

LOCALS.

Next Division Court will be held here on Friday the 4th of October.

Miss Barnard of Detroit, is spending a day or two with the Misses Teefy.

Markham Fair will be held on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week.

Miss Velma Brydon left for a two weeks' visit in Warton Monday morning.

Miss Barkey of Ringwood, made a visit with Mrs. Warren Hewison on Saturday.

Mr. N. McDonald, of Ryerson school, Toronto, was in the village Thursday afternoon.

Rev. F. C. Keam of Thornhill, preached in the Methodist Church Sunday evening.

Don't fail to hear of "Life in the Lumber Camps," on Tuesday evening in the Temperance Hall.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace had a sinking spell at Woodbridge yesterday, but was much better in the evening.

Mr. Arch. Campbell, ex-M. P., was present at the Caledonian games at Woodbridge yesterday, and made a short address.

A load of the villagers drove to Woodbridge yesterday to witness the Caledonian games under the auspices of the Sons of Scotland.

Mrs. A. Laird of Toronto, was a guest of Mrs. J. H. Brydon part of Monday and Tuesday, and called on a number of her old friends.

W. Trench & Son are advertising for a first-class horse shoer and general blacksmith. Mr. Geo. Cowie has decided to return to his own shop at Dollar.

Mr. John Casely of this village, has sold his 50 acre farm, which is part of lot 27, 3rd con. Markham. Mr. Cover is the buyer and the price paid is $3,500.

Mrs. Fred J. Johnston will hold her post-nuptial reception at her mother's residence on Monday, the 30th inst.; afternoon from 3 to 6, and evening from 7 to 10.

Mr. J. W. Elliot was judge of grain and seeds at the Newmarket fair last week. Mrs. Elliot was judge of domestic products, and Mr. W. H. Pagsley was a judge on cattle.

Mr. Arthur Coombs has decided to give up farming. The Arnold farm, on which Mr. Coombs has been tenant for the past few years, has been rented to Mr. H. Gibbs of Thornhill.

Mr. F. J. Johnston, B. A., who as assistant master has done excellent work in the High School for the past three or four years, has been appointed Science Master in the Orillia High School at an initial salary of $800.

We save not only our money, but your time and strength. Atkinson & Switzer.

A Metropolitan car collided with a steam con cutter, at York Mills, the property of Wm. McKenzie of Willowdale. The agricultural machine was completely wrecked, but the car received only slight damage.

Don't forget the entertainment to be held in the Masonic Hall this (Thursday) evening in aid of the Church of England. A delightful programme is promised. Doors open at 7.30. Admission 20 and 10 cents.

We are sending out our accounts this week for subscribers to THE LIBERAL, and hope that those in arrears will cheerfully respond. We shall expect an early call or a remittance from those who receive their accounts.

The Harvest Home Festival held in the Lutheran Church, Sherwood, on the 17th inst., was a complete success both financially and otherwise. The net proceeds from the supper and entertainment was $110.12, besides the offerings Sunday morning and evening.

The Annual Reports, including a financial statement of the Methodist Church, were distributed in the pews last Sunday. The auditors' report shows the expenditure for the year up to the first of May $1212.80, and expenditure $1202.29. Special collections and subscriptions for Twentieth Century Fund, Missionary Fund, etc., totalled $684.77.

Prices here are not high enough to be stylish, but they are mighty easy: Farinosa, 14c.; Jersey oats, 14c.; Swiss food, 14c.; shredded wheat, 14c. Atkinson & Switzer.

The Canadian Produce Co. of Toronto has received a definite contract from London, Eng., for 100,000 lbs. of Canadian chickens. This is the largest order for this kind of produce ever given to a Canadian firm. It only remains with the farmers of Ontario to raise enough chickens to supply the demand. The Canadian Produce Co. is prepared to buy every chicken that can be raised in the Province of Ontario.

A fair price is a low price when the quality is considered: Try our coffee, ground fresh for you, at 15c. lb.; and the best blend of Java and Mocha at 40c. lb. Atkinson & Switzer.

Thank-Offering Services will be held in the Methodist Church next Sunday. Sermons will be preached morning and evening by Rev. A. Brown of St. Paul's Church, an ex-president of Toronto Conference. Collections and Special Offering will be taken in aid of the Trust Fund.

If you can tell us how to serve you better we shall obey the hint. Atkinson & Switzer.

FLOW POINTS.

Immediately after the auction sale of cattle at the Palmer House next Wednesday, about 3.30 p. m., there will be sold about 500 plow points, 100 gang plow points, 50 sole plates and 10 steel hog troughs, manufactured by W. Mager. Terms cash. Saigeon & McEwen, auctioneers.

BUS FOR BARRIE.

A very pretty light open bus was shipped from Trench's Carriage Works Monday morning. The new vehicle was for Mr. W. R. Proctor of Barrie. It was neatly painted, the body being a dark green and the gear a nice shade of carmine. Judging by the old bus which the new one replaced, we could imagine that the former livery men of Barrie were scarcely up-to-date.

