A couple of our citizens were attired in Armenian costume, and another couple in Turkish costume, when the marriage ceremony of the respective countries were performed to the apparent amusement both of the "contracting" parties and the audience.

CANADIAN BOY MAGAZINE.

The Canadian Boy Magazine for September is on our table, clothed in an attractive new cover design, in two colors, by D. B. Milne, a young Canadian of Paisley, Ont. This bright and interesting handful of boys' literature is improving with every issue and should be thoroughly welcomed by every home in our broad Dominion that has a boy old enough to read. Its morals are sound, the text bright and entertaining, the illustrations are well drawn and printed and add greatly to the value of the Magazine. The leading contents of this issue are an Indian Story of the Western plains by W. B. Findlay, a thrilling story that will make any boy's blood run hot, and a ghost story by Hope Leslie that is very lively for a frolic at the dead of night. A number of other splendid contributions appear, also hints to boys on pets, the camera, football, puzzles, humorous sketches, etc. Next month new departments will be added on questions and answers, and aids to boys in engineering, and along all practical lines that boys love so well. Boys everywhere are invited to write the publishers about anything that they wish to know. The publishers are The Turnbull-Wright Co., Guelph, Ont. Agents wanted everywhere.
