VICTORIA DAY

AT RICHMOND HILL.

The Fair Injured by the Rain.

Two days before the 24th prospects were never brighter for a large attendance and a large number of exhibits for the Fair. It is true nearly every day brought showers of rain, but those most interested retained their hopefulness until the morning of the Fair. Then the most hopeful were doomed to disappointment as it was quite evident that little pleasure could be had in walking around through mud and wet grass. But notwithstanding the rain it was surprising to see the large number of entries in horses, cattle, poultry and other exhibits. The horses, especially the heavy classes, made a fine display, and the cattle were also a credit to the exhibitors. The speeding was called off early in the day, as it was impossible for horses to trot on the muddy track. Four teams, viz., Ellesmere, Don, Maple Leafs of Scarboro, and Locust Hill Clippers competed in the football contest, which terminated in a victory for the Locust Hill Clippers. During the afternoon the Newmarket Citizens Band, under the direction of Bandmaster McDonald, rendered a good programme of excellent music in the Agricultural Hall. We might specially mention the operatic selections from "Martha" and "Bohemian Girl"; the aria "Death of Nelson," solo by Mr. Scott; and Mozart's Gloria and Twelfth Mass, all of which were well performed. The merry-go-round was one of the attractions of the afternoon and considering the wet day was well patronized. An account of the concert in the evening will be found on another page. The prize list, about $400, will be paid in full, though the receipts were not nearly up to the expenditure. The following is the prize list:

Carrville.

The unfavorable weather had a very dampening effect on the spirits of the village people last week, and many were the disappointments among the young folks who always look eagerly forward to the 24th of May. But like good sensible people they decided "just to make the best of it," and succeeded fairly well.

Mrs. Thos. Cook, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Geo. Wood, went to Toronto on Friday and remained until Saturday with her son at his home in East Toronto.

Mr. Ernest Gibson and Miss Alice Moule of Toronto, spent the holiday with the family of Mr. Jas. Baker.

Miss Edith Deadman, who has been spending several months with relatives in Flesherton, is at present staying with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Bowen, where she will probably remain during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Coombs of Newmarket, were visiting at Moorwood Farm on Saturday with the former's sister, Mrs. Jas. Baker.

Mr. Philip Lillie came up from Toronto on Thursday and remained with his family until Monday at Hillcrest Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Snider and Miss Snider of Maple, spent Sunday with Mr. A. Prentice of High Hill House.

Mr. Frank Johnston of Fisherville, was the guest of Miss Maggie Wood on Friday last.

Mr. L. Diceman and Mr. W. Bowen of Toston, were visiting friends in the village on Sunday.

Mr. P. McCarthy and wife spent last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Brillinger of Toronto.

Mr. Watson, Miss Beatty and Miss Sherman of Toronto, have been holidaying at The Elms, the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Cook.

Mr. Will Baker spent Sunday with his friend Erastus.

On Tuesday morning as Master Stanley Tyndall was unloading milk from his wagon into the car at Carrville corner, his horse became unmanageable and attempted to run away. No milk was spilled, but the wagon was considerably broken, and after a few repairs by Mr. Ford, the newly-established blacksmith, Stan. was able to go on his way rejoicing.

Victoria Square

Dr. Spalding and Miss Jessie Brown of Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. S. M. Brown.

Miss Hattie and Bella Thirk of Toronto, are now spending a few holidays at home.

Miss J. McDonald and Miss I. Newton of Richmond Hill, spent Sunday with Miss Lever.

Master Charlie and Hettie Querrie of Parkdale, spent the 24th with Mr. and Mrs. W. Frisby.

We were all glad to see Mr. Lawson back in his own pew on Sunday.

Most of the girls around here are anxiously waiting for the picnic on the 15th of June.

Buggies and wagons can be painted at "reasonable prices" at L. Rowbotham's.

Mrs. Bernham of Uxbridge, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. Lunau.

The Ladies' Auxiliary had a quilting bee last Tuesday, and proved to be quite a success.
