TO THE PUBLIC.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for a number of years and am now trying one of The Turbo-Vapor Bath Cabinets mfgd. in Oullia, and must say it is greatly benefitting me, and I feel it will effect a cure. (Signed) Mrs. JOHN CASELEY, Richmond Hill

CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL.

A farmer of Markham township, named Warren Wilson, was arraigned before Magistrates Ramsden and Woodcock on Tuesday on a charge of having attempted to extort money by threats against Dr. R. L. Langstaff. It is alleged that Warren wrote letters to the Dr. asking $5,000 for silence. Warren was remanded until to-day.

NORTH YORK.

A political meeting for the nomination of a Liberal candidate for the Ontario Legislature for the riding of North York, will be held in Newmarket on Friday of this week. After the nomination addresses will be given by Hon. G. W. Ross, Hon. Wm. Mulock and Hon. E. J. Davis. The speeches will be in the Town Hall which will be open to all.

COLLAR-BONE BROKEN.

John Hearn, a lad at Elgin Mills, got his collar-bone fractured one day last week. On his way to school he and a companion got into a wagon. A car coming along frightened the team of horses. The two boys fell out, both striking the ground heavily, with Hearn underneath. On examination it was found that the collar-bone was fractured. John will be confined to the house for some time to come.

PERSONATION.

Last Thursday's Globe contained an item in which it was stated that a boy who gave his name as Fred Harrison, Richmond Hill, 15 years of age, called at a house in East Toronto, and was shown by the lady of the house thirty-two half-sovereigns. Shortly after the boy left it was discovered that the sovereigns were missing also. As there is only one Fred Harrison in Richmond Hill the above is a clear case of personation. But doubtless the lad who committed the theft was acquainted with our citizens.

Everything in the hardware line at reasonable price at C. & E. Mason's.

FASTER OFFERINGS.

Considering the many calls on the friends in this village and vicinity, the annual Easter Offering for the sick children in the Victoria Hospital was generous. There were brought to THE LIBERAL Office on Good Friday, and after careful packing sent down to that praiseworthy institution, the following: 37 sealers of fruit and jelly, 7 dozen eggs, 2 dozen oranges, some apples, besides a large number of books, papers and toys. The committee are again thankful to the friends for their generous contributions.

We save in buying and can afford to be liberal in selling. Atkinson & Switzer.

EASTER SERVICES.

The services in the Methodist Church Easter Sunday were specially appropriate for the occasion. In the morning Rev. Mr. More preached from the subject, "The Easter Hope," and Rev. Mr. Wellwood took for his subject in the evening "The Christian Hope." Every seat in the choir was filled, and it is doubtful if their anthems, solos, choruses, and duets were ever more thoroughly enjoyed than on Sunday evening. The platform and pulpit were adorned with palms, lilies and choice potted plants and flowers.

ANCIENT FORESTERS.

The members of Court Richmond, A. O. F., spent a pleasant time together Friday evening. After the initiation of a candidate, refreshments consisting of coffee, ham sandwiches, biscuits, cheese, ice cream, etc., were served in the Court Room to those present, about 35 in number. This was followed by an interesting programme of speeches, songs and anecdotes. Among the brethren from a distance were Messrs. A. J. Rupert, J. and C. McConaghy of Toronto; and Beverley Glover of Oshawa.

Our direct import of dress goods, laces, muslins, ribbons, linings, etc., is to hand this week; extra values. Atkinson & Switzer.

EARLY MORNING FIRE.

The "fire" alarm sounded at 5.30 yesterday morning, and in a few minutes firemen and citizens generally were out in the street. The scene of the fire was at Mr. Slaney's, where it had broken out in the kitchen. None of the inmates had yet risen from their beds, and it is supposed that the fire had been smouldering from the evening before. The trouble was caused from a defect in the chimney, fire having passed through it and burned the woodwork behind. There was not much damage done, and the loss, probably $30, is covered by insurance in the Mercantile. Mr. Slaney desires to thank the firemen and others who worked so faithfully in saving his property.

POPULAR MONTHLY.

There are many interesting features in the April number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly. The frontispiece of this number is a remarkable drawing by Charles Livingstone Bull, that forms one of a series of full-page drawings called Leaves from a Hunter's Sketch Book, which give a pictorial value to the pictorial side of this number. A sketch by John Uri Lloyd called "Northern Kentucky in War Time," a vivid recollection of a past period described with great literary charm; a striking character sketch of Mayor Jones, the Golden Rule Mayor of Toledo, a man about whom opinions so widely differ at present, and a study of the career and attainments of the celebrated actress Mrs. Leslie Carter, add to the all-round character of this number.

We aim to secure your confidence, and our prices are calculated to make us good marksmen. Extra blend of coffee, ground while you wait, 16c. lb.; best green Rio coffee, 11c. lb. Atkinson & Switzer.

THE PRESIDENT'S MOTHER.

The mother of a President of the United States is always an object of special interest and regard on the part of the people. But in all that has been written about Mr. Roosevelt since he became Chief Executive last September there has been little or no mention of his mother. On this account, and because she was a remarkably fine and lovely woman, much interest attaches to an article on "The President's Mother" which will appear in The Ladies' Home Journal in the near future. It will be the first story of her life yet told, and will be one of a series of articles, the first of which is published in the current number of the Journal, on the President and his family. Miss Alice Roosevelt is the subject of this. Next month "The Out-door President" will be told of, and later the President's wife and children will be portrayed.
