Elections will be held in the remaining Divisions on Monday, Jan'y 7.

Ladies' tweed skirts, nice dark and light patterns, nicely trimmed with braid, at $3.75. Atkinson & Switzer.

A REASONABLE REQUEST.

We are this week sending out our accounts for THE LIBERAL subscriptions, etc., and hope our friends will cheerfully respond. The beginning of the year is a good time to settle up accounts, and start with a clean sheet. This THE LIBERAL always endeavors to do. We hope, therefore, that our task will be made easy, by our subscribers remitting the amount of their accounts, or calling at our office to settle.

Remember we always have a very choice stock of Patterson's bon bons and chocolates, maple creams, French fruits, etc. Atkinson & Switzer.

PORK PACKING CO.

A public meeting is called for Thursday, January 3rd, at the Town Hall, Weston, to organize a pork packing company. The capital of the same is to be $150,000. A large amount of the stock has been subscribed in Toronto, and it is desired upon the part of the village, as well as the promoters, that the farmers attend this meeting. They will find it to their interests to do so.

Fresh roasted coffee, ground while you wait, at 25c. and 40c. per lb. Atkinson & Switzer.

W. M. S.

The W.M.S. of the Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. French Thursday afternoon, Jan'y 3 at three o'clock. The subject for prayer and study for the month is "The Missionary Societies of the Methodist Church: Our Duty toward Them." An invitation is extended to all women interested in mission work to attend the meeting next Thursday afternoon.

FOR COUNTY COUNCILLORS.

The contest for County Councillors for Markham Division, No. 5, will be among Arthur Quantz, present reeve of Markham township; Robert Ash, and R. C. Tefft. There should be a full vote polled from the front part of the township as there always is from the back. Each voter may vote for each of two candidates, or he may make two X's for one candidate. Mr. Quantz has given excellent satisfaction as reeve and should make an equally good county representative.

Bright golden dates, 75c. per lb.; table figs, 15c.; sweet oranges, 25c. per doz.; table raisins, 18c. per lb. Atkinson & Switzer.

THORNHILL.

Court Union, A. O. F., have elected the following officers for the year 1901: C. R., G. A. Pearson; P. C. R., E. A. James; S. C. R., J. A. Pearson; Secretary, A. Pearson; Treasurer, J. E. Francis; S. W., Dr. Dame; J. W., J. Moore; S. B., J. White; J. B., J. Baker.

Good and warm is the underwear we are offering in fleece lined, also in all wool at $1.10 a suit. Atkinson & Switzer.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

An invitation is given to every one to attend the Christmas Service of the Epworth League Friday at 8 p. m. The programme for the evening is to be as follows:

- Opening exercises.
- Hymn 77.
- Prayer.
- Scripture Lesson, Is. xix.
1. Hymn 304.
2. The Promise of a Saviour.
3. (a) The Story of the Shepherds. (b) The Story of the Wise Men.
4. Solo, "Hosanna."
5. What the Star Means to Us.
6. Hymn.
- Dismissal.

Next Tuesday being a holiday, the store will be closed all day, but the day before we will make an extra effort to supply your wants for the holiday. Atkinson & Switzer.

TWO DEATHS.

Two deaths occurred within the past week, both the young men called away being former residents of this place. Alfred Pugsley, brother of County Councillor Pugsley, died at his home in Davisville last Sunday, and George Savage, brother of reeve Savage, died at his home in Toronto yesterday. While the immediate relatives knew in each case that death was approaching, the news came as a shock to many friends and acquaintances. Both who were comparatively speaking young men, spent a good part of their early life here, and were well thought of by a wide circle of friends.

Always something nice and new in our neckwear, something that is neat, and still attractive. Atkinson and Switzer.

STATEMENT CORRECTED.

