NESTS IN CROMWELL'S GUN.

For the past twenty-five years at least, starlings have regularly built in the gun which Oliver Cromwell placed in the Curfew Tower of Windsor Castle when he was in residence there, and for many years a pair of jackdaws found a nesting-place in the old gun on the North Terrace. It was brought from China, and weighs 7 tons 3 cwt. 3 qrs. 7 lbs. The starlings sit on the end of Cromwell's gun, and it is interesting to watch them teaching the young birds how to fly. The residents say that the same pair of birds come back to the gun year after year.

HEARTY PRAISE FROM QUEBEC.

A RACINE MAN EXPRESSES HIMSELF STRONGLY FOR DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

His Letter is Typical of Hundreds Lately Received from Lower Province—Same Work Being Done All Over the Dominion—Dodd's Kidney Pills Stand Alone in the Conquest of Kidney Disease.

Racine, Que., July 8.—(Special).—It is a very strange thing, but lately all through this province, the people have been talking in a straight, downright way about the medicine, Dodd's Kidney Pills. Never before has a remedy made so many warm, outspoken friends for itself. Whatever part of Quebec one chances to be in, the mentioning of Dodd's Kidney Pills is always enough to bring forth the grateful story of an experience with this most remarkable remedy from one of the listeners.

These experiences include nearly all the fatal non-contagious diseases Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Bladder and Urinary Disorders, Female Trouble, Heart Trouble, Blood Diseases, Nervous Complaints are all emphatically declared to have been entirely cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. But more than any other complaint, Backache counts oftener.

Emile Couatre, of this town, says they cured him of Backache and other Kidney Troubles, and writes a letter for publication in this paper to that effect.

"I am going to say a word concerning Dodd's Kidney Pills," he writes. "I can not do otherwise than praise this wonderful medicine heartily, for I am now, owing to Dodd's Kidney Pills, in perfect health. For some time I have not felt the slightest pain in my back. My kidneys are working properly. When I go to bed I find rest, whereas before using Dodd's Kidney Pills I got up more fatigued than the night before. I had pain in my back and headache which broke my sleep. "I have taken only three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and cannot help but credit them with my cure. I have been free from my trouble since taking Dodd's Kidney Pills."

HOW TO PURSUE.

Exactly What to Do When Your Enemy Has Had Enough.

The rule in warfare when your enemy has had enough, and signifies the same in the usual manner by running away, is to give him some more.

The wise general gives his beaten enemy no rest, but continues to push and hammer him until a vanquished army retreating in good order becomes a broken and disorganized mob of men with rifles.

This part of the work is done by the mounted men, and the general who fritters away his cavalry during an action instead of keeping them fresh for the pursuit should be shot.

Arrangements for pursuing the enemy are begun the moment he gives tokens of having had enough. The chief of the staff details the troops to take each road by which the enemy can retreat—details of each having, of course, been ascertained beforehand through the Intelligence Department—and indicates to the generals in command of each column their line of route.

The general who can combine daring and dash with adroitness is the man to command a pursuing column. Caution and ability to manoeuvre are not so important in such work.

To hammer and annoy and harass the flying foe till he is

is the object of pursuit, and the cavalry leader who errs on the side of recklessness rather than that of caution is to be selected.

The enemy naturally uses his freshest troops to cover his retreat, and his cavalry and horse-artillery are prepared to give trouble. The pursuing general, whenever he comes up with the flying foe, hammers him with guns and charges him with cavalry. He hits him in the flanks if possible, so as to retard him while the infantry can come up and fall upon him. Reserves of infantry (if any) will at this juncture naturally be used, so as to spare the foot already tired with a long day's fighting.

Every consideration gives way to following up the enemy. Having won a battle, every great general makes the most of it, and gives the beaten enemy no time to breathe. The excuse that the men are tired, or that there are wounded to look after, condemns the general who uses it as incompetent to command.

The staff has a busy time in pursuits, for the pursuing army has to be fed, and the enemy naturally burns and destroys all behind him in his retreat. Moreover, every hour takes the pursuers farther away from their base. Thus the men who are responsible for the feeding of the army must be well up in their work, unless disaster is to occur.

BIRTH OF GENIUSES.

Mr. Havelock Ellis finds that most of our greatest geniuses have been born in April and fewest in January. The numbers born in the first, second, and fourth quarters of the year are fairly equal, but there is a marked deficiency in the third quarter. The ordinary birth-rate of England and Wales is higher in the first and second but lower in the third and fourth quarters. About 15 per cent. of the geniuses were delicate in childhood, but these often developed into healthy, vigorous, long-lived men. Bruce, the traveller, was a typical case. Very delicate in early life, he was a man of huge proportions, athletic power, and iron constitution. Over 14 per cent. had lost one or both parents by the age of ten.

A MARVELLOUS DISCOVERY.

Diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Nasal Passages now quickly cured. Thousands of grateful people in every part of Canada and United States testify to the marvellous power of this new discovery. A free trial now offered. Seldom in the history of medicine has so great a sensation been excited among medical men as has been provoked by the marvellous cures so speedily and pleasantly effected by Catarrhazone. Catarrh with the attendant danger of Consumption, Bronchitis, and Bronchitic Asthma, which imposes such fearful suffering upon their victims, Asthma, with its sleepless nights and hours of torture, yield as if by magic to the marvellous curative properties of Catarrhazone. The air you breathe carries it to every air-cell of the lungs, carries it to every inch of mucous surface inflamed and diseased within the throat, lungs, nasal passages and middle ears. Snuffs, washes, ointments are useless as well as disgusting. They never get beyond the door to enter into the innermost chambers of the body where these diseases are seated would simply mean inflammation, perhaps death. Catarrhazone goes wherever air goes and carries healing on its wings. Sufferers don't delay. Your druggist sells Catarrhazone. If he has not got it he can get it or we will send you the complete treatment prepaid for $1.00. If you would prefer to test it absolutely free we will send you a 25c outfit. Send us your address and enclose 10cts to pay for cost of boxing, postage, etc. The Polson Chemical Co., Kingston, Ontario and Hartford, Conn.

ARSENIC-EATERS.

Styria, a duchy having a population of about a million and a half, and lying south of Gratz, in the mountainous portion of the great German Confederation, is noted for its arsenic-eaters. Arsenic-eaters abound in every city, village and neighborhood, and in thousands of cases every adult in a family uses it almost the same as sugar, consuming about 5½ grains in the twenty-four hours.

HER HUSBAND WAS A DRUNKARD

A Lady Who Cures Her Husband of His Drinking Habits Writes of Her Struggle to Save Her Home.

A PATHETIC LETTER.

"I had for a long time been thinking of trying the Tasteless Samaria Prescription treatment on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he would discover that I was giving him medicine, and the thought unnerved me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his week's salary nearly all spent, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I sent for your Tasteless Samaria Prescription, and put it in his coffee as directed next morning and watched and prayed for the result. At noon I gave him more and also at supper. He never suspected a thing, and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly, as I had discovered something that set every nerve in my body tingling with hope and happiness, and I could see a bright future spread out before me—a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, comforts, and everything else dear to a woman's heart; for my husband had told me that whiskey was vile stuff and he was taking a dislike to it. It was only too true, for before I had given him the full course he had stopped drinking altogether, but I kept giving him the medicine till it was gone, and then sent for another lot, to have on hand if he should relapse, as he had done from promises before. He never has and I am writing you this letter to tell you how thankful I am. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

Sent Free to All—A sample package of Tasteless Samaria Prescription gladly sent free with full particulars in plain, sealed envelope. All letters considered sacredly confidential. Address, enclosing stamp for reply, The Samaria Remedy Co., 26 Jordan Street, Toronto, Canada.

Paisley, Ont., Dec. 11, 1900.—The Samaria Remedy Co., 30 Jordan Street, Toronto, Ont. Dear Sirs,—I penned a few lines to you some time ago,—as a member of the temperance cause, I wrote for information, at that time I had in my mind friends whose son was a great cause of anxiety and trouble on account of his drunken habits. I strongly urged the friends to try the remedy I saw advertised in the Toronto Globe. They did so. It was the Samaria Remedy that was administered and I am pleased to inform the company the medicine was helpful; the young man has not drunk a drop since, breaking off from old companions; and special prayers on his behalf, all aided in breaking the chains.

At the last meeting of the W. C. T. U. here, I introduced your medicine for the cure of the liquor habit, and a resolution was passed, "That inasmuch as it is the aim of this organization to help the poor inebriate we should recommend this remedy in homes where persons are addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors." Now, sirs, wishing you a successful career in your noble work, and feeling that assistance can be given in the precincts of home by the hand of mother or wife, trusting God may open up useful avenues for your labors. Yours very respectfully,

ENTERING A LION'S CAGE.

A sensation was caused in Windsor, England, and district by the announcement that to decide a bet of $25 a local blacksmith named W. Richardson had volunteered to enter the lion's cage at a travelling menagerie in the town. A large crowd visited the show, and amid great excitement Richardson entered the cage. The lion walked about but did not interfere with him, and after a few minutes Richardson came out unhurt.

A PIGEON'S GRIEF.

Henry Chapelle, pigeon breeder at Verviers, died, and a train of sorrowing friends and relations came to bear his body to the grave. But as the funeral procession was being formed one of the pigeons fluttered down to the coffin, on which it perched. So, as the pigeon would not be driven away, it was taken to the cemetery, and here it stayed by its dead master's tomb, neither moving nor eating till it died of starvation.

WOMAN SEA-CAPTAIN.

Marie Joanna Kersaho, whose death on the Island of Croix, in France, at the age of seventy-two, has been reported, had the distinction of being the only woman sea-captain in the world. She went to sea with her father when she was twelve years old, and after his death she captained three more vessels, and obtained several medals and money rewards for heroism on the water.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by E. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
