Dear Madam.—It was with regret that the members of our Court heard of the death of your beloved husband and our respected brother. We sympathize with you in your loss, and though we cannot know that pain and sorrow which is caused by such an affliction, we would be remiss in our obligations as men and brethren if it did not bring to us the thought that your burden would be one of great distress. We can only express our feelings towards you in this humble way of writing, and we would ask that the kind and loving Father of us all will ever watch over you and your family, and that as sad may be the parting from your loving helper in life, may we ever look forward to that place of happiness where all hearts are made joyful by the meeting with those loved ones who have gone before.

With kind and sincere wishes to yourself and children, we are yours respectfully on behalf of the Court.

Carrville

Mrs. M. Brillinger of this place, wishes through THE LIBERAL to convey her thanks to the friends and neighbors who showed her so much kindness during the illness and after the death of her late husband. Also to Court Star of the West, of which Court her husband was an esteemed member. The members of the above Court did everything in their power to comfort the widow and children in their bereavement, and a few days ago Mrs. Brillinger received the following expression of condolence:

Court Star of the West, No. 6396.
Toronto, March 24, 1902.

To Mrs. M. Brillinger, Carrville:
Dear Madam.—It was with regret
that the members of our Court heard

loved ones who have gone before.

Mount Pleasant

The flow of maple sap has been so great that farmers are kept hustling to make it into maple syrup. Those who have to purchase will be glad to hear this news.

The session of the Local Legislature of Ontario has closed; also we would feign hope that the expressions used by some in high positions would never appear in print again. When there are charges of wrong-doing to be made, submit them in writing and follow them up with proof. Men in high positions using language that might have been tolerated in the dark ages, are not fit examples for educating the rising generation to a high moral standard in the 20th century.

The noble old township of Cavan is proud of one of her sons in the person of Hon. L. R. Stratton. There is nothing to prevent him filling the highest position in this great Dominion of Canada. Who has spent as much time amongst his constituents as he has, or who can equal him in figures and facts? To aim high is what every young person who has any ambition should do. No fault should be found with him aspiring to be Premier of Ontario when the proper time comes.

News has been received at the home of James McLean, Esq., of the safe arrival at North Dakota, on the 14th ult., of a representative of the fifth generation.

White working in his orchard on the 23rd ult., James McLean, Esq., met with what might have been a serious accident. The ladder on which he was working was almost perpendicular, which over-balanced with him, causing him to fall to the frozen ground on his back, the ladder falling on top of him, rendering him almost unconscious. When found he was assisted into his home. Dr. Keith was prompt in attendance, and like the good old Samaritan poured into him something stronger than oil or wine.
He will be confined to his bed for some time.

HIGH SCHOOL REPORTS.

On Thursday, 27th March, reports were handed to each student present, to show his standing in all subjects up to that date. Parents will greatly aid the principal by signing these reports and returning them promptly. Each pupil should have 50% in each subject or be able to give some reason satisfactory to the teacher for the lower mark. The next three months will be all important; a review of the preceding seven months' studies will be in progress. A fair amount of study would be three, two, and one and one half hours for forms III, II and I respectively. Every pupil has home-work that it is impossible to compete at school. So if excuses are made to the contrary, it is to be hoped that parents will at once communicate with the principal in person or by letter. Teachers cannot perform their duties properly without the hearty co-operation of all the parents. When the latter give this help promptly and before it is too late good results are sure to follow. Reports will be issued at the end of April and also about the 18th of May for the guidance of parents and guardians. Please note: The totals indicate the relative position of each in his class. The percentages show pupil's average per subject examined. Percentages do not correspond with totals, as some pupils absent themselves from exams, or do not study all the subjects. Generally speaking, the best pupils take all the studies and therefore they rank first in these lists. In form II, percentages relate to the five junior Leaving examination subjects. M. stands for Matriculation, C. for Commercial.
