A NEW TERM.

April 1st marks the date of the opening of the Spring Term in the Central Business College of Toronto, a school which is doing good work, and which seems to enjoy a liberal patronage as stated in its adv. in this issue.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We have used one of the Turko Vapor Bath Cabinets for two years and have gotten the best of results from it. We would not be without it for several times the price paid for it. Its a grand thing in any case of sickness.

MR. & MRS. BARTLEY,

Richmond Hill.

NEW STOCK.

It will pay those who require boots or shoes to call and see Mrs. Sivers' stock before purchasing elsewhere. She is getting in a full stock of Lady's and Gent's boots and shoes suitable for Easter and Spring wear. Latest style, best quality, and prices right. No trouble to show goods whether purchase is made or not.

MR. PUGSLEY WINS THE MEDAL.

The last match in the Smith medal contest was played yesterday when much interest was manifested. The match was between Mr. Pugsley's rink and Mr. Storey's. The play was very even throughout, but Mr. Pugsley won in the end by one shot. The players on the successful rink are R. A. Farquahson, P. G. Savage, J. P. Glass and W. H. Pugsley (skip.)

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

The undersigned having taken into partnership Mr. E. Mason in the Tin and Hardware business, solicits a share of patronage for the new firm. I will generally be found in the shop or store and will attend promptly to all kinds of repairing and to sales, while outside work will be attended to by my partner in the best manner possible. Hoping that all outstanding accounts will be promptly paid, and thanking the public for their patronage during the past 25 years.

Yours truly C. MASON.

The Concrete House is the place where good things are cheap, and cheap things are good. Atkinson and Switzer.

DIED AT CARRVILLE.

Mr. Michael Brillinger, formerly of this village, died at Carrville on Saturday morning last. He had been in failing health for some time past, having fallen a victim to that dread disease, consumption. He had been living in Toronto, but thinking that the country would be more conducive to health, he rented a farm at Carrville intending to start farming next spring. But the end speedily came. The funeral took place to the Carrville cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Service, conducted by Rev. S. W. Dean, was held in the church. A deputation of Ancient Foresters was present from Court Star, Toronto, where he was a member. Deceased leaves a wife, who is a daughter of the late George Leaf, and two children, who have the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Remschel has just sold 19 cabinets in Aurora which shows his Baths must be proving a success.

EASTER OFFERING.

"Freely ye have received, freely give." We come again to the readers of THE LIBERAL and other friends in behalf of the sick children in the Victoria Hospital. The annual offering from our village and vicinity has been most generously supported for many years. We feel, therefore, that it is not necessary to offer any explanation in reference to the work of this praiseworthy institution, nor of the lasting benefit conferred on the children of our village who are thus taught to think of and help others less fortunate. Donations of fruit, eggs, toys, books, etc., may be left as heretofore at THE LIBERAL Office. Please send not later than Good Friday afternoon, as it is very desirable to have the children receive the gifts in time for Easter Day.

Large DeLancey bar soap, 20c.; lig 12c. bar for 10c.; 8 bars good Laundry soap for 25c.; best rolled wheat, 9 lbs. for 25c. Atkinson & Switzer.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

An interesting programme was given under the Literary Department of the Epworth League Friday evening, the entertainment being of an Irish character. After singing the hymn, "Come ye Disconsolate," composed by Thomas Moore, the Irish poet, Rev. N. Wellwood offered prayer. The scripture lesson was part of the Sermon on the Mount. Mr. A. J. Hume sang "Jenny the Flower of Kildare," and was followed by a humorous Irish reading by Mr. W. A. Wright. Mrs. J. W. Elliott read an essay on "Ireland and the Irish." This contained much information relative to the early history of the country and its people. The names of many well-known Irishmen were recited with enthusiasm, and Mrs. Elliott was warmly congratulated on the excellency of her paper. Miss Ethel Switzer sang "Last Words," and Mr. Will Trench read "Evin's Flag," a selection from the works of Father Ryan. After singing another hymn by the congregation, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Wilkinson of Carrville. The chair was occupied by Mr. T. F. McMahon.

Millinery opening Wednesday and Thursday, 26th and 27th inst., at the Concrete House. A splendid showing of the latest in stylish millinery will be made. Atkinson & Switzer.

MASONIC GATHERING.

The members of Richmond Lodge and a large number of visiting brethren had a pleasant time together Monday night. R. W. Bro. John Watson, D. D. G. M. for this District paid an Official Visit to the Lodge, and brethren were present from Thornhill and other places, and over 40 from Stevenson Lodge, Toronto, who came by special car. In the Lodge room the work of the Second Degree was exemplified to the satisfaction of the distinguished official. Leaving the Lodge room, all repaired to the Dominion House where about 75 sat down to a fowl supper. This was followed by an interesting programme of toasts, responses and songs. W. Bro. G. B. Newbery presided in an able manner, and proposed most of the toasts. After "The King and the Craft" had been duly honored, R. W. Bro. Watson and others responded on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Canada. The speakers referred in fitting terms to the late Grand Master, and their remarks were well received. The toast "Visiting Brethren" also brought forth good speeches, and a number of excellent songs and recitations were given during the evening. W. Bro. Newbery and other members in replying for "Richmond Lodge" expressed their pleasure in having so many present, and thanked the D. D. G. M. for his encouraging remarks. The special car left at 11.45.

WEDDING BELLS.

The following notice clipped from the Swan River Star, relates to the marriage of the eldest daughter of Mr. Walter Hislop who left here about a year ago—"A very pretty but quiet wedding took place on Saturday last at the home of Mr. Walter Hislop, near Durban, the contracting parties being his daughter Annie and Mr. Lee Roy Ostrum. At the appointed hour the bride appeared leaning upon her father's arm and was presented to the groom, and the short but delightful ceremony which made two happy hearts "one" was conducted by Rev. J. B. Taylor of Swan River. Mr. John and Miss Viola Hislop, brother and sister of the bride, respectively filled the offices of groomsmen and bridesmaid. After a sumptuous wedding repast, an hour or so was spent in social chat and with the singing of a verse of "Blest be the tie that binds," Mr. Taylor led in prayer and the assembled friends in saying their "good-byes" extended their heartiest wishes to the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Ostrum will reside on 32, 33, 28. The Star joins in, in good Wishes."

Now is the chance to try the Bath cabinet free of charge. See Mr. Remschel at Palmer House.
