UNIONVILLE.

The members of the Lutheran Joint Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Peter Harper on Thursday, March 21st. The meeting was very good considering the bad condition the roads were in. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. Frisby, April 18.

Spring Millinery Opening at Atkinson & Switzer's Wednesday & Thursday, April 3 and 4.

BOOK BINDING.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class.

FORESTERS' MEETING.

The members of Court Richmond, A. O. F., spent a pleasant time together last Friday evening. Bro. W. H. Helmer of Newmarket, as District Chief Ranger, paid the Court an Official Visit on that evening, and he was accompanied by Mr. Hollingshead, an enthusiastic Forester. During the evening two candidates were initiated by the amplified form. Both Mr. Helmer and Mr. Hollingshead expressed themselves as well pleased with the work, and with the evident good feeling among the members. Refreshments were afterwards served and a pleasant hour spent in toast and song.

Boots & Shoes—You will find us up-to-date in footwear. Boy's and Girl's school boots, Men's working boots, solid leather, $1.00 a pair. Rubbers for young and old, in large variety. We sell for cash. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

SIGN YOUR NAME.

Correspondence from Buttonville is held over this week as the writer failed to attach his signature. Every newspaper appreciates interesting items of news from surrounding neighborhoods, but suspicion is at once aroused if the signature is lacking. The name, of course, is not published except by request, but the publisher requires it as an evidence of good faith. And let us here say correspondents who sign another person's name are liable to get into serious trouble.

We sell for cash. Cash settles; credit unsettles. Cash is to-day; credit to-morrow. Cash is original; credit a poor imitation. Cash makes while credit breaks. Atkinson & Switzer.

HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN.

We respectfully remind the readers of THE LIBERAL of the approach of Easter and ask for the usual offering to the children in the above well-known and worthy institution. Donations of eggs, fruit, books, toys, &c., will be received at THE LIBERAL office where they will be packed and sent to the hospital. Please send not later than Good Friday morning as it is desirable to have the offering reach the hospital on Saturday thereby flashing a ray of Richmond Hill sunshine among the little inmates which will help brighten the "Happy Easter Time." "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my children ye have done it unto Me."

PRENTICE'S DELIVERY.

Notwithstanding the bad weather the delivery at Unionville of Mr. J. H. Prentice's Massey-Harris machines on Wednesday of last week was a great success. There were 50 teams in the procession with binders, mowers, horse-rakes, cultivators and other implements, and 100 took dinner at the Queen's Hotel. Mr. George Gormley headed the procession with his prize team of Clydesdales, neatly harnessed and decorated with ribbons, and this rig which contained many prominent citizens was closely followed by the Unionville Band. There was a fine display and had the weather been favorable the procession would have eclipsed anything previously seen in that section of country.

We're glad to sell them—You'll be glad to own them. Men's fine black cashmere hose, 25c.; Men's fine neckwear 25c.; a fine umbrella, $1.00. Atkinson & Switzer.

RAILWAY CONNECTION.

The Railway Committee Room at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, was crowded last Friday forenoon. The Legislative Committee was in session, and interested parties were present from the city and from all parts of the county. The discussion was on the bill now before the House asking for connection between the Metropolitan Railway and the Toronto Street Railway, and between the Metropolitan and the C. P. R. It seemed to be the unanimous opinion of all that both connections, with proper safeguards, were desirable, but a number of those who addressed the Committee did not feel free to trust the Railway Corporation. Reeve Savage and ex-Councillor Sanderson favored both connections, and gave reasons why they would be a convenience and a benefit to Richmond Hill. Mayor Daville of Aurora spoke along the same lines, as well as representatives from Newmarket, King and other municipalities. Among those who were opposed to the proposed bill were Mayor Davis of North Toronto, Mr. David James, Mr. J. H. Kirby, reeve of Vaughan, Mr. J. Dimma, reeve of Markham. Representatives from the City Council and Corporation Counsel Fullerton also opposed the bill. After hearing the pros and cons a sub-committee was appointed, which committee will report today, Thursday.

STOREY'S NEW STORE.

The Brockton Times, Mass., gives a lengthy and glowing description of a new store just opened in that city by Storey & Co. The store will be devoted exclusively to the sale of clocks, suits and girls and women's garments. The store is said to be one of the most attractive in the city, and on the opening day, 20th inst., the floral decorations added a colorful beauty to the interior which is finished entirely in white. We are pleased to learn by the article that the new store will be under the direct management of Mr. Charles R. Storey, brother of the senior member of the firm, and youngest son of Mrs. M. Storey of this village.

At our Millinery Opening on 2nd and 3rd of April we will surpass all former opening displays. Atkinson & Switzer.

CURIO EXHIBITION.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society, and the many kind friends who assisted by loaning and arranging the antique and curious articles, are pleased to know that their efforts last evening were most successful. There were many pretty things on exhibition as well as hundreds of interesting relics of by-gone days. It is regretted that only a few articles can be referred to in the space at our disposal. They were arranged along three sides of the School-Room in the Methodist Church, and occupied a lot of space. There were several oil paintings, and many familiar faces of deceased friends decorated the walls. Among the oil paintings were those of Mr. Wm. Harrison's grand-mother, and Mr. Abram Law, the first reeve of this village. Mrs. Graham loaned a tea canister, 100 years old, in the shape of Cleopatra's needle. Mr. C. Rolland loaned his piano, 150 yrs. old. There was a work-box, owned by Mrs. Sivers, 100 years old; cream pitcher, 100 years, Mr. W. Michael; drinking horns, 200 years old, loaned by Mrs. Nicholls; Mr. Skeele had a pair of spectacles 400 years old; a book by Mrs. Glass, printed in 1649; Mrs. T. Hopper had a musical novelty in the form of an organette; Mrs. Trench had many relics including a very old chair; a pot owned by Miss L. Wright, used through seven generations; another novelty was a Revolutionary horn blown by the late Col. Wright; Mr. Geo. Dibb loaned several ancient pictures; Misses Murphy had dishes 150 years old; Mr. Ed. Glover showed an axe, the fac-simile of George Washington's; Mrs. Grant had samples of marble from the ruins of Ephesus, silk woven in the time of Queen Elizabeth and sea-weed from the bottom of the Dead Sea; there was a sampler neatly worked by Mrs. Proctor's grandmother in 1821 when the latter was 10 years of age; in Mrs. A. Newton's collection was a brass candlestick given her by Mrs. Maxwell, which had been used by her great great grandmother, also a very pretty plate, 118 years old, on which was painted a scene in Palestine; Mr. J. Glass loaned a musket used in the rebellion of 1837. Mr. John Duncan loaned the first map of Richmond Hill showing the old Methodist church, the old Presbyterian church and several other buildings. During the evening a good programme of vocal and instrumental music was given. Rev. Mr. Wellwood made a good chairman. Those who contributed selections in the entertainment were the Misses Switzer, Mr. A. White, Mr. H. Sanderson, Miss L. Morton, Miss V. Storey, Miss L. Duncan and Mr. F. Redditt. The receipts amounted to about $27.
