The New Ontario Edition of the Toronto Daily Star is one of the best things of the kind ever published by a Canadian paper. It presents with all the typographical neatness the resources, and development now going on, in what has come to be called New Ontario. Whatever the Toronto Star undertakes it carries through in the very best way, and this last evidence of its enterprise is proof of the growing strength of that up-to-date paper.

Seed Potatoes, large quantity, cheap; seed corn; best varieties turnip seed. Naughton Bros., Elgin Mills.

The June Review of Reviews gives a graphic and comprehensive account of the Martinique catastrophe, illustrated from the most recent photographs taken on the ill-fated island. Mont Pellee's eruptions are described from the scientist's point of view by Dr. W. J. McGee, of the Bureau of Ethnology at Washington. The Review has again distanced all its contemporaries, as it did during the Spanish War, in the journalistic treatment of historic events.

EPWORTH LEAGUE. The Roll-call service of the Epworth League will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject for thought "The purpose of His coming." "And He shall save the people from their sins."
