Teston

On July 10, under the auspices of St. Stephen's Church, Maple, there was held at Teston the most successful garden party that has ever been since the above church was erected about six years ago. The management of the party was under the direction of T. J. Wilson, Esq., of Teston. So much for introduction, now for the programme.

The chief part seemed to be to eat. Tea began to be served about 6 o'clock and the people worked hard at the good things, which our lady friends provided, until 10 o'clock, rather a compliment to our ladies I think. Meantime a football match between Maple and Teston teams was played, when the ball refusing to be so abused, burst and put an end to the game. The score stood Maple 1, Teston 0, and 10 minutes to play. The two teams arranged to play on Saturday, July 13, at Maple.

Shortly after 10 o'clock, Rev. Mr. McDonald, Incumbent, began the other part of the programme by thanking all those parties who had so kindly aided St. Stephens in the work of clearing off the debt. Rev. Mr. Dean of Maple, then spoke in his usual taking and pleasing manner, and remarked that he was pleased at the social and friendly relations which were now existing between the various churches. Rev. Mr. Back of Maple, was also present; he addressed the people in his own style and way which never fails to convince, and put them in the best of humor. He seconded Mr. Dean's sentiments with regard to present relations between the churches and also expressed a liking for "the wee fellow" of whom he hopes to make a man some day. The speeches of the rev. gentlemen met with the heartiest approval from the people present.

Miss Hazel McBride of King, favored us with a most pleasing song, which was well rendered and well received. Miss Keffer of Maple, presented us with another of her classical songs which are always well received. Mrs. V. Moore of Hope, and Miss Scriver of Edgely, rendered a duet in their usual cultivated and finished style, which met with due appreciation. Mr. Midford of Toronto; Mr. Wetheral of King; and Mr. Blough of Teston, gave us songs which just suited the crowd. The next item, which was not on the programme, was a shower of rain which made the curtain fall upon one of the most enjoyable of garden parties.

Thanking again the kind friends for their assistance, physically and mentally, I lay down my pen with a sigh of relief hoping I have done justice to one and all. One more important item in which you all will be interested—the total proceeds from our 15c. party was $80, and will present the church with $55.67.

Headford

The farmers here are progressing favorably with the haying, some having finished. It has turned out a fine crop.

We were pleased to welcome our new minister, Mr. More, on Sunday morning. He preached a very impressive sermon.

Miss M. Leach, teacher at Smith's Falls, is spending part of her vacation with her father here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wice of Thornhill, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. T. Hord of Thornhill, also spent Sunday in the town.

Mrs. Teasdale of Toronto Junction, spent a few days at The Cedars, the residence of Mr. W. Teasdale.

Mr. Geo. Leek spent a few days at Mount Albert.

Mr. Thos. Wilbur of Bowmanville, made a very pleasant visit with friends here.

Miss Maggie Henrick of Toronto, is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. V. Henrick.

Our genial blacksmith, Mr. G. Caldwell, is doing a rushing business.

Mr. Thos. Thomson has been improving his brick residence on Main St.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Comisky and Miss Laura, of the Model Farm, spent the last week at Buffalo and visited the Pan-American. They were the guests of Mr. Alex. Comisky.

Master Harold McCague is spending his holidays at the Model Farm.

Our teacher, Miss Foster, is spending the holidays at her home in Toronto.

Mr. John Clements, jr., has returned home, having spent the past three months in Michigan. He was accompanied home by his grandfather, who will reside at Garabrogue Farm.

Dame Rumor has it that we are going to lose our belle.

Maple

The football contest between Teston and Maple teams was not decided at the garden party at Teston last Wednesday evening. It was decided to finish the game last Saturday evening, when Teston secured one goal and Maple none. The game is to be played off next Saturday evening. There was a great deal of disputing and jangling at these matches, and it would be much better if they could be played in a more friendly spirit.

It is a common sight on our streets to see small boys puffing away at cigars. Surely the parents do not know, or they would warn their children against this injurious habit.

Anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday when Rev. Mr. Milne of Ottawa, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The friends of this church have purchased a fine new Estey organ, and it was used for the first time on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillie of Toronto, were visiting with Mrs. McDonald over Sunday. Mrs. Lillie sang two beautiful solos in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

The Orange lodge of this place took part in the celebration at Toronto Junction on the 12th.

After a couple of weeks' holidays, Miss B. Powers left on Wednesday to resume her duties in New York, where she has graduated as nurse in the Metropolitan Hospital. She was accompanied by her sister Miss Ella, and they will visit the Pan-American together.

Misses Annie, Agnes and Lizzie Stewart of Eglinton, are visiting friends in the village.
Miss Robinson and Mrs. G. J. Cook were visiting in Scarboro over Sunday.

A Pretty Wedding.

At 7 o'clock last evening in the Methodist Church the marriage was celebrated of Miss Edith Switzer, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. E. Switzer, to Mr. F. J. Johnston, M. A., teacher in the High School. The beautiful decorations of the church were an evidence of good taste. There were arches of evergreens and flowers over the two aisles in the church, and in front of the altar was a double arch under which the young couple stood when the ceremony was being performed. Rev. A. J. Johnston, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony, and was assisted by Rev. N. Wellwood, pastor of the church. The ushers were Messrs. P. Atkinson, W. Duncan, H. Sanderson and A. Savage. Mrs. Hume presided at the organ, and besides rendering the wedding music in a skillful manner, played softly during the entire service. Miss Switzer was led to the altar by her father, and the opinion of the guests and onlookers was that a lovelier bride it would be difficult to imagine. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Switzer as Maid of Honor, and by her two younger sisters, Misses Olive and Hazel Switzer, as bridesmaids. The groom was supported by Mr. A. Hamilton of Palmerston. The bride was becomingly gowned in crepe de chine over white taffeta trimmed with applique lace, with bridal veil held by orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her only ornament was a heart set with diamonds, the gift of the groom. The Maid of Honor was attired in organdie with oriental lace over blue silk, and the bridesmaids wore white organdie with valenciennes lace. All wore picture hats. The bride's going away dress was navy blue, white silk waist and hat to match.

Leaving the church which was crowded, the bridal party and invited guests repaired to Mr. Switzer's residence where the bride and groom received the hearty congratulations of many friends. Dainty refreshments were served by caterer French of Toronto, on the lawn which was also tastefully decorated for the occasion. An interesting toast list followed. Mr. T. F. McMahon, acting as chairman. The toasts and responses brought forth many able and witty speeches in which congratulations were freely passed around, with best wishes for the future happiness and prosperity of the bride and groom.

The following were the toasts:—"The Bride and Groom," proposed by Rev. N. Wellwood, responded to by Mr. Johnston; "The Bridesmaids," proposed by Rev. A. J. Johnston, responded to by Messrs. P. Atkinson and H. A. Nicholls; "The Families of Bride and Groom," proposed by Rev. A. J. Paul, responded to by Mr. Switzer and Mr. Clarke; "The Ladies," proposed by Mr. A. E. Coombs, Rev. J. H. More, Mr. Fredd Redditt and Mr. Will Trench.

About 11 o'clock the married couple were driven by cab to Toronto. They will go to Quebec by the St. Lawrence trip, and will return about the end of August.

The popularity of the young couple was evidenced by the very large number of beautiful and useful presents which they received.

The following is a list of invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, Mr. Harry Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sanderson, Miss Linfoot, Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan, Mr. Will Duncan, Mr. Garnet Duncan, Miss Laura Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H.

Long Hair

"About a year ago my hair was coming out very fast, so I bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stopped the falling and made my hair grow very rapidly, until now it is 45 inches in length."—Mrs. A. Boydston, Atchison, Kans.

There's another hunger than that of the stomach. Hair hunger, for instance. Hungry hair needs food, needs hair vigor—Ayer's. This is why we say that Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color, and makes the hair grow long and heavy. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.
