Parties outside the village who wish to make use of the Public Library and Reading Room are requested to renew their membership for 1932. Tickets, 50 cents, may be had of the secretary at THE LIBERAL office.

The Pease Furnace Company will this week replace the large Ideal Heater in the public school by a smaller one. If the new one proves satisfactory the trustees propose putting similar heaters in each of the other two rooms.

You will do well indeed to be here to-morrow. Atkinson & Switzer.

Polling next Wednesday for the West York bye-election will take place in Keele's shop. Mr. W. T. Storey will be Deputy Returning Officer, and Mr. R. E. Law poll clerk. The poll will be open from 9 to 5.

Reeve Savage received a large number of callers on New Year's Day and evening. It is needless to say all received a warm welcome, and thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Savage's well known hospitality.

Price range elastic enough to suit all purses in this store. Atkinson & Switzer.

Complaint is being made by those who have to do on Richmond and other streets relative to people dumping their cold ashes on the track. This should be avoided until the snow disappears in the spring.

Dr. Blakely of Winnipeg, Man., after visiting his old home near Picton, made a short stay with friends here. The Dr.'s hearty appearance speaks well for the severe climate of the Prairie City of the West.

Big reduction in the prices of flannellette wrappers and blouses. Atkinson & Switzer.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. J. H. Sanderson's next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The subject of "Temperance in Sunday Schools" will be taken up, and discussed. Members are requested to be present at this meeting and to bring their Bibles.

Rev. N. Wellwood, the esteemed supt. of the Methodist Church of this place is making satisfactory progress after his severe accident, and his many friends will be pleased to learn he will soon be able to resume his labors on the circuit.

In the January number of the Review of Reviews, Mr. Thomas C. Martin tells the interesting story of the latest developments in high-speed electric locomotion, describing the famous tests at Zossen and the results of these experiments as already embodied in traction improvements planned and under way in this country.

Big drive in Ashton's prints, regular 12c. prints for 7c. Atkinson and Switzer.

LOST

A Tie Weight with strap attached was lost in the village by Mr. J. Horner, while delivering milk. The finder will oblige by leaving it with the owner.

A POINTER.

If you want increased returns of eggs, use Herbageum. It keeps the fowl in a healthy condition. Those who have tested it thoroughly on poultry have got remarkably good results. Sold by J. Hall.

HEADFORD

Mr. Frank Craig of this place was on Christmas Day married to Miss Lizzie Cameron of Angus. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Scott, Methodist clergyman of that town. The young couple will reside in Mr. Craig's home at Headford. The bride was a favorite in her former town, and she will receive a warm welcome in this place.

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL

Nothing seems lacking in the New Year number of The Ladies Home Journal to make it the most complete issue of that periodical yet published. It is a regular store-house of interesting facts and good fiction, it is singularly attractive in every way, and in every point of illustration is one of the most beautiful issues ever given the public.

HOCKEY CLUB.

The membership tickets of the Richmond Hill Hockey Club for the season have been issued and can be secured from the Sec'y-Treas., C. Ellston; Players' tickets, $1; members' tickets, 75 cents; admitting to matches.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY.

An Epworth League Rally composed of members of Richmond Hill, Maple, Thornhill, Headford, Victoria Square, and several Toronto Leagues, will be held in the Methodist Church on Friday evening Jan. 10, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Large of Balla Balla, B. C., will be one of the speakers, while good music will be provided by the choir of the church. Friends of the League, and other members of other congregations in the village are invited to attend. A collection will be taken up to defray expenses. Good singing and courteous ushers.

THE PICTURES LOOK WELL.

The teachers of the Public School have been expending the net receipts of their recent entertainment, and the pictures which now adorn the walls in the three rooms show that the money has been judiciously handled. In each room are good pictures of King Edward VII. and his illustrious mother, the late Victoria the Good. Most of the pictures indicate a patriotic spirit, among them being "The Battle of Queenston Heights," "Canadian Militia," "48th Battalion Highlanders," "Champlain, the Explorer," "Lord Kitchener," etc., etc. Other pictures are "Raphael's Sistine Madonna," "Coasting," "The Bugler," and a number of Bible scenes. Union Jacks are crossed above several of the pictures, and everything has been arranged with good taste.

VICE PRESIDENT WINS.

The President vs. Vice-President match was played off Friday and Saturday, resulting in a victory for Vice-President A. Moadie's rink over President J. F. Rolland's. The following is a summary.

CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

Professor Goldwin Smith discusses "The Public School Question" in the January Canadian Magazine, characterizing our present system as mechanical and inflexible. He thinks voluntary schools might be grafted on our present system with some advantage. The Hon. L. G. Power, Speaker of the Senate, discusses the Military System, and advocates the enrollment of all citizens in the volunteer force, with a shorter, unpaid drill season. He bases his suggestions on the experience of Nova Scotia before Confederation. Arthur H. U. Colquhoun discusses the Reciprocity situation, and intimates that Canada has nothing to expect from the United States. Arnold Haultain gives a beautiful word picture of the Sea. Welford W. Beaton describes a new Canadian Glacier, his article being well illustrated. W. G. Ross gives a History of Street Railways in Canada, and Jean Blewett contributes a story. The number is exceedingly valuable.

What Sets The Pace!

With us it is not competition that sets the pace in values—it is past splendid records that must be lived up to and even surpassed.

Day after day we are spurred onward, former successes being the incentive to greater effort. Therefore, there is not a day in the week that does not present opportunities more brilliant, values more convincing than those of the preceding days, no matter how wonderful those others may have been.
