DEATH AND BURIAL.

The death of Mrs. Hewison, relict of the late Robert Hewison, which took place last Thursday morning, removes from our midst our oldest citizen. Deceased was born on the farm of her father, the late William Warren, in the year 1820, and was therefore in her 81st year at the time of her death. She resided on the farm until her marriage when she and her husband removed to the centre of the village, and she spent her whole life in Richmond Hill. Although she lived to a good old age she had been in delicate health for the past 30 years and during the last few years suffered many severe attacks of illness. For the past five years she had not been able to attend church which she loved so well, and where she had long been a consistent member. Of a family of nine children only three survive her, namely Mrs. N. Davis of Toronto and Mr. Warren Hewison and Mrs. A. J. Hume of this village. The family ties were drawn very close. She loved her children and they loved her, and the sad though sweet expression of her countenance was doubtless indicative that she keenly felt the afflictions so often laid upon her by the hand of death. The funeral took place to the village cemetery Saturday afternoon, when many friends including a large number from a distance, paid their last mark of esteem to one who was beloved by all. The funeral ceremony was conducted by Rev. Mr. Wellwood and Rev. Mr. More, the former delivering an appropriate address on the solemn occasion. Mr. Wellwood referred to her cheerfulness, her christian faith and resignation, and to the good example which she left for others to follow. Deep sympathy is felt for the surviving children and near relatives in this the last break in the family circle.
