DISTRESSING CASE OF CON- SUMPTION.

Four of One Family Pass Away—Last Daughter Now Ill.

A Toronto clergyman tells of a family in his congregation, which consisted of the mother and five children—the father being dead—four of whom in a few years have fallen victims to consumption and died. And now the fifth, a daughter, who is employed in the office of a wholesaler, and who has been the one source of support to the mother, is obliged to leave her work, realizing that she also—mainly, it is believed, as a result of nursing her brothers and sisters—has contracted this dread disease. Kind friends are interesting themselves in the case, but the difficulty met with is to send her to a place where the proper care and treatment will be given.

It is for such cases as this—and there is hardly a clergyman in any city who is not constantly meeting such appeals—that the new Free Consumptive Hospital, under the auspices of the National Sanitarium Association, is being built. The people of Canada as a whole must feel grateful to Mr. W. J. Gage and the executors of the late Hart A. Massey, who out of their own funds have erected this building. But before it can be occupied it must be furnished with beds and other proper furnishings and appointments. The National Sanitarium Association, already carrying a heavy debt, are not able to furnish the new building so generously placed at their disposal, and are appealing to citizens generally the Dominion over for $10,000 for this purpose.

It does not need the suggestion that this is the most pressing of all charities at this time, for the public are fully awakened to the widespread character of consumption, and also to the fact, as demonstrated by the best medical authorities, that when this disease is taken hold of in its early stages it, as much as any other disease, is curable. The new hospital, just so soon as the money is raised to complete the furnishings, will be ready to receive fifty patients, free of charge—even their railway fare will not be a tax upon them.

Chief Justice Sir Wm. R. Meredith, 4 Lampart Ave., Toronto, has kindly consented to receive contributions for the Free Consumptive Hospital; or they can be sent to Mr. W. J. Gage, 54 Front St.
West, Toronto; or to the National Trust Co., Limited, 22 King St. East, Toronto.

Subscriptions may also be sent direct to THE LIBERAL, Richmond Hill, and acknowledgment of them will be made in that paper.

Politics in Aurora

The Mechanics' Hall, Aurora, one of the largest halls in North York, was taxed to its utmost capacity on Friday evening, when a meeting was held in the interest of Hon. E. J.
Davis, Commissioner of Crown Lands.
The interior of the building was tastefully and elaborately decorated with flags, bunting, mottoes, and pictures, and the enthusiastic audience was graced with the presence of more than a hundred ladies.

A feature of the meeting was the presence on the platform of the leading manufacturers of the riding, who also spoke in favor of a continuance of the Ross Administration, mentioning the fact that largely because of increased business, incident upon the development of New Ontario, their factories had been working overtime for some months past.

The chairman, ex-Mayor Fleury, manufacturer of agricultural implements, said:—We have never employed so many men in our factory or paid so much in wages as we have in the past two months, and I can say, in all business to Mr. Davis, that a considerable portion of that trade is due to the opening up of New Ontario. (Applause.)

Mayor Cane, one of the largest woodware manufacturers in the Dominion, referred to the assistance Mr.
Davis has been in helping the Town of Newmarket in the matter of legislation, and Mr. Fred. Underhill, of the boot and shoe firm of Underhill & Sissman, Aurora, said that he found it necessary to take a stand in the contest, owing to the misrepresentations as to where he stood and how his employees were likely to vote. He personally felt they could not keep a good Government in power too long, and as for his employees, he felt on election day they would show the world that John Bright's estimate of the supremacy of the intellect of the shoemaker still held good. (Applause.) The tirade of abuse heaped upon the members of the Government by Mr. Whitney and The Mail was sufficient, in the speaker's estimation, to cause men who thought anything of their party or country to declare themselves with no uncertain sound. (Applause.) We have, said Mr. Underhill, been running overtime ever since we have been in Aurora, have not been able to keep with our orders, and the jobbers a middlemen tell us that the great bulk of these goods are going into New Ontario. (Applause.) When here Mr.

Whitney had said that his policy to New Ontario was practically the same as that of the Government, but Mr.
Underhill, as a manufacturer, was afraid Mr. Whitney's sameness might not be the same. By returning Mr.
Davis, said Mr. Underhill in conclusion, you will not only be doing what is right by him, but you will be doing justice to yourselves. (Applause.) Mr. Clayton Hartman of Clarksburg, son of the late Joseph Hartman, who represented North York in the old Parliament of Upper Canada, delivered a stirring address, and made a strong plea for Hon. Mr. Davis and a continuance in power of one of the best Governments that ever ruled in any province.

Hon. E. J. Davis followed in an excellent speech. The Commissioner was in a cheerful vein, and received a rousing welcome. After his introductory remarks he referred at some length to the work of his department, taking exception to Mr. Whitney's charge that the veterans never received their land grants. He (Mr. Whitney) also said that the grant was practically valueless anyway. On the other hand it was complained that the land reckoning at one dollar an acre was worth three million dollars, and the giving away of this amount was a grievous wrong. Mr. Davis explained that many of the veterans would have received their certificates before this, but the applicants everywhere wished to be treated alike, and it was felt that their wishes should be respected as far as possible. Many other matters touching his department and regarding the development of New Ontario were touched upon by Mr. Davis, and in the course of a reference to his opponent, he pointed out that eight years ago Mr. Lennox stumped the riding against him on the ground that it was a shame that any other than a farmer should represent the agricultural constituency of North York.
Mr. Davis, in addition to being a large manufacturer is a farmer on quite an extended scale, and his opponent, who is a lawyer now, had nothing to say about a farmer representative.

Mr. N. W. Rowell closed the meeting with one of the ablest speeches ever heard in Aurora. For more than an hour he dealt with the question of pulp wood in New Ontario, and proved conclusively that the Government's policy was satisfactory in every particular.

Maple

The teachers and pupils of the Public School kept last Friday as Arbor Day, and planted flowers and a number of trees in the school grounds.

C. S. McDonald, V. S., of Toronto, and Mr. T. Cousins were buying horses last week to send to South Africa. They wish to secure a large number yet for the same purpose.

Little Walter Hulse was bitten on the face on Monday by a dog owned by T. Speight. Dr. Sisley attended to the injury.

Last Friday night while returning from the city one of our merchants got bewildered in the darkness and thought he had reached home when he was just at the south end of the village. His loud shouts for a light soon attracted attention, and he was able to proceed safely to his destination.

On Monday night the Epworth League held a union meeting with the Juniors. A paper on Samuel's Call was read by Miss Bertie Rupert, and a musical and literary programme was given by other members of the League.

Quarterly services will be held in the Methodist church next Sabbath.
A first-class horse-shoer and general blacksmith is in the old stand, Cousins' shop, in the person of Richard Fawcett. The proprietor hopes for a generous share of patronage which he has always received and hopes to merit.

In a school in Kingston, on Monday afternoon, Eric Sharp, a school boy 15 years old, fatally shot Beatrice Holland, a school girl 15 years of age.
The jury brought in a verdict of acci-that the boy was a cigarette smoker and a reader of novels of the Jesse
