MR. CAMPBELL'S CALENDAR. Mr. Arch. Campbell, proprietor of the Queen City mills, Toronto Junction, is sending out this week his annual calendar, pointing out the various brands of flour made at his mills. The design is excellent. Near the top are good photographs of our King and Queen; at each side are the Prince and Princess of Wales; and beneath are Sir Wilfred Laurier and Hon. R. L. Borden. Union Jacks and maple leaves are in evidence, and the calendar has a heavy gilt border. THE LIBERAL acknowledges, with thanks, a copy, and can say we have not seen a prettier calendar this season.

CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE.

This excellent school provides the best possible means for imparting a practical education along business lines to its numerous students. It has a staff of twelve experienced teachers, superior equipment including no less than eighty typewriting machines, and is most successful in aiding its pupils and graduates to secure suitable positions. For the week ending Dec. 6th it sent two students to Commercial positions in Windsor, Ont., one to North Bay, and located five in business houses in Toronto, a result of the enviable reputation it enjoys for giving a thorough training and for recommending none but well qualified candidates to business houses. The Winter Term in this school opens on Jan. 6th as stated in Adv. in this issue.

Maple

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of Miss Nellie Franks, who passed away at the home of her brother, Mr. J. W. Franks, Woodbridge, last Friday evening. Although she had been in poor health for some time, she had not given up her position in Goderich, but continued teaching until the present holidays. After coming to Toronto, she had hemorrhage of the stomach, but was able to go to Woodbridge on Christmas Eve. The day after Christmas she became worse, and died on Friday. The funeral took place here on Sunday afternoon, the remains being placed beside those of her father, who was laid to rest just six months previous. Rev. S. W. Dean had charge of a short service in the church. Messages of sympathy were read from the staff of public school teachers, and from the Epworth League and choir of the North St. Methodist church, Goderich. Sincere sympathy is felt by all for the sorrowing friends in their sad bereavement.

Rev. J. W. Stewart, of Berlin, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

Miss Hazel Kirby, of Toronto, and Miss Beatrice Witty of Vellore, have been visiting at the home of Mr. J. H. Kirby.

Miss Bessie Cleland, of Newmarket, was visiting over Sunday with her friend, Miss Etta Richardson.

The Court of Royal Templars held a successful concert in the Masonic Hall on Christmas evening.

Miss Emma Byam of Duntroon, and Miss Ella Powens of Lakefield, are spending the vacation at their homes.

Mr. Gormley Withdraws

To the Electors of Markham Township: Ladies and Gentlemen,—I desire to announce that I am not a candidate for municipal honors for 1902, and ask my friends and electors generally to refrain from voting for me, though my name is on the ballot.

Thanking my friends very kindly for their good wishes,

A. G. GORMLEY. Unionville, Jan'y 1, 1902.

Meaning of Bargains Here.

The signature of this firm underwrites many facts, none of which is greater than that of bargains. "Bargains" is an over-worked word in most newspaper advertising. We only consider an article a bargain when it is an advantageous transaction to the purchaser as: Cheaper than ordinary—good as redressed—and the guarantee of the firm back of it. That's part of good merchandizing. Others are to think and plan for your comfort. We quote:

Best Cooking Figs, 4c. lb.; best Golden Dates, 5c. lb.; best Cleaned Currants, 3 lbs. for 25c.; 2 pairs Men's Heavy Wool Socks for 25c.; Heavy Mantle Cloths, regular $1.50 and $2.00 per yard, for 90c. yard; fine Decorated Lamps, $1.45 each.