KING PLOWING MATCH.

A meeting of the officers and directors of King Plowmen's Association was held at Nobleton last Friday. Judges were appointed and other arrangements were made for the match which will likely be held in the vicinity of Schonberg. The date of the match was changed from the 7th to the 1st of November. The directors will make every effort to have the coming match the most successful ever held in the township.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

The High School Literary and Debating Society has organized for the present year with the following officers:

Hon. Pres., Sir Wilfrid Laurier; Hon. Vice-Pres., Hon. Mr. Borden; President, Mr. Harry Klinck; Vice-Pres., Miss Ida Copeland; Secretary, Mr. Douglas Derry; Treasurer, Mr. Everton Lloyd; Committee, Mr. A. Carroll, Miss Georgia Boyle, Miss A. Stevenson, Mr. Alfred Read, Mr. E. Breakey.

MRS. FAWCETT'S DEATH.

Mrs. Fawcett, wife of Mr. A. R. Fawcett, manager of the Leader and Recorder, Toronto Junction, died at "Hawthorne Villa," the home of her father, in Toronto township on Tuesday, 17th inst. Deceased who was lovely in character and amiable in disposition, a general favorite and deeply beloved by all who knew her, leaves a husband and three children to mourn the loss of one taken away in the prime of her womanhood. By those who knew her she is spoken of as more than a devoted wife and mother. Sympathy profound is felt for the bereaved by a large circle of acquaintances, and in this THE LIBERAL joins.

PARLOR MEETING.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a Parlor Meeting in the Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 1. The ladies of the Union have been fortunate in securing Mr. Leckie, Missionary to the Lumber Camps, as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Leckie has been engaged in this work for several years. He is an earnest, attractive speaker, and his description of "Life in the Camps" will be both pleasing and instructive. That our village is interested in this work has been shown in the past by the carefully prepared Comfort Bags, and generous donations of money and literature given in its aid. We trust that no one who can possibly attend will miss this treat. Refreshments served at the close. Silver collection at the door.

For best values in granulated and yellow sugars, Paris lump, powdered and icing sugars, and pure spices go to Atkinson & Switzer's. On Saturday and Monday, the two last business days of this month, we will sell 22 lbs. extra granulated sugar for $1; best XXX white wine vinegar for 25c. gal.; best green Rio coffee for 10c. lb. Atkinson & Switzer.

CALEDONIAN GAMES.

Maclean Camp, No. 98, Sons of Scotland, are to be congratulated on their first annual Caledonian games held yesterday at Woodbridge. Probably 700 people assembled in the Exhibition Grounds in the afternoon, and nearly as many at the concert in the Agricultural Hall in the evening. Mr. A. C. Gordon, Grand Organizer, acted as chairman in the afternoon, and ably managed a most interesting programme of athletic sports, consisting of a bayonet contest between Pte. Geo. Stewart and Sergeant Williams, putting the shot, vaulting with pole, throwing the hammer, foot racing, jumping, dancing, Scotch reel, sword dance, Highland fling, etc. The 48th Highlanders' Band was present, who with a number of Highland pipers, furnished first-class music. The concert in the evening by the Highlanders' Band was a musical treat to be heard only on rare occasions. Grand Chief Fraser presided with ability.

Sugar—On Friday and Saturday of this week we will give 22 lbs. extra granulated sugar for $1; best American coal oil in 5 gal. lots, 17c.; best Canadian oil, 15c. Come and see us for grain bags. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.

Both the Board of Education and Mr. W. A. Glass are to be congratulated on the appointment of Assistant master of the High School. Mr. Glass is a young man with an excellent record. He was raised here and received his early education at the Public and High School. He afterwards graduated in Arts at the University of Toronto. During his Undergraduate Course he took Honors in Classics in the first and second years. In the General Course which he took for the four years he secured first place in General Proficiency, Honors of the second and third years, and stood second in the Fourth or final year. Mr. Glass is also a Graduate of the Ontario Normal College, Hamilton. Mr. Glass is made of the right material for a good teacher, and we think the Board made no mistake in giving the appointment to an able, energetic and worthy citizen.

WORLD WIDE.

World Wide is a weekly reprint of articles from leading journals and reviews reflecting the current thought of both hemispheres. This remarkable and most readable journal, published by Messrs. John Dougall & Son, of the Witness, has pushed its way, in a few months, beyond all expectation, chiefly owing to the goodwill of its rapidly-growing constituency. World Wide has found its place on the study table. Preachers, teachers, writers, and thinkers generally, have hailed it as a new and most welcome companion. As a pleasant tonic—a stimulant to the mind, World Wide has no peer—at the price, no equal among the journals of the day. Regular readers of World Wide are kept in touch with the world's thinking. Fifteen cents will bring this most interesting and valuable paper to the end of the year. Address all communications direct to the publishers, John Dougall & Son, Witness Building, Montreal.
