The boys hope to see as large and as enthusiastic a crowd at this game as they had at their last and promise to give a better account of themselves this time. Game called at 3.30. Admission 10 cents. Ladies free.

Here we are always vigilant of styles, always careful of qualities, always watchful of prices. No wonder that so many women think of Atkinson & Switzer's at buying time.

A GOOD POSITION.

The following personal mention in Tuesday's Globe, which refers to a former Principal of the Richmond Hill Public School, will be read with interest: Mr. F. H. Kirkpatrick, formerly professor of oratory at St. Michael's College, and at present professor of oratory at Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio, has recently accepted a call to the chair of oratory in the University of Wooster. The University of Wooster is one of the foremost Presbyterian universities of the United States. Mr. Kirkpatrick is a Canadian and a native of Bradford.

STANDARD BANK WON.

The first base-ball match of the season was played in the park on Saturday, the contesting teams being the Standard Bank of Toronto and Richmond Hill. The score was 19-9 in favor of the visitors. A large number of spectators were present with a fair sprinkling of ladies who vigorously cheered the many good plays of both teams. Grant for the visitors was in great form allowing only 12 hits off his delivery. The principal features of the locals' play was the magnificent fielding of Sheardown who accepted 8 chances at left field. Batteries for Standard Bank were Lamont and Grant, and for Richmond Hill, Ellston and Gardner. Mr. Scott of the Traders Bank umpired to the satisfaction of all.

NOTES BY THE SPORTING EDITOR.
Adams was a very busy young man. Mr. Bell was a good second.
Ellston caught well for the locals.
Farmer Brown made a hit with the ladies; also a three-base hit.
Harry rooted well for the locals.
If Lamont had taken "a cup of tea and a piece of cake" he might have hit the ball.
Mul Mulcahy was buzzing around. "Whiskers" was very much in evidence.
Suggested—"Side combs for Grant."
Question—"When are they coming again?"

News Notes.

Wm. Linton of Aurora has gone to England to purchase a load of thoro-bred cattle for Hon. W. Mulock.

A public meeting for the nomination of a candidate to fill the office of reeve for King township, owing to the death of the late reeve, J. W. Crossley, will be held at Schomberg on the 16th inst.

We can sell you a bill of No. 1 dry goods and groceries such as is needed for family consumption at figures that will save you money, and would be very pleased to do it. Atkinson and Switzer.

The great world event of June, the coronation of King Edward VII., of England, will picture scenes that have had no parallel in the lives of the present generation, and for this reason an article by Sir Edwin Arnold on the Coronation Festivities, and a description by the late Sir Walter Besant of the Pageants of London, in the July Delineator, are especially interesting.

Our stock never was better assorted than it is now; we never gave better values than we do now; we never felt more disposed to sell you the goods you want than now. Atkinson and Switzer.

So far the recounts of the ballots cast in the recent Provincial elections have made no material changes. In Lennox Mr. Madole, Liberal, tied with Carscallen, Conservative.
