LOCALS.

Read P. G. Savage's change of adv. this week. Wall papers 2 cts. and upwards, and other lines at low prices.

A meeting of those wishing to become members of the band will be held in the Lorne Hall to-night at 8 o'clock.

The Liberals of the village held a meeting for organization purposes in the Temperance Hall on Saturday evening.

Mr. J. F. Rowland on Thursday played in the Standard Bank's first baseball match of the season, winning from the Ontario bank by a score of 7 to 6.

Mary Agnes McKenzie, aged 20 years, died at the residence of her uncle in Churchill, on Tuesday. The interment will take place in the Oak Ridges cemetery this afternoon.

Mr. Fred C. Ash of Markham was in the village Monday posting up Proclamation bills relating to the coming East York Election. Mr. Beasley of Weston was through here Tuesday performing a similar work for the election in West York.

Examine at your leisure here; buy at your pleasure. Atkinson & Switzer.

Proclamation bills are up announcing the nomination of candidates for East and West York on the 22nd inst. The former will be held at Markham, the latter at Weston. Mr. James Massie, Registrar, is Returning Officer for East York; and Mr. P. Ellis, Police Magistrate, for West York.

The pocket-book argument of our goods is unanswerable. Atkinson & Switzer.

There was a baseball match in the park Tuesday after school hours, between the Public School and the junior pupils of the High School. There was not time to play the fifth innings, so the match was declared a draw. The score at the close of the fourth innings stood 16 to 15 in favor of the High School.

Window glass, all sizes in stock; we are prepared to give close quotations in glass. Atkinson & Switzer.

Mr. J. B. McLean, clerk of Vaughan, will meet the Pathmasters of the Township, and deliver their lists as follows:—Dominion House, Richmond Hill, Friday, May 16, from 10 to 12; Concord Post Office from 2 to 4; Saturday will be at Emeler's Hotel, Woodbridge from 10 to 12; Kleinburg from 2 to 4.

There is a much less something about the cut and finish of our Piccadilly suits for men that appeals to careful dressers. Atkinson & Switzer.

Ramsden, Mr. A. F. Wilson and Mr. Richardson. Mr. Moyes or his representative is invited to speak. Reserved seats for ladies.

CHICAGO ELECTION.

The Intercoast of Chicago, makes the following announcement regarding the approaching election: "Alderman Brennan announced yesterday that he would ask the convention Democratic to put Armand F. Teffy on the judicial ticket. Mr. Teffy was connected with the corporation counsel's for many years and is a well-known lawyer."

The fabric, the shape, the style, finish and make-up stamp our Piccadilly suits perfect as can be made by human hands; examine the suit at 10.50. Atkinson & Switzer.

EDUCATIONAL MONTHLY.

The May number of the Educational Monthly, published in Toronto, contains many valuable and well written papers, and should be in the hands of all teachers and students. Among the articles are Arnold of Rugby, notes in English in America, Vocal Music in our Public Schools, Studies in English Grammar, Voluntary Schools &c. The editorial notes are good, and ever solutions of questions in Arithmetic are given. The Journal is $1.00 year.

MR. HILL AT MAPLE.

A public meeting in the interest of W. J. Hill, Ex. M. P. P., was held at the Masonic Hall, Maple, last evening. The hall was crowded, and the meeting was enthusiastic. Many resolutions were passed. Good addresses were given by Mr. T. C. Robinette, of Toronto; Mr. Barton of Weston, and the candidate. Mr. Hill's popularity and around Maple was shown by frequent outbursts of applause. The meeting closed with cheers for the ing and Mr. Hill.

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

The Council met on May 13. Members all present. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Mr. Wm. T. Storey and Mr. Naughton addressed the council in reference to matters in connection with the care-taking of the schools and school grounds. Mr. Innes moved, seconded by Mr. Hill, that the Reeve, the Chairman of the Board of Education, the Secretary of the Board, and the Clerk of the Village do form a committee to draft an agreement between the Council and the Board of Education relating to the duties of the caretaker of the schools. —Carried. Council adjourned.

