THE CENSUS AND THE RACE CRY.

The Toronto News says:—"The Globe is trying to spread the belief that the Conservative party has made the charge that there was a conspiracy to inflate the census returns of the Province of Quebec. No such charge of course has been made, and The Globe's aim is simply to keep from dying out the race feeling which it did so much to provoke prior to the last elections."

The Mail says:—"By the Toronto Globe the Ontario Government is advised to allow the census unfairness to pass without protest, and to permit Ontario's representation in Parliament to be reduced if Mr. Tarte so orders." And again:—"Obviously the figures are unfair. Of course everybody knows what the result of such unfairness is. The decreases help to cut down Ontario's representation in the Ottawa House. They aid in the reduction of that strength in Federal affairs which Messrs. Tarte and Bourassa so much dislike." This is a sample. It would be easy to fill a page with articles in Conservative papers alleging the existence of a conspiracy, headed by Tarte, to inflate the returns from Quebec or unfairly to reduce the representation of Ontario. The Mail now feels that it has the opportunity to raise the race cry against Mr. Ross without having to consider Quebec.—Globe.

EAST YORK.

For some time past it has been generally understood that it was the wish of Mr. John Richardson, M.P.P. for East York, not to seek re-election at the close of the present term. Recently, however, strong pressure has been brought to bear on Mr. Richardson from prominent Liberals in the Riding, and the result is that he has again consented to allow his name to go before the convention to be held in the near future. We can well understand that the present Member would willingly retire at the end of this term, but he has no other wish or desire than to serve the best interests of his constituency, and if he receives the nomination he will doubtless again carry the Liberal banner to victory in East York.

The Toronto World of Tuesday publishes a despatch from Montreal indicating that Hon. N. Clarke Wallace is likely to blot out "the once powerful Conservative party in Quebec," and stating that Mr. Thos. Casgrain, Conservative M. P. for Montmorency, is thinking seriously of retiring from public life. Referring to Mr. Casgrain the article concludes as follows:—

"His friends say that Mr. Casgrain feels that, while Hon. N. Clarke Wallace maintains what the member for Montmorency claims so aggressive an attitude toward the French and Catholic people of Canada, the position of the French Conservative members is simply intolerable. It is now an open secret that, while Mr. Casgrain's personal relations with Mr. Wallace are most cordial, he claims that it is unfair for the grand sovereign to place the French Conservatives of Quebec Province in such an awkward position. He believes, so it is rumored, that if Mr. Wallace does not change his tactics, every French-Canadian Conservative will have to retire from public life."

Cash takes no vacation. It will buy this week at Atkinson & Switzer's:—Grape nuts for 14c.; shredded whole wheat, 14c.; Swiss food, 14c.; good coffee, ground fresh, 15c. lb.

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.
The Ladies' Home Journal for September is the "Special Autumn Fashion Number" of that excellent magazine. In addition to an unusual number of interesting stories and striking features, it devotes seven pages to a complete setting forth of the styles-to-be in dresses, bodices, hats and wraps. The most important literary feature, perhaps, is the initial installation of "Miss Alcott's Letters to Her 'Laurie'"—letters which have never before been printed. They are edited by "Laurie" himself—now grown up. There is a delightful description of a day in the woods with Ernest Seton-Thompson, and a jolly recital of "The College Scraps We Got Into," by "A Graduate." The fourth part of Miss Tompkins' "Aileen" brings that charming story near to its close, and Mr. Bok discusses the need for parental co-operation in education in his editorial on "The School Question Again." Three articles on "Cats That Draw Salaries," "Famous People as We Do Not Know Them," and "How a Village Changed its Name," combine to make an excellent page, and a double page is devoted to photographs of "The Handsomest Laces in America." "The New Wedding Stationery" is shown, also some of the photographs which won prizes in The Journal's recent rural contest. In addition to the regular departments there are valuable articles on "A Cleverly Planned Nursery," "Plants Which Can be Raised in the House," and plans for ideal $7000 house. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.