The Richmond Hill correspondent in Monday's World threw out the intimation that Mr. D. Lynett was "anxious to secure the seat in the Markham council now held by Mr. Sisley." Mr. Lynett wishes to say through THE LIBERAL that there is no ground for the above statement, that he has no intention of opposing Mr. Sisley, but that on the other hand he is prepared to support him for councillor, as he has given the best of satisfaction during the time he has been a member of the council. Mr. Lynett says he was asked to accept a nomination as councillor but declined the offer.

Something very pretty in dress plaids suitable for waists, children's dresses, etc., at 15c. per yard. Atkinson & Switzer.

VICTORIA SQUARE.

A very pleasing event took place on Wednesday, Dec. 26, at the residence of Mr. C. Heise, when his granddaughter, Miss Mary Louisa Doner, was united in marriage to Mr. Ralph Wideman of Gormley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. Elliott in the presence of a number of invited guests. The groom was supported by Rev. Louis Burkholder of Box Grove, the bridesmaid being Miss Blenheim Wideman, sister of the groom. After the ceremony all repaired to the dining-room where ample justice was done to the good things provided. The happy couple left early in the afternoon for a short wedding trip.

An excellent assortment of men's gloves in lined and unlined kid, mocha, or buck at from 50c. a pair to $2.00. Atkinson & Switzer.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Annual Entertainment and Christmas Tree in connection with the Presbyterian Sabbath School was held in the basement of the church on Thursday evening. The chair was ably filled by Mr. Wm. Innes, superintendent of the school, and a nice little programme was presented, principally by the children. The entertainment consisted of solos, duets, quartettes, recitations, drills, etc., and was thoroughly enjoyed. A May Pole Drill executed by about a dozen boys and girls was particularly well done. A very pleasant break in the programme was the presentation of four beautiful volumes of poems to the superintendent, and the same number to Rev. Mr. Grant, the pastor of the church. In presenting the books to Mr. Innes a well-worded address was read by Miss Beulah Brydon, and Miss Ivy Newton made the presentation. Both recipients made neat speeches, in returning thanks to the donors. But interesting as the above part of the programme was, the part to follow was still more interesting, especially to the younger portion of the audience. This was the distribution of presents from the Christmas Tree, which looked very pretty along with the other decorations. Mr. Geo. Sims jr., made a good Santa Claus, and divided the presents with quickness and impartiality.

Certainly the Raglan coat is all the go now, and we are showing something very choice in Oxford chevrons, nice soft finish goods, to make up a beautiful Raglan coat for $15.50. Atkinson & Switzer.

GOVERNOR VANZANT.

Mr. G. R. Vanzant of Markham Village, has been appointed Governor of Toronto Jail in succession to the late Governor Green, who died on Sunday, 16th inst. He was for a number of years reeve of Markham, and was a prominent figure in York County Council. For many years he has taken an active interest in Liberal politics, and has always been popular. He is a native of York County, and about 50 years of age. The position is one of considerable importance, and Mr. Vanzant's many friends will be pleased to hear of the appointment.

METHODIST S. S.

Special sermons bearing on the life of Christ were preached in the Methodist church last Sunday by the pastors. In the morning Rev. Mr. Large spoke particularly to the children, taking for his subject, "The Star of Bethlehem." Excellent music was furnished at both services by the choir. On Christmas night an entertainment was given in the school room of the church when an attractive programme was presented. Mr. Switzer, superintendent of the school, who presided, in opening, thanked the large audience for their generous patronage, and gave a short and interesting account of the Sabbath school. The solos, choruses, recitations and other numbers were all given by scholars, officers or teachers, and the applause after each selection was well merited. Santa Claus appeared at the proper time and after renewing acquaintanceship with old friends and an introduction to newcomers he proceeded to distribute his presents with a lavish hand. Many beautiful gifts decorated the curtains while scores of others were shot from the modern gun specially manufactured for the occasion. Mr. W. A. Sanderson, as Santa, fearlessly stood at the muzzle, and Mr. Hume did effective work as "the man behind the gun." Besides the presents given by relatives and friends, each child at the entertainment was presented with a bag of candy.

MARRIAGES.