Four cans sugar corn for 25c.; 1 can each tomatoes, peas and corn for 25c.; 5 lbs. best pearl tapioca for 25c.; 5 lbs. berry sugar for 25c.; 8 bars Happy Home soap for 25c. Atkinson and Switzer.

NARROW ESCAPE.

On Monday morning of last week Mrs. (Rev.) McCulloch, of Newmarket, formerly of this place, with great presence of mind, managed to save the life of her little children. She had just gone down stairs leaving her three youngest daughters in their bedroom to finish dressing themselves. A few minutes afterwards the youngest girl called to her mother saying that Joy (one of the twins) had lighted a match. Mrs. McCulloch ran up stairs and was just in time to save the children. The child's clothing was on fire, her hair was singed, and a large blister was burned on her side. The frightened mother smothered the flames with a blanket, and thus prevented a sad catastrophe.

Mangel seed, mammoth long red and mammoth yellow intermediate; turnip seed, purple top swede, at lowest figures, at Atkinson & Switzer's.

DEATH OF KING'S REEVE.

Mr. J. Whiting Crossley, reeve of King, died at his home in King City on Saturday last, the 10th of May, in his 61st year. The funeral took place to King City cemetery on Monday, where the remains were laid to rest in the family plot. Although the funeral was announced as private there were many friends present. The pall-bearers were the four colleagues of deceased in the Council, namely Messrs. Legge, Phillips, Rogers and Armstrong; Mr. Walton, treasurer; and Mr. Jenkins, township clerk. Among the mourners were the two surviving brothers, Revs. Hugh and D. O. Crossley. Before leaving the residence service was held, in which Rev. Mr. Carmichael, Presbyterian clergyman; Rev. Mr. Robinson, Methodist; and Rev. Mr. Spraggs, Baptist, took part.

Boots and Shoes—Our stock is now complete. A large lot of new samples up-to-date goods at very low price. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

CHURCH BANQUET.

Mr. T. Church celebrated the anniversary of his birthday by giving a supper to a few of his friends at the Palmer House last Thursday evening. Prominent among those present were Mayor Howland, organizer Birmingham, Mr. J. W. Moyes, P. Lilley, Christmas and others. We are not sure whether it was the 20th or 30th anniversary, as Mr. Church was very reticent on that point, but notwithstanding this mystery a very pleasant evening was spent. The management of the Metropolitan placed a special car at the disposal of Mr. Church which arrived at the Palmer House about 8 o'clock. After a sumptuous repast a short toast list was indulged in with Mr. Church in the chair. The city of Toronto was responded to by Mayor Howland; Parliament of Canada by Mr. J. W. Moyes and Mr. J. W. Elliott; County Council by Mr. W. H. Pugsley; Sports by Messrs. Lilley, Christmas, Nicholls, Rowland and others whose names our reporter could not obtain. The car returned about 11 o'clock, all well satisfied they had spent a pleasant and profitable evening.

Seeds—Corn, white and yellow; carrot, mangel, sugar mangel and sugar beet seeds. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

Victoria Square

On Monday night last the Epworth League had a most enjoyable evening in charge of the Literary Department. The orchestra furnished music to the satisfaction of all; two choruses were given by the little girls; recitations were given by Greta Lunan, Walter Frisby, and Jean Scott; Cecil Klinck read a very suggestive paper on "Sociability." Mr. T. Johnson, President of the League, occupied the chair. Refreshments were served and a collection was taken for the funds of the League. There is a unanimous feeling that this was one of the best social evenings in the history of the League.

Miss Fitzpatrick of Toronto, was the guest of the Misses Hopper over Sunday. Mr. William Petty of Cherrywood, is spending a few days with his old friend, Mr. Edward Sanderson. A meeting of the friends of the Sunday School is to be held to-night, to decide about the annual picnic for the Sunday School.
