

LOCALS.

Pocket Diaries at THE LIBERAL Office.

Dr. J. T. McElroy, V. S., has sold his farm at Elgin Mills to Fahey Bros.

Mr. Wm. Ness of Dollar, has been elected a trustee for Headford school.

Annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Fire Brigade Monday evening, January 7th.

The Canadian Press Association will hold its annual meeting in Montreal on the 14th and 15th of February.

Season tickets for the Hockey Club, admitting to all matches, can be secured from the secretary, Mr. C. H. Ellston.

At the auction sale at the Palmer House yesterday milch cows were "knocked down" by auctioneer Saigeon from 40 to 72 dollars.

The individual who cut one of the skater's boots at the pond a few evenings ago must feel mean, if he is capable of feeling that way.

The rink will be open to skaters on Saturday evening of this week, and to curlers on their regular nights. Full particulars next week.

Mr. James Dimma was on Monday elected reeve of Markham township by acclamation. There will be an election for four councillors.

Five candidates are in the field for the Toronto mayoralty, viz., E. A. Macdonald, John Shaw, O. A. Howland, F.S. Spence and C.C. Woodley.

The High School opened this morning with an increased attendance. To do good work others intending to resume their studies must come in at once.

C. Rollin was up before M. Teffy, Esq., J. P., and P. G. Savage, reeve, on Thursday for assaulting Mary Smallcome, and was fined $2.00 and costs.

The sum of $8.00 was last Sunday taken at the Methodist Sabbath School for the Hospital for Sick Children and forwarded by Mr. Switzer, the superintendent, to Mr. J. Ross Robertson.

Messrs. D. Lynett, J. H. Sanderson and G. McDonald were on Monday re-elected by acclamation as trustees for U.S.S. No. 3 of Markham, 4 of Vaughan and the Village of Richmond Hill.

Mr. G. B. Newbery was on Saturday married to Miss Clara Louise Gullett of Toronto. Mr. Newbery will kindly accept THE LIBERAL'S congratulations; also our thanks for a piece of the bride's cake.

Nice, neat and good mufflers in quiet patterns, 50, 75 and $1.00 at Atkinson & Switzer.

The trustees of Headford Public School have had quite an experience in securing a teacher for 1901. Several teachers after being engaged sent the trustees word that they could not fulfill their engagement. The trustees, however, were fortunate in securing Miss Foster, a young lady from Toronto, who commenced duties to-day.

Men's heavy knitted shirts in good patterns at 50, 65 and 75c. Atkinson & Switzer.

"On the Threshold" is the theme for Epworth League Roll Call Service on Friday evening. Rev. iii., 8.—"Behold I have set before thee an open door and no man can shut it." The League would like not only a full attendance of members, but also ask the friends to come out to the first service of the new century.

Something nice in men's white goods for evening wear, white shirts, ties, latest shape collars, &c. Atkinson & Switzer.

The postponed meeting of the W. M. S. will be held next Thursday afternoon (Jan'y 10), at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Trench. The subject for prayer and study for the month is "The Missionary Societies of the Methodist Church; our duty towards them." A full attendance of the membership is requested, and a cordial invitation is extended to all women to attend this meeting.

Men's white shirts, linen front and wrist bands, sizes, 14½, 15, 15½ at 50c. each.

FORHAN—BAUSLAUGH.

Mr. J. W. Forhan, Principal of the Model School, Newmarket, formerly of this place, was on Thursday last married to Miss Bertha Bauslaugh of Brantford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. K. Adams. After the wedding breakfast the married couple left for a trip east.

Best figs, 4c.; golden dates, 7c.; mince meat, 10c.; jellies, all flavors, 10c. Atkinson & Switzer.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE.

A very nice programme was given at the Epworth League Friday evening. After the opening exercises "Promises of a Saviour" were read from the bible by several members of the League, "The story of The Shepherds" and "The story of the Wise Men," were told by Miss Trench; a solo was given by Mrs. C. Mason; and Rev. Mr. Large gave a talk on "What the Star means to us." The chair was occupied by Mr. T. F. McMahon.

HOCKEY MATCH.

The Richmond Hill Hockey Club will open the season in this place this evening when they meet the Staunton Club of Toronto. The visiting team is now leading the series in the commercial league and is a very strong aggregation but although our boys have not yet used the rink they have put in some good practices on the pond and promise to make it warm for the visitors. Do not fail to go to this game the inaugural one of the 20th century and help the team make a good start. Game called at 8.30. Admission 10 cents.

