Buffalo Bill's Rough Riders

Just outside the Exposition Grounds at Buffalo, opposite the East Amherst Street entrance, adjoining Delaware Avenue, accessible by all lines of travel, in the great open field, on Monday afternoon, Aug. 26, will be located Buffalo Bill's famous Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World.

The fact that this great American exhibition is not inside the inclosure in no way detracts from its importance in connection with the Pan-American Exposition; as one could no more harness or hamper Buffalo Bill's Rough Riders within the confines of limited space than he could hope to bridle Niagara and turn the tide of the Falls.

Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) is himself a typical American character, and his great exhibition has been the one distinct feature of world's fairs and expositions since 1885. At Earl's Court in London, at Paris, and at the great World's Fair in Chicago, in fact at every fair and exposition the Wild West has been considered an absolute necessity in the way of furnishing wholesome amusement, education and recreation on a gigantic scale. This year Messrs. Cody and Salisbury have devised a program particularly appropriate for the Pan-American season, and the entire exhibition will be given on a plan of magnificence never before even contemplated, and to fittingly mark so important an epoch new chapters have been added to this great living, historical and dramatic story of civilization and evolution of the world's mounted soldier.

One of the leading attractions is the Battle of Tien-Tsin, or The Rescue at Peking, showing the allied powers of the world in military uniform and action. In the reproduction of this conflict in the Flowery Kingdom, the scaling of the walls of that Mongolian stronghold will be participated in by the Marines of Russia, Germany, France, England and United States Japanese soldiers, as well as the Bengal native soldiers now in the British service. The defence, of course, is the Chinese citizens and soldiers. The bright colored and fantastic uniforms of the different forces engaged make this one of the grandest war spectacles ever witnessed.

A score of other new features have also been added to the Wild West, including a squad of Oom Paul's Boers, who will show their particular method of scouting, fighting and getting out of harm's way. A detachment of the famous Strathcona Horse, Canada's crack regiment, fresh from the South African battlefields, will also appear daily in the great exhibition, together with a squad of North West Mounted Police.

News Notes.

The two attempts to signal from Buffalo to Toronto by flashlight have been failures.

Military reviews will be held in Toronto, Quebec and Halifax on the occasion of the visit of the Duke of York and Cornwall.

We were never better prepared nor more favorably disposed to sell best quality of dry goods and groceries than we are now. Atkinson and Switzer.

A farmer named James Acey of York Mills, fell from a load of hay on Bloor Street Friday and received a slight fracture of the skull.

Here one finds new, dainty, airy and distinctively clever styles—an all-embracing array of the season's best and most wanted things. Atkinson and Switzer.

Mr. George H. Douglas, accountant at the Imperial Bank branch, corner of Queen and Yonge Streets, was drowned in a canoeing accident on Sunday near Mattawa.

Miss Sadie Stephenson of Aurora, had an attack of appendicitis, underwent an operation in a Toronto hospital, and died in a few days. Deceased who was said to be an estimable young lady was interred in the Aurora cemetery Friday.

Mr. T. H. Legge drove into Sproxtown's Lake, 3rd con. Whitchurch, to let his horse have a drink, when the animal stumbled into a deep place and was drowned. Mr. Legge jumped from the buggy and make his way safely to the shore.

On Saturday afternoon Charles Farncomb, aged 18, and John Farncomb aged 16, two sons of Rev. Canon Farncomb, and Easton Beacham, lost their lives while bathing in the lake at Newcastle. The Farncomb family formerly lived at Newmarket.

If consumers will make a fair comparison of our prices for such staple dry goods and groceries as are needed in every household with the prices charged in Toronto for as good quality they will see that they will save money by dealing here. Atkinson & Switzer.

A meeting was held in County Clerk Ramsden's office, Toronto, a few evening's ago to form an Association of North York Old Boys. Sheriff Widdifield was chairman, and Frank Roche secretary. It is proposed to hold a gathering of the old boys at Newmarket on the last day of the North York Fall Fair.

Atkinson & Switzer.

My Hair

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it brought all my hair back again."
W. D. Quinn, Marseilles, Ill.

One thing is certain,—
Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. This is because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair and the hair grows, that's all there is to it. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.
$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.
