RICHMOND HILL, January 1, 1903

Thornhill.

On Tuesday evening of last week the Sabbath School of the Presbyterian Church, Thornhill, held its annual Christmas entertainment.

There was a large attendance of the scholars and their friends. Tea was served in the school room, after which a programme consisting of songs, recitations and readings was pleasantly rendered by a number of the scholars. At the close of the programme Mr. W. J. Allison gave a short address speaking favorably of the work done in the school during the year by the teachers and scholars. In concluding he read the following address, and in the name of the congregation Messrs. Robert Cox and Wm. Bennetwell presented the pastor with a beautiful fur lined coat. Mr. Grant who was entirely taken by surprise, heartily thanked the congregation for their timely and suitable gift, saying that while he valued the costly garment, he appreciated more highly the kind sentiments expressed in the address concerning his work. He had striven during his ministry amongst them to be faithful, and his eight years' service with them had gone past, quickly and pleasantly because of the mutual love that existed between them. His prayer was that this love would grow warmer as they continued together in the service of the Lord. After the distribution of the many beautiful presents that adorned the Christmas tree a most enjoyable and happy meeting was brought to a close by the benediction.

Rev. Mr. Grant,
Dear Pastor.—We, the undersigned members and adherents of Thornhill Methodist Church, are grateful to Almighty God for having spared your life to minister to us these last eight years.

Your devotion to your Christian service, and your unflinching endeavors to lead us all in the right path have inspired and encouraged us to labor more faithfully for our Lord and Master. You have been ever zealous in proclaiming the Gospel, which has brought peace to many of our souls.

We, then fully appreciating your spiritual work in our behalf take this opportunity of presenting to you this fur-lined coat; and our prayer is that you may long be permitted to wear it. While it is keeping your body comfortable may it also be a reminder that you and yours have the kindest sympathy from the congregation of Thornhill in your ministry.

At last when our work is done here, may we all meet at Christ's right hand.

Signed on behalf of the Congregation,
ROBERT COX
WILLIAM BENNETT