Try our 25 and 30c. Japan Tea, no better value to be had. Atkinson & Switzer.

BADLY MANAGED.

A number of our citizens and others from surrounding neighborhoods, who went to the city New Year's Day, were anxious to remain during the evening, but could not ascertain whether there would be a late car or not on the Metropolitan. Naturally they felt indignant when they learned the next day that a late car started from the city at ten o'clock. We wonder if those who pretend to manage the road ever feel ashamed of themselves for the way they treat their patrons?

Lots of bargains and bargains of lots in January at Atkinson & Switzer's.

S. O. S. OFFICERS.

Lord Elgin Camp, No. 106, S. O. S., has elected officers for 1901 as follows: Chief, R. McLeod. Chieftain, W. S. Rumble. Chaplain, Rev. J. A. Grant. Physician, Dr. L. Lawrason. Secretary, P. G. VILLAGE NOMINATIONS.

At the nomination on Monday for members of the Municipal Council for 1901, Mr. P. G. Savage was re-elected reeve by acclamation, and the following were nominated for councillors:

Wm. Innes
David Hill
T. H. Trench
Edward Barker
Amos Wright
Wm. Furey
John Empringham
Jacob Eyer.

As the last two resigned, the electors will be called upon next Monday to select four councillors out of the six in the contest.

Whatever we advertise can be found in generous quantities. Atkinson & Switzer.

THE DAILY STAR.

At $1.50 a year The Toronto Daily Star is the best newspaper value in this province. The Star contains Hunter's cartoons daily; it has three women writers of its own; it has its own special cables and special telegraph dispatches; its sporting department is as comprehensive and as thorough as that of any newspaper in Canada; its commercial page covers every important city and exchange in the world, and gives to its readers all the market reports fifteen hours in advance of their appearance in the morning papers. The Toronto Star ranks with our foremost papers, while, because of the brightness which characterizes it from the first page to the last, it is the most readable of them all. Such a paper is worth twice its subscription rate of $1.50 a year. Order at THE LIBERAL office.

We'd sooner lose our profit than have you go away dissatisfied. Atkinson & Switzer.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER.

The souvenir Christmas number of the Farmer's Advocate appropriately begins with a study in human progress, based on the history of the 19th and previous centuries, followed by contributions from many of the brightest minds on the continent, like Principal Grant and Hon. J. W. Longley, recounting the greatest achievements of the past one hundred years and indicating the course of future success. Jean Blewett contributes some beautiful lines on "The Master's Poor," and J. W. Bengough, the inimitable, turns the X rays on the wonderful 20th century farmer, that will put the whole country in good humor. Another feature out of the usual routine is Frank Lawson's splendid review of Canadians who have added lustre to 19th century literature. Old and new types in stock breeding are discussed in an illustrated article—in fact nearly everything is embellished with beautiful engravings. A review is given of the condition of China; "Canada's export trade in fruit," by Mr. L. Woolverton; and as many more excellent features that would be read with delight and profit in every farm home. The chief Home Department engraving is entitled "The end of the Skein," a rare and touching work of art. One cannot be surprised at the strong hold the Farmer's Advocate has upon the people everywhere. Apart from its incomparable strength in regular issues as an agricultural paper, the Christmas number goes to every subscriber without extra charge, while the readers of other periodicals are always charged forty or fifty cents extra for holiday issues. We congratulate the Farmer's Advocate on its success.

VAUGHAN NOMINATIONS.

The Township Hall at Vellore was crowded on Monday showing that the electors take a deep interest in Municipal matters. Messrs. A. Bryson and J. H. Kirby were nominated for reeve, but Mr. Bryson, who has filled the position for three years resigned in favor of Mr. Kirby. The nominations for councillors were: Isaac Devins, Wm. Watson, D. M. Malloy, D. C. Longhouse, J. S. McNair, J. N. Boyle Emerson Smith, Wm. Dalziel. All resigned with the exception of Messrs. Boyle, Malloy and Watson—the present councillors—and Isaac Devins and D. C. Longhouse. Good speeches were given by the candidates and by Co. Councillor Pugsley and Hon. N. C. Wallace, M. P. Election next Monday.

We can make mistakes but we hasten to unmake them. Atkinson and Switzer.
